F. M. Stevens, Dr. Clingman Starnes, S. W. Wadsworth—apply to Sister Mary Baptist.

Two cases were tried in the Mayor's court yesterday morning.
Mr. W. A. Smith, of Hendersonville, was at the Grand Central yesterday.

Quite a number of our citizens are attending the commencement exercises of Judson College at Hendersonville to-day.

Mr. F. McCrary, late with G. L.
McDonald, has accepted a position with Smith & Baird, where he will be pleased to see and serve his many friends.

An important special meeting of the Asheville Light Infantry was held last night for the purpose of making preparations for their inspection to-morrow.

Mr. D. M. Smith, of this city, left Tuesday for New York, where he goes to purchase a herd of registered Holstein cattle for the dairy farm of Jas. N. Vance, Esq.

The telegrams are burdened solely with the labors of the Chicago convention. Nothing else is referred to. So that we offer very little variety of late general news.

Arrivals at the Swannanoa last night were Thos. C. Peck, Baltimore; W. Barnwell, Waynesville; J.
K. White, Richmond, and J. M.
O'Connor, Portsmouth, Va.

The regular communication of Asheville Lodge No. 410, F. and A. M., will be held this evening. Work in the third degree.

J. A. CONANT, Sec.
The mercury on Tuesday in Knoxville was 97 to 100 in the shade.
What it was at night deponent saith not. It is hot everywhere.
Now, ho! for the mountains! Here at least, and only here, will be found refreshing nights.

Yesterday here at 2 p. m. the mercury was at 85 in the shade—in many localities somewhat lower, and in some a little higher. At the hour named the heavens became overcast with prospects of rain and heavy electric disturbances.

A contract will be signed in a few days for the purchase of a 15-horse power engine, to be placed in the plant of the Asheville Electric Light Company. An increased service of fare and incandescent lights will also be considered by the company.

Mr. J. W. Wadsworth of Charlotte, greeted his many friends in Asheville yesterday, and as always, he seems in a good humor with all kindred. His pleasant smile and kindly eye betokens fine health and generous spirits. Mr. Wadsworth is a property owner here and we hope some day to win him from Charlotte.

Baron Eugene d'Alinge, who has become a resident of this county, paid us an agreeable visit yesterday.
He has purchased the residence and farm of the late W. H. Brown, near Arden, and gives his place a Russian name, Nadesha, which, being translated, means Hope. He is a German by birth, in this country about twelve months, speaking English imperfectly, but learning rapidly. His wife is a Russian, and with the remarkable aptitude of her race for language, already speaks English well. They are both highly pleased; and the Baron's chief delight is that he has already given a double pledge of his loyalty to the United States, his wife on Monday having presented him with twin boys.

Several real estate transfers were recorded yesterday.
The Gran Central hotel front was being repainted yesterday.

F. M. Stevens, Esq., of Berea, O., and Miss Stevens, are in the city.
Capt. M. J. Fagg and family leaves to-day for a visit to Alabama.
Prayer meeting exercises at the M. E. Church South, were held last night.

Mr. W. E. Moore, of the Webster bar, is in attendance upon Buncombe court.

Capt. John H. Daniel, of the Wilmington Light Infantry, is registered at the Swannanoa.

Mrs. Frank Line, accompanied by her two children, of Jacksonville, Fla., is at the Swannanoa for the summer.

Wm. Walker, a colored man, was committed to jail yesterday by U. S.
Commissioner Sumner, for passing counterfeit money.

Dr. W. W. Green, of Cameron Texas, called on us yesterday. He is on a visit to his father, the Rev.
Mr. Green, of Henderson county.

Officer J. M. Rowan of the city police and his in Doubleday, from Mr. J. H. McConnell. Price paid $600.

Mr. Frank Loughran, wife and child, returned home from Washington last evening. Mr. L. reports the Nation's capital as being fearfully hot.

The Vance Guards, of Henderson, Vance county, have received their uniforms, been inspected, and are now ready for the State Guard encampment.

A. G. Hughes, Cincinnati; Misses Carrie and Annie Marsh, Salisbury; H. H. Chisholm, Brevard, and R. L.
Dewey, St. Albans, Vt., were at the Grand Central last night.

Mr. Wm. Edmiston (not Edmonston as we spelled it) now in account of the Bushnell Mills made us a pleasant call yesterday. He is the Secretary of the Bushnell Mills, and a gentleman of pleasant manners and liberal sentiments, heartily inclined to take hold of things in the South if rightly encouraged.

McIntyre Bros. have an ingenious arrangement of fans which completely banishes the flies from their beef market, something that seems as effectual as it certainly is pleasant. The fans are continuously revolving, being driven by a water motor, small leather bands connecting them with the fly wheel; they afford a refreshing cool effect, and not a fly is to be seen in the market. The motor and fans were put in by Messrs. Cushman and Lindsey. The motor is also used for a meat grinder.

The Colored Institute.
Under the charge of Superintendent John W. Starnes, still continues its sessions, with most gratifying results. The attendance is large and the interest warm.

Will be Discontinued.
The uptown ticket office of the R. & D. railroad, in this city, under the management of Mr. F. Stikeleather will be closed July 1st. This is done by order of the authorities at Washington, and will entail much serious inconvenience to the travelling public in this city. Why the office will be closed we cannot understand, and our efforts to ascertain the exact facts in the case met with no success last evening.

F. A. Sondley, Esq.
At a meeting of the Alumni of Wofford College, Spartanburg, on Tuesday evening. Mr. R. W. Simpson, of Anderson, S. C., was chosen to deliver the next annual address before the Alumni, and Mr. F. A.
Sondley, of this city, was chosen alternate. We congratulate the association upon the selection of Mr.
Sondley, and we promise in advance an address which will be eminently worthy of the college and the learned gentleman.

A Burning Shame.
Inspector-General Francis H.
Cameron, N. C. S. G., will probably inspect the Asheville Light Infantry to-morrow night. This company is the only one in the State Guard that has not been inspected. The uniforms have been received and now lie in the express office for the want of a few funds with which to pay the manufacturer of the same. Without these uniforms the company cannot be inspected. This is a settled and irrevocable decision. A committee was out among the citizens yesterday soliciting necessary funds, but the amount collected was almost totally insufficient. This is a shame and disgrace to the city. Help the boys out; and help them to-day. If not inspected to-morrow night, the company will be disbanded, and the guns and equipments returned to the ordnance officer at Raleigh. Will the citizens of Asheville submit to this disgrace?
We shall see.

THE TELEPHONE QUESTION.
Shall Asheville be Burdened With a Monopoly or Not?
For the information of the Sun only, we state the CITIZEN has not, is not, and will not be at all uneasy regarding the introduction of a gingantic monopolistic enterprise (?) in the city of Asheville in the shape of the Southern Bell Telephone Company. In our opinion the city has not "fully made up its mind that an exchange will be established here, without interruption." The soft soaping process indulged in by our contemporary regarding the loss of the local company which would accrue to them by the introduction of the "Bell" system entirely too thin, and does not in the least, meet the end which it was intended to meet. If the Bell Co. has any right in the local organization, we do not see how it can advocate a service that is so much higher in its charges for the same service performed. And again, the Sun speaks without reason, when it states "that the city has not made up its mind to give the organization, we do not see how it
much higher in its charges for the same service performed. And again,
