NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
Furness, Stone & Cameron, 13 Patton Ave., Asheville, N. C.
It rains! it rains! it rains!

The Pulliam street nuisance must go.
The weather was a little cyclonic yesterday.

Work on the new W. N. C. depot is progressing finely.
The market was well supplied with fruit yesterday.

Mr. John A. Nichols, of the Farmers' warehouse, has returned from a business trip West.

The nuisance now existing at the corner of Pulliam and Water streets must go—the quicker the better.

We regret to learn the serious illness of our townsman J. H. Carter, Esq. It is hoped he may soon be restored.

Clerk of the superior court C. M.
Pace, of Henderson, and Mr. J. C.
Pritchard of Marshall, were in the city yesterday.

Visitors to the city for the summer season are pouring in from all sections; and the summer travel to this point is fully set in.

Mr. Wm. McBain, manager of the Baltimore United Oil Company, is in the city on business connected with his company's interests at this place.

Mr. L. M. Bryan, one of our most valued friends, called on us yesterday. He is a true blue democrat in a county largely, though not hopelessly republican.

At Knoxville work has been begun in transforming the old Atkin House into a convenient and inconspicuous passenger depot, and institution much needed in that city.

The testimony in the suit of E.
Clayton vs. the W. N. C. Railroad was completed in the Superior court yesterday afternoon. Argument by counsel will be made this morning.

A little six year old daughter of Mr. Dick Robertson, of Leicester township, fell from a swing last Sunday and got her right leg broken above the knee, we much regret to learn.

Madison heard from again.
It has been only a few days since the CRITZEN announced the birth of a baby with a bustle in Madison county, and now, following close upon the heels of that remarkable event, we are called upon to chronicle another phenomenal occurrence in the same county. Sunday morning last, the wife of Mr. Hardy Merrell gave birth to three babies, all girls, each weighing three and a half pounds. The bustle attachment was left off, it seems in this instance, but if they live we are free to assert that they will "get there just the same."

The Beginning of the End.
A telegram to the Knoxville Tribune dated Greenville, S. C., June 26th gives the important and gratifying information that a train has actually been run on the O. K. & W. road, begun at Greenville. The start for Knoxville has thus fairly been begun. We in Asheville, have only indirect interest in the result, nevertheless we are heartily in sympathy with the project and wish it full and speedy success.

The telegram referred to says: Locomotive "J. B. Humbert," number one, Carolina, Knoxville & Western Railroad left the side track at Greenville this morning at nine o'clock, and pulled on to the line of the new road. The engine pushed a flat car loaded with new rails. A number of citizens made a mile trip on the tender. The appearance of the engine on the new line created considerable enthusiasm.

THE BOARD OF APPRAISERS.
And their Action Yesterday—Administrations, Etc.

The Board of Appraisers of the Western North Carolina Railroad was in session in this city yesterday.

This Board is composed of one county commissioner from each county in which the road is located, and is for the purpose of assessing the taxable property owned by the said road in those counties.

The members constituting this body yesterday were as follows: J.
E. Rankin, chairman, Buncombe; T. J. Sumner, Rowan; G. M. Shumper, Irregular; R. L. Whitaker, Macon; W. E. Powe, Burke; A. S.
Dula, McDowell; H. P. Haynes, Haywood; R. L. Leatherwood, proxy Swain; C. C. Pritchard, proxy, Madison; S. H. Bryson, Jackson.

Mr. J. F. Morpheus was in the city yesterday on his way from Marion, where he delivered a masonic lecture Tuesday night.

A party charged with larceny was discharged in Justice Malone's court yesterday afternoon for lack of evidence to convict.

Mr. Charles McNamee, of New York, agent of W. K. Vanderbilt, Esq., for the purchase of certain lands near Asheville, will return to his home this morning after a stay of about two months in our midst.

The funeral of the late corporal W. A. Patton, was largely attended yesterday afternoon, the Asheville Light Infantry acting as escort. Dr.
Rankin conducted the services. The sad and sudden death of this young man was not only a severe shock to his aged mother and family, but a large circle of friends. The family may be assured of the sincere sympathy of the community.

Winston, Raleigh, Fayetteville, Reidsville and several other towns in the State are preparing for a 4th of July celebration. The suggestion falls as flat here as if a proposition were made to celebrate the birthday of Benedict Arnold. And yet we believe our people are as loyal, as patriotic, as mindful of the results of Independence day as any other; they will not take the time to think of the anniversary.

Speaking of the Chicago platform, Hon. Thomas D. Johnston, in an interview with a reporter of the Washington Critic, says: "The platform is a fraud, an outrageous fraud, because they pretend to favor the repeal of this tax. They will repel the internal tax, they say, if the surplus continues. Now, the policy of the republicans is to use up the surplus by extravagant appropriations and by trying to force the passage of such bills as the Arrears of Pensions bill, which would prevent any reduction of taxation or the repeal of the internal revenue taxes, which they pretend to favor."

Divided into 80,000 shares of which 16,000 are held in North Carolina, and 64,000 shares are held by non-residents.
Respectfully submitted,
PEYTON RANDOLPH,
General Manager.

A PROSPEROUS HOTEL.
Over Forty-Five Thousand Arrivals
in Five Years.

One of the leading hotels in this city is the Grand Central, on Patton Avenue, kept by S. R. Chedester & Son. This house was erected in the travelling public about five years ago, and since its opening has been the favorite $200 per day house with the commercial and other tourists who travel in Western Carolina.
Mr. Chedester has found out that it pays to keep a good hotel, and that that end has spared neither pains or expense in efforts to please his guests. Every room in the old building is excellently furnished and carpeted, with gas in each, and water-pipes run through the entire building. The table is kept up to the standard, and everything that the market affords in season is set before the guests prepared in the best manner. During the time that this hotel has been running there have been forty-five thousand and three guests registered; an average of twenty-five and a half per day.
This year the average number of guests registered has amounted to thirty per day. The Grand Central is run at a comparatively small expense, and its proprietors are making money. The new Grand Central annex opposite the old building has been completed and elegantly furnished throughout. This addition will be used as sleeping apartments only, and will comfortably accommodate one hundred and seventy-five guests. The new building, including the land upon which it stands, cost twenty thousand dollars. The Grand Central is prospering, and we do not know of a superior $200 house in North Carolina. Mr. Chedester contemplates future additions and improvements to his hotel, which will be duly recorded in these columns.

At the home of her husband, near Luthers, a few evenings ago, Rebecca, the beloved wife of Enoch Morgan, Esq. For some years Mrs.
Morgan had been an invalid, but bore her sufferings with a fortitude and Christian resignation which only the grace of God could give.
She was born in Mumfords Cove, McDowell county, and came to Raleigh, N. C., 17 years ago. She shortly thereafter joined the Baptist church, and lived a consistent life throughout. She leaves a husband, and a large circle of relatives and friends who deeply mourn her loss. The good woman has gone to her reward, and "remains for the people of God."

BATTERY MARK.
No report sent in last night.

With two cases of drunk, two cases of affray, one case of fast driving, another of disorderly conduct, and four cases of "hit-to-jack," his Honor had a lively time of it yesterday morning. Some were admitted to the police house, and some were carried over until this morning. One consistent defendant wanted to go to jail for 10 days, but he didn't remit and the c. d. will have to crack granite on the public wharf for the next few days. The other defendant wanted Dr. Burroughs summoned as an expert, to decide whether he had an attack of hydrophobia or not. Chief Magistrate diagnosed the case, told his Honor that the defendant was suffering from an overdose of alcohol, and was also threatened with a pulmonary attack of dangerous character, and prescribed pyrosulphate-hydriodate and hard work in equal doses constantly for ten days.
His Honor accepted the advice, turned the prisoner over to the street inspector, and called up that "if he bought a book of Asheville real estate for $40.00.

Within Our Gates

During the next three months, we estimate that there will be fifteen thousand and people. This is estimating. Our present population at ten thousand, to which we add five thousand visitors that we expect to be here and at near by hotels and boarding houses. The question arises how are we to feed this multitude?

That is a very good question to answer, provided you have the provisions on hand.
But suppose we should be vised at this summer with a blizzard, such as they had in New York last winter, could we pull through?

Well, hardly ever have snow storms here at this season, and enough to crop the wheat of a summer, but you need not be surprised to see our prices go a great deal lower than the lowest price of the year, and the thermometer during blizzards fall in winter.

Having foreseen the crop of visitors to Western North Carolina this summer, we have prepared ourselves accordingly, and are now busy receiving the finest and
