WHAT'S The Difference Betwe A man going down Walnut street eating Chestnut? Or a man going up Chestnut street eating Walnuts? Answer: Oh Shucks!

Don't Amount to Shucks, when you compare them with the actual values, true worth and real merit of COOPER'S BARGAINS.

What we say and what they say may sound very similar, same as this does for instance: Otto B. Schott; Ought to be shot. Yet there is a vast difference between the meaning and the sound. Remember COOPER'S Supreme Chief J. D. Barnes, of Philadelphia, will organize "North Carolina's" Castle, Knights of the Golden Eagle, in this city, on Thursday evening next. Fifty-two charter members have been secured in Asheville.

Hon. H. A. Gudger and Mr. J. C. Pritchard addressed the electors of Buncombe at Leicester yesterday. Mr. Gudger demolished Pritchard in the first "innings," and the radical candidate for lieutenant-governor was considerably crest-fallen.

The Franklin Press says Mr. H. A. Gudger made the ablest speech delivered in Macon during this campaign in his discussion with Hon. J. C. Pritchard. Mr. Gudger is one of the strongest debaters in the State, of either party, and, confronted by Mr. Pritchard, he has the ablest speaker on the republican ticket of this State.

Mr. J. S. Cunningham, of Person county, the largest young farmer of North Carolina, and a son of one of the truest and purest men the State ever produced, is in the city. He is largely interested in Asheville case property. Mr. Cunningham is a thorough democrat, and we trust will find occasion to address his fellow farmers of this section during the pending campaign.

Hon. H. G. Ewart, republican candidate for Congress argues that factories, such as Graham's Cotton Factory, make more mouths to feed, and thereby increase the home market for farm products. Does Mr. Ewart mean to say that the establishment of factories increases the procreative facilities of the human race? Let Mr. Ewart answer this question, for upon its proper solution depends much which must affect the social as well as political economy of this country.

Postoffice inspector J. M. Gudger arrived in the city yesterday. Help the fever sufferers at Jacksonville, and help them now. Raise another $400 for the fever sufferers at Jacksonville to-day.

Rev. W. H. Osborne will preach at the French Broad Baptist church Sunday night next.

Attend the auction sale of the lot on Roberts street, for the benefit of the fever sufferers, to-day.

A new crossing was put down at the entrance to Church street from Patton Avenue, yesterday.

Six cases were tried in the police court yesterday morning, and the defendants were fined $43.50.

Waddell and Sandelin at Hendersonville on Tuesday next. Let everybody turn out to hear them.

A big time is expected at Swannanoa and North Fork to-night. Everybody is invited to be present.

Judge Chas. A. Moore, of the inferior court, went to Hot Springs yesterday on professional business.

Mr. W. J. Freeman, representing the Ullman, Philpot Co., of Cleveland, Ohio, was in the city yesterday.

We are crowded with communications just now—all interesting—which we will use as rapidly as possible.

Mr. J. M. Campbell yesterday sold a lot in West Asheville, to a party who will at once begin the improvement of the same.

Petitions asking for donations to the fever sufferers at Jacksonville were numerous circulated among our people yesterday.

No news from Hendersonville yesterday, which means that the fever scare has abated, and the refugees are leaving the place.

Don't fail to hear Carter and Malone at the Junction to-night. Give the speakers a big turnout, and listen to what they have to say.

Donate liberally to the relief of the fever-stricken people of Florida. Asheville will contribute three thousand dollars at the least.

Mr. H. C. Mark, of Greenville, S. C., and Marcus Endel, Esq., of Gainesville, Fla., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sol. Edel, of this city.

Mr. N. P. Chedester will make a rattling speech at Arden at 2 o'clock this afternoon. We understand that many of our citizens will go out to hear him.

The Asheville furniture factory now works seventy hands on full time, and the proprietors, Messrs. Avery and Erwin, have just received a $26,000 order from one firm in New York. Hurrah for Asheville.

One of the largest and most beautiful lines of silverware we have ever seen in the city is the new stock now on display at Cosby's jewelry store, on Patton Avenue. The prices are cheap, and the designs very beautiful.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure.

First Presbyterian Church, Rev. Jas. H. Morrison, of Louisville, Ky., will preach at this church on Sabbath evening next at 8 o'clock.

John Brooks. Is one of the most worthy and reliable colored men of the city, well to do, and attentive to his business. He is chiefly engaged in taking passengers to and from the depot, and has been doing it ever since the railroad reached here. Some time since he had the misfortune to lose one of his horses, and since then he has been driving a single carriage. He has just bought a new vehicle, handsome, easy and light running. He is always ready, and we recommend his services to the people of the city.

Speaking at North Fork. The Hon. A. T. Davidson, of this city, by special invitation of the Black Mountain democratic club, will address that body to-night at North Fork. The speaking, we are informed has been well advertised in the Swannanoa section and a large crowd is expected. The well known character of the Colonel as a strong speaker—plain, sensible and eloquent—will draw him a good audience anywhere. He will be accompanied by Mr. Locke Craig, of this city.

A Moonlight Fox Chase. Was indulged in by several of our young ladies and gentlemen last night. The chase was begun at the same place that it was on the night previous, and the fun was immense. The fox was caught, and the party returned to the city about eleven o'clock. Mr. J. Y. Jordan had three of his imported beagle hounds in the chase, and they were the admiration of the party.

Those participating in the hunt, were Mess. S. D. W. Furman, H. M. Marx, Thos. A. Jones, John G. France, J. Y. Jordan, Dr. Chas. E. Hilliard, R. L. Graham, and Misses J. A. Webb, Minnie Bearden, Addie Davidson, Annie and Mamie Hunt, Misses Evans, Katie Brown, and Minnie Reynolds.

No Yellow Fever in New Orleans. Not only New Orleans, but the States adjacent thereto were greatly agitated over the action of the Texas authorities establishing a quarantine against that city on account of rumored yellow fever therein. The authorities of the city, as appears in the Picayune of the 18th, declare no case of fever has existed there this season. Upon this assurance the quarantine was raised, but not until great damage had been done. The rumors grew until by the time it reached New York there were 1000 cases in New Orleans. Railroads running into Texas refused to receive freights, and in many ways were the people harassed by the cruelly false rumor. It is a great pity the inconsiderate fools who thus injure the interests of a community cannot be "shut up" in one way or another.

Rev. Jas. H. Morrison. Is announced to preach at the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening next. The occasion will be especially interesting because the reverend gentleman is a son of Buncombe who has gone forth to the sacred ministry, and in Louisville, Ky., has risen to a position of large influence. He is a son of the late Rev. W. N. Morrison, and a brother of Theo. S. Morrison, Esq. After nearly ten years of unremitting labor, he has returned to his native hearth for a brief season of rest. Mentions two large and flourishing churches have been built up in Louisville under his ministry and his preaching attracts, there as elsewhere, by its fervor and spirituality. There is no higher honor for our community than to owe as her sons, men engaged in the work of the christian ministry.

City Schools. The examination for admission to the public schools of the city will be continued to-day (Saturday) at Graded School No. 1, Academy st. Hours from 9 to 12 a. m., and from 3 to 5:30 p. m. In addition to the five grades open last year, tickets will be issued for the grades following:— Sixth Grade—Spelling, writing (business forms), English grammar, (complete) geography, physiology, physics, drawing, vocal music.

Seventh grade—English grammar and composition, English literature, writing (business forms) latin (begin), algebra, history of United States, geography, physics, drawing, vocal music.

Eighth grade—Words (synonyms and derivations), English literature, latin, grammar and Cesar, algebra, history, physical geography, physics, drawing, vocal music.

DOING BETTER! FOUR HUNDRED DOLLARS YESTERDAY!

THE PEOPLE RESPONDED LIBERALLY TO THE APPEAL AS THEY ALWAYS DO

When Made Fully Acquainted With the Details They are Asked to Relieve—A Good Day's Work Done Yesterday—Keep It Up.

Asheville humped herself yesterday, and it affords us much pleasure to announce the liberal donations made by our citizens for the relief of the suffering people of Florida.

We thought the folks that our people were not so uncharitable as they appeared to be on Thursday, when only thirty dollars was subscribed by them, but their action yesterday has removed whatever doubt there might have been in our mind, regarding their lack of true christian charity in this particular instance. Four hundred dollars in one day is a very respectable sum indeed, and we hope that the amount will be raised to-day. There are ten thousand inhabitants in Asheville, and if each one of these will give only thirty cents, we will send to Jacksonville three thousand dollars.

This amount represents precisely the aid that Asheville is able to give, and should give to those, who, by God's visitations, are in the very throes of death and starvation. There is no good reason why Asheville should not help Jacksonville to this extent, and we are free to confess that in our opinion, had Asheville been afflicted as Jacksonville has been and is now, the latter city would not have been negligent in helping to alleviate and eradicate her misfortunes. The people of Asheville should think of this matter; we have no right to feel in our ignorance that any other city, and who can foresee that Asheville will always be prosperous and free from those circumstances which leave desolation and destruction in their wake? Active among the workers in the city yesterday, were Messrs. J. A. Porter, J. H. Conroy and J. Taylor Amis. These gentlemen, together, secured about four hundred dollars, and the contributions sent to Mayor Harkins swelled the amount to four hundred and twenty three dollars ($423). This amount will be sent to Jacksonville at once, and our citizens will follow as soon as collected. Now, let every citizen, man, woman and child, white or black, donate something to the fever fund. If it is only a dime or a quarter, it will do the sickened people of Florida much good, and we will never miss it. Give something. Add your mite to the humane cause, and do it at once. We shall expect Asheville to behave handsomely in this matter, after all, and if it does not do so, we shall be most grievously disappointed in our estimation of the charity of our people.

The fund stands now about as follows: Previously acknowledged, $60.00 Yesterday's donations, 423.00 Total, $483.00

THE FIRST CHARITY. Aid for the Fever Sufferers at Jacksonville, Fla.

We are authorized by Mr. Jas. H. Loughran, proprietor of the "White Man's Bar," of this city, to state that during the next ten days he will donate every cent taken in as receipts from his billiard and pool tables to the yellow fever sufferers at Jacksonville, Fla. This is certainly commendable in Mr. Loughran, and lovers of billiards and pool can amuse themselves and do an act of genuine charity, at the same time, for the same money. We would like to hear of others who are willing to help the fever-stricken people of the "Land of Flowers."

Fowls and Dockery. Spoke to a large crowd at Morganton on Thursday, and at Marion on Friday. Judge Fowls, speaking for honest government, while supremacy of course, had the advantage in both towns.

The National Convention of the W. C. T. U. The fifteenth annual assembly of this organization will be held in New York city October 19, 20, 21, and 22. The sessions will be held in the Metropolitan Opera House, the second largest auditorium in the United States. Extensive preparations are being made for the convention.

Delegates will be entertained free of charge. Visitors will be furnished board at reduced rates. Railroad fares will be cut down.

Bees' Experiment. You cannot afford to waste time in experimenting when your lungs are in danger. Consumption always comes, at first, only a cold. Do not permit any dealer to impose upon you with some cheap imitation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, but be sure you get the genuine. Pelham's drug store claims to be a success because it knows the people's wants and supplies them. We handle fresh drugs, and compound prescriptions at very close figures. YELLOW FEVER SUFFERERS. Action of the Authorities of Hendersonville, and of the Refugees. Henderson has Acted Nobly.

The following we publish with pleasure: OFFICE OF BOARD OF TRADE, HENDERSONVILLE, Sept 19, 1888.

WHEREAS exaggerated statements have appeared in columns of certain city newspapers extensively circulated in reference to the consequences attending the introduction into our town of refugees from the fever scourged city of Jacksonville, Fla.;

WHEREAS such reports are calculated to damage the commercial interests of Hendersonville, N. C., and the surrounding country as witnessed in the temporary delay in railroad shipments to and from the town;

Resolved: By the Board of Trade and Board of Health in joint meeting assembled that, while we deplore the afflictive circumstances occasioning an invitation of our town authorities communicated through the proper authorities to a limited number of the port-city citizens of Jacksonville, Fla., to escape for their lives to this mountain town, with the assurance of safety to themselves and immunity on the part of our citizens from all evil effects, we beg leave to state for the information of the public generally with the hope of correcting erroneous impressions that on the morning of the 18th inst., 269 refugees arrived in our town. Five of them were taken sick on the train en route from Jacksonville and five cases were developed the day of arrival here. Of that number two have died, and two dismissed as well; four convalescent, two progressing favorably. There have been no new cases developed since the day of their arrival, now nine days since they left Jacksonville.

As to any neglect on the part of our people toward the refugees we simply refer to the following affidavit made before a notary public for Henderson county North Carolina. M. C. TOMS, Chairman Board of Trade, L. L. JOHNSTON, Chairman Board of Health of Henderson county.

At Hendersonville the train was met by a committee of its citizens who, like a committee of Jacksonville friends had provided buses and carriages and as the people left the train they were "not dumped" but were immediately sent to this or that house which had been prepared, and in less than an hour every person could have been in bed, nor sick have been needed for from a fund raised among the refugees who were passengers on the fever train. Over $150. being subscribed in a few minutes for this purpose. The good citizens of Hendersonville volunteered to raise a purse for our sick but their generous offer was declined.

St. H. MENZON, W. M. REDMON, J. S. SMITH, JR., J. A. POWERS, and others of Jacksonville, Fla.

Amusements Ahead. Following the appearance of John Thompson, in "A Huge Joke," at Opera Hall on Thursday evening next, Asheville theatre-goers will have an opportunity of seeing and hearing Gorton's famous minstrels, on October 15th. This company is a very good one, and win much praise from their audiences, wherever they appear. Manager Sawyer has also signed contracts for the appearance of Hall & Zane's "Ranch No. 10," on October 25th. Sol. Smith, Road Comptroller, on November 6th, and Miss Lavinia Shannon, in "The Mystery of Audley Court," on the evening of November 17th. Miss Shannon is a very talented young actress, in a native of New Orleans, and created quite a furore at our State Capitol two winters ago. She was entertained by Governor McNeill, and was absolutely lionized by the people of the "City of Oaks." Manager Sawyer will give our people an unusually fine lot of attractions this season, and his efforts in that direction deserve to be appreciated.

A Sound Legal Opinion. E. Bainbridge Monday, Feq. County Atty., Clay county, Texas, says: "Have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother, who was very ill with Malaria Fever and Jaundice, but was cured by timely use of this medicine. An antiseptic Electric Bitters saved his life."

Mr. D. I. Wilcoxson, of McVe Cave, Ky., adds a like testimony, saying: "He positively believes he would have died, had it not been for Electric Bitters. This great remedy will ward off, as well as cure all Malaria, Disease, and for all Kidney, Liver and Stomach Disorders stands unequalled. Price 50c and $1, at H. H. Lyons' drug store."

If you will convince you that Aker's English Balm for the lungs is superior to all other remedies, and is a positive cure for all Bronchitis and Lung troubles, cough, Whooping cough and colds. We guarantee the preparation and will give you a sample bottle free.

Henry Clay on the Tariff. The Nashville Democrat of a recent date contains an extract from a letter of Henry Clay, written in September, 1843. It was addressed to S. F. Bronson, of Georgia, and gives, in brief, Mr. Clay's views on the tariff. The extract is as follows:

"The sum and substance of what I conceive to be the true policy of the United States, in respect to a tariff, may be briefly stated. In conformity with the principle announced in the compromise act, I think that whatever revenue is necessary to an economical and honest administration of the general government ought to be derived from the duties imposed on foreign imports, and discrimination ought to be made as well incidentally afford reasonable protection to our national interests. I think there is no danger of a high tariff being ever established; that of 1843 was eminently deserving that denunciation. I was not in Congress when it passed and did not vote for it; but with its history, and with the circumstances which gave birth to it, I am well acquainted. They were highly creditable to American legislation, and I hope, for its future, will never be repeated. After my return to Congress in 1841, my efforts were directed to the modification and reduction of the rates of duty contained in the act of 1843. The act of 1833 greatly reduced and modified them; and the act of 1843, commonly called the compromise act, still further reduced and modified them. The act which passed at the extra session of 1841, which I supported was confined to the free articles. I had resigned my seat in the Senate when the act of 1843 was passed. Generally the duties which it imposes are lower than those in the act of 1833. And without intending to express any opinion upon every item of this last tariff, I would say that I think the provisions, in the main, are wise and proper. If any excesses or defects in it (of which I have not the means here of judging), they ought to be corrected. My opinion, that there is no danger hereafter of a high tariff, is founded on the gratifying fact that our manufacturers have now taken a deep root, and in their infancy they needed a greater measure of protection; but as they grew and advanced they acquired less protection. Even now some branches of them are able to maintain in distant markets successful competition with rival foreign manufactures."
