Our friend N. P. Chedester, Esq., of this city, yesterday addressdd a mass-meeting of the democratic clubs, of Henderson county, at Hendersonville. He made a strong speech, as the following telegram

HENDERSONVILLE, Oct. 5. To the Citizen :- Hon. N. P. Chedester, of Asheville, delivered the champion speech of the campaign in our town to-day. A tremendous crowd had gathered here from all over the county, and everybody who heard him says that he told more about radicalism and its sins than Barrett, J. A. Biderback, E. H. has been heard in this county in ten years. Everybody was delighted, and democracy was put on a safer and surer footing in Henderson by the speech he made here today. In truth, Chedester's speech set Henderson county on fire today. One old-line republican gaid after the speech : "Ched is a good one, ain't he?" We think if one more such speech is made in the county there will be no republican party left in Henderson, except those who are republicans for office only.
