ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholeness. More economical than the ordinary kind, and cannot be sold in conjunction with the multitude of low test, short weight and adulterated goods.

Large tobacco breaks were had at the warehouses yesterday morning. Prices were somewhat better than the old-time favorite will no doubt play to a crowded house.

Hon. Thomas D. Johnston and Mr. H. G. Ewart will address the people of Buncombe on the issues of the campaign in this city on Monday next. Let everybody turn out to hear them.

Secure your seats early for the performance of the Sol. Smith Russell Comedy Co., Monday night. The company is a good one, and the old-time favorite will no doubt play to a crowded house.

Chairman Eaves has issued another secret circular to his 'twenty-five hundred reliable,' the contents of which are even more infamous and contemptible than were the utterances contained in his letter of October 23-24.

How do the white men of Buncombe like to have negro penitentiary birds carried up, and registered and voted against them to turn the State over to negro rule? It is being attempted right here in Asheville. Let white men be on guard and work and vote for the democratic ticket from Cleveland down to constable.

One of the most unique and artistic articles of house furniture we have yet seen is the horn chair, now on exhibition at Shepherd, Mann & Johnson's, on North Main street. The chair is made entirely of cow and buffalo horns, and is covered with a beautifully spotted leopard skin. The workmanship and design is very fine, and the chair attracts much attention.

If these fraudulent negro ex-convicts succeed in electing the republican ticket, and thus turn the State over to negro control, the twenty-six eastern negro counties will soon have to give up teaching the white children or be examined and given certificates by negro county superintendents of education.

Call early and secure grand bargains at our store. We have a large stock of goods, and our prices are the lowest in the city.

Distressing Bereavement. Yesterday morning at half past one o'clock, little Morris, the five-year-old son, and only child, of James and Flora Drummond died of membranous croup. Just twelve hours previous the little fellow was in the flush of health and childish spirit. The next day that rose upon him lighted up the pale face of his corpse. It was painfully sad and sudden, made more so by the absence of the father from home.

On the Run. The republican candidates have been started on the run by the democracy. Instead of running to be elected they are running away from the terrible beating the people have ready for them next Tuesday.

Fullman Passenger Cars. We learn with pleasure that the passenger trains on the line between Salisbury and Knoxville are now stocked with elegant and luxurious day coaches of Pullman build and equipment surpassing anything of the kind hitherto put to general use on this road. It is the constant effort of the company to make the line worthy of the large travel it invites.

Interesting to All. An hour or so may be pleasantly and advantageously passed in looking over our very large lines of Christmas, Toys, Fancy and Staple Goods departments, which we are offering special bargains in for the next ten days.

A new supply of the latest novelties and designs for autumn in Oxidized and plated Jewelry.

Correspondents and contributors are informed most respectfully that all the matter handed in or addressed to us cannot all appear at the same time. These contributions are gratefully welcomed, but they exceed the capacity of time and space to handle as rapidly as the zeal or the impatience of their writers would urge. All in good time, gentlemen.

Election day November 6th. Register, white men of Buncombe.

The county candidates spoke to a big crowd at Black Mountain yesterday.

Not a single case was disposed of in the Mayor's court yesterday morning.

Mr. David M. Vance is confined to his room at the Swannanoa by illness.

Vote for the regular nominees of the democratic party, in the election on Tuesday.

Senator Vance addressed a large assemblage of people at Hendersonville yesterday.

Throughout Buncombe the radicals are at work. What are the democrats doing?

Asheville Division, Sons of Temperance, held its regular weekly meeting last night.

The Independent Hook and Ladder Fire Co. held a regular business meeting at the Mayor's office last night.

The trade of the city is looming up in all branches, and the outlook for a successful winter traffic is very bright at present.

Election next Tuesday. Democrats of Buncombe, register, work and vote for the redemption of Buncombe. Vote the straight ticket.

Messrs. Fitzpatrick Bros., the painters, have removed to the storehouse on North Main street, formerly occupied by J. E. McKinney & Co.

Work on the street railway is progressing finely. A full report concerning this enterprise will be published in to-morrow's issue of the CITIZEN.

Don't forget that Sol Smith Russell, the old-time favorite, will appear at Opera Hall Monday evening next, in his new and popular play "Bewitched."

The Buncombe managers of the radical circles are sick. The jig is up with them, and they know it. Vote the straight democratic ticket next Tuesday.

Samples of the new 24-inch and 20-inch sewer pipe for the city are on exhibition at the Mayor's office. The pipe is pronounced by experts to be of first-class quality.

Large tobacco breaks were had at the warehouses yesterday morning. Prices were somewhat better than the old-time favorite will no doubt play to a crowded house.

Register, white men of Buncombe. Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Perry, and Miss Ella Mears have returned from the Richmond, Va., Exposition.

Go forward, democracy of Buncombe. The enemy is beaten and shows it. Let the defeat be overwhelming.

The Asheville Cornet Band will meet for practice on Friday nights hereafter instead of Tuesday. Members will please take notice.

The young ladies' Bible reading will be held Friday afternoon, at 4:30 o'clock, in the First Baptist church. A full attendance is requested.

White men of Buncombe will not submit to the outrage which Eaves' "Reliables" are attempting to thrust upon them in forcing ex-convicts to register and vote in this county.

Every effort of republicanism will now begin to snapping Uncle Jack Worley and Charlie Nichols into office. Democrats don't swap. You have the victory, let it be complete.

When Mr. Eaves begins the building of his "new wing to the Albany penitentiary," the prosecution and conviction of radical ballot-box thieves and disfranchised voters will begin.

Registrars of each precinct should keep a sharp lookout for convicts. There are many of these creatures in Buncombe, and the radicals will try hard to vote them. Lookout for the convicts.

Messrs. D. W. Chandler & Co. have opened at No. 6 North Court Square. They also run a large business in Charleston, S. C., and deal extensively in country produce, fruits, poultry, etc.

The radicals of Buncombe realizing that they are already defeated, are now endeavoring to swap off their entire legislative ticket, in order to elect Sheriff Worley and Mr. Nichols, of Madison.

The very best news comes to us from all parts of the district: favorable to Hon. Thos. D. Johnston. The insolent boasts of the enemy have aroused the true men of the district, and his majority will be a good one.

Beware of the republicans. They are beat, and they know it. Vote the straight democratic ticket, and honest government will prevail in Buncombe. Trade off no democratic candidate, with the republicans.

Unless democrats vote for Uncle Jack Worley and Charlie Nichols, the whole republican batch will be badly beaten next Tuesday. Democrats, stand firm and solid. Don't give way a victory now conceded to be in your hands.

The new pavement in front of T. C. Smith & Co.'s drug store, will be completed to-day, and will afford much comfort and convenience to pedestrians. Every sidewalk in the city should be paved in like manner before the winter season fully sets in.

Starnes, Carter, Baird, Reynolds, Mackey, Courtney. All honest, true, reliable, white men and democrats. They have met and exposed the hypocrisy and unreliability of their opponents, and most favorably impressed the people. Let them all have big majorities.

Mr. Johnston, since he entered the canvass East of the Ridge, has enthused the democracy, and the people are at work over there as if all depended upon the vote of each man. Let every good citizen of the district feel and work and vote as the result of the election depended upon himself, and radicalism will be buried out of sight next Tuesday.

Look out for radical frauds. Four negro ex-convicts were arrested yesterday in this city for registering. Other arrests are to follow, as all who have fraudulently registered are known. Be on the alert, democrats, at all voting places, in all the counties. The radical leaders are desperate, and will resort to any infamous means to defeat the honest white men of the State and county.

On the Run. The republican candidates have been started on the run by the democracy. Instead of running to be elected they are running away from the terrible beating the people have ready for them next Tuesday.

ASHEVILLE SEWERS.

BIDS FOR THEIR CONSTRUCTION PASSED UPON BY THE CITY COUNCIL YESTERDAY.

Jacoby Madden, of Bridgeport, Connecticut, are Awarded the Contract for Twenty-Six Thousand Dollars.

The city council held a special session at eleven o'clock yesterday morning to consider the numerous bids made for the contract of constructing the proposed sewers of the city. All the aldermen were present, and the meeting was presided over by Mayor Harkins. City engineers Aston & Lee were also present by request of the board, and the bids were read over, scrutinized and awarded upon.

The bidders were seven in number, as follows: Jacoby & Madden, Bridgeport, Conn., $26,276; E. F. Fuller, Jersey City, N. J., $29,821.50; John Cox, Brooklyn, $46,550.80; Everson & Christy, Akron, Ohio, $32,655; Dairway Sewer Co., Atlanta, Ga., $35,999.50; T. C. Brooks, Jackson, Mich., $40,577.75; Coyie & Boring, Washington, D. C., $31,459.

The contract was consequently awarded to Messrs. Jacoby & Madden, of Bridgeport, their bid being the lowest of the lot. The contract was also awarded subject to the following conditions: All labor must be employed in this city that can be secured, provided it is efficient, and no labor must be employed outside of the city without the consent of the Board of Aldermen. All good working hands must receive not less than one dollar per day for labor performed. Messrs. Jacoby and Madden deposited the $5000 check, and made bond for the faithful carrying out of the contract as required by the Board, and the work will be commenced as soon as possible.

Bids for casting for manholes, etc., were also cast upon, and the contract for furnishing the same awarded to Aas Snyder & Co., of Richmond, Va. There were twelve bidders, as follows: J. E. Dickerson & Co., Asheville, N. C., $2,49 per hundred pounds; John B. Cole, Asheville, N. C., $2,25 per hundred pounds; Knoxville, Tenn., Car Wheel Co., $1,92 per hundred pounds; Hoensford & Co., Cincinnati, $2,40 per hundred pounds; J. E. Dickerson & Co., Asheville, N. C., $2,05 per hundred pounds; Phoenix Foundry Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., $3.68 per set; Meekieburg Iron Works, Charlotte, N. C., $1.20 per set; Chattanooga Foundry & Pipe Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., $1.00 per set; Springfield Foundry, Springfield, Mass., $3.50 per set; Richmond Iron Works, Richmond, Va., $3.00 per set; Aas Snyder & Co., Richmond, Va., $7.38 per set; Valley Iron Works, Williamsport, Pa., $9.25 per cent.

All these bids were accompanied by checks guaranteeing faithful performance with the requirements of the contracts, and were returned to the rejected competitors by city clerk Miller yesterday afternoon. Now that the sewerage system is well under way, let the city authorities look after our streets and sidewalks.

"May Do to Live by, But Not to Die By." At the grand democratic rally in Waynesville Monday night, Mr. Sam Fitzgerald, a good citizen of the county, 80 years of age and a lifelong republican, joined the democratic club, saying, "he only prayed to be allowed to live until the 6th day of November so I can vote a solid democratic ticket." He added, "I tell you boys, I used to think the republican party would do to live by, but I know it won't do to die by." Thus the good work goes on, and honest democratic government is triumphant.

Bishop Weed. The Christian world and the world of humanity will have the weight of sorrow lifted from their hearts at the tidings that the self-sacrificing Bishop of Florida, is recovering from his attack of yellow fever. Duty demands its sacrifices, often to the death; but some are made which involve the survivors; and the fatal termination of Bishop Weed's illness would have brought lasting sorrow, and might have brought lasting calamity, to the scattered flock over whose care he so faithfully watched. The consolation left was that he had proved himself in courage and in sense of duty to his momentous obligation.

Yesterday's Registration. The total registration at the different wards in the city was 1454, divided as follows: EAST WARD—J. M. BRADLEY, REGISTRAR Whites, 888 Colored, 270 Total, 658 WEST WARD—A. T. SUMMEY, REGISTRAR Whites, 565 Colored, 231 Total, 796

Webb's Cologne Sprays, a delightful perfume for the toilet and bath, sold in bulk at 50cts. per pint, at CARMEILIAN'S Drug Store.

The Last Resort. Seeing that Ewart, Lusk, Wells, Malone and the entire State, district and county republican ticket are one the republicans of this county are now endorsing to trade all off to save Worley for sheriff and Nichols for register. They first thought they might save Wells, but the terrific exposures of his obliquities have killed him off absolutely, and now they hope by swapping Wells, Malone, Uncle Geo. Howell or any body else on their ticket they may save Uncle Jack and Charles. Let all democrats and good citizens of the republican party who cannot stand these men stand firm and march together in solid phalanx and vote for the straight democratic ticket from top to bottom, and the victory for honest and economical government will be complete.

Mr. J. C. Bostic yesterday morning showed us his following telegram he had just received: SHELLEY, Oct. 30, 1888. John C. Bostic.—The Gray block, with all the contents, burned last night. Insurance on contents $10,000. None on building. E. H. WRIGHT.

Mr. Bostic informs us that the block consisted of four two story brick buildings which were occupied as stores and printing establishments. The value of the buildings was estimated at $15,000, and of the stock of goods $20,000.

Among the property destroyed we learn with much regret was that of the Aurora office. The Aurora was an ably conducted Democratic paper, and was remarkable among the weeklies of the State for its good typography and general neatness. We hope our friend will be on foot again soon.

A job printing establishment in the same block was also destroyed, but we know nothing of its ownership.

"The Little Giant of the Mountains" The Negro World, a newspaper published and edited by negroes in Knoxville, contains the following hair-lifting statement: "From a private letter from a gentleman of Leicester, N. C., who is acquainted with the politics of that section states that the outlook for republican success is encouraging, especially in Buncombe county where Hon. L. N. Wells is making it so hot for the enemy that they have been driven from the stump in utter dismay. Mr. Wells is the little giant of the mountains, and the hope of the republican party of that section. We congratulate him upon the success he is making in the canvass."

We assure this colored brother and sympathizer of the "little giant of the mountains" that at last accounts Mr. Tom Candler was still on the stump greatly to the "dismay" of the said giant.

Outlook for Florida. The appearance of the yellow fever with marked virulence in Enterprise, Sanford, Baldwin and other points in Florida at a season when sharp frosts have visited the Carolinas and other Southern points is bad omen for the future of Florida. It argues that the disease has established a permanent foot-hold in that section, that it has become endemic, and that at no season of the year can there be absolute assurance of immunity to the visitor or the settler. The charms of the "Land of Flowers" is dissipated. The romance of its delicious balmy atmosphere, of its personal wealth of bloom, of its golden orange groves, has rude over-throw in the even present challenge of pestilence and death. A rude shock is given to enterprise, and the gilded fortunes that awaited the hand of indolent idlers, luxuriously reaching forth for rewards wreathed with flowers or gemmed with fruits, finds itself entangled in the rude grasp of an enemy totally unexpected, and with a terror in its visage so fearful as to drive back in affright all but those bold spirits who, throughout all time have braved, and will brave, all in the search for gold. Fortunes will always be sought in Florida; but hardly ever again, health. It is not an illusion that is dispelled. The life giving principle of Florida climate was really something to be enjoyed, something to bring substantial good-to the well and to the invalid.

It appears to be all over now. Winter visitors must look elsewhere for health and for pleasures associated with health. For Florida, we offer them the vigorous, bracing, dry climate of the mountains, and we invite them to Asheville to enjoy these in connection with the excellent hotels and numerous fine boarding houses provided for them.
