The SWANNANOA TURN-OUT.

One of the very bandenment and most the American Union.

One of the very handsomest and most ffective turn-outs in the proce-sion, was that of the Swannanoa River Democratic perbiy mounted, and uniformed. Red bandanas, Cleveland banners, Lorns, white shirts and torches were thick. They were formed in division four deep and were under the immediate direction headed by a monster float, dra an by four black horses, and the headlight of an alarm bell was rung at interrals on the inside of the float. On one side of the float was the following: "THE BWINNANOA DEMOCRACY

The toll of this bell rings out the kuell Of Republican spite and bite; While the horns we sound, proclaim around Democracy's might and right-On the other side was this 'THE SWANNANDA DEM CRACY. Cheap clothes, cheap shees cheap tools and plows,

The right to prosper and live: While Rads cheat and fool us with lying pow-wows nd nothing but cheap whiskey give-On which side are you?" And on the rear end of the float the folwing invoked cheers and eathusiasm "TO THE MEN OF BUNCOMBE. All of up, Farmers, Workingmen, Principals and Clerks, Need cheap blankets, cheap shoes, cheap tools, cheap plows.

The Republicans offer the "Protection that protects monopolists and dudes, and that gives us chesp whiskey— On which side are you?" Other transparencies were "Dockery, a Dead Duck"-a dead duck held a'ott. tied by the feet to a pole;

"How is our Fowle-He's all right," "No Kirk men for us; give us men that are true to the State, both in peace and war;", "Solid for Reynolds,"

Then came another float bearing the following illuminations on one side : "What is the difference between Barnum, the showman, and Harrison, the stuck-up aristocrat?" And on the other side this was answer

"Barnum has the greatest show on earth, and Harrison has no show at alı." On the rear of this float was this nscription: North Carolins forever;
