CROWNING CORRUPTION.

The consensus of public opinion. based upon myriad facts, has burned into the political record of 1888, in the United States, the damning truth that Benjamin Harrison wia elected by open, wholesale, shameless bribery. Need proof be cited? The exhibit of evidence gathered lately by the New York World from all parts of the country, furnishes that proof, and establishes the fact that there was widespread, definitely arranged and openly executed purchase of your mainly in New York, Indiana, and West Virginia. the pivotal States.

Leaders of the Republican party advised the use of money in carrying the election; and it was used to the extent of millions. Mr. Foster. in his famous circular advised that "the fat be tried" out of the rich manufacturers: and it was fried. Senator Ingalls gave this advice to a delegate at the Chicago convention: "Nominate some such fellow as Phelps, who can tap Wall street." Phelps was nominated and Wall street was tapped. Mr. Dudley in a circular directed the Republican managers of the canvass in Indiana to purchase "floaters in blocks of five or more," assuring those corrupt agente that the funds would not be wanting to close the purchase and the floaters were purchased, and Indiana and the Union were carried for Harrison.

What was one of the chief agents in this disgraceful game of corruption? Who is it stands out most conspicuous among those who contributed most largely to the Repub lican campaign fund? John Wannamaker. He raised some four hun-lers of various kinds; besides botals, oarding houses manufacturing and der in the Presbyterian church. A mercantile establish ments, and so- pronounced christian at the head of ive representatives of almost every the government will be worth some oporable voration or protection. To make the most of the situatmigration to this city and surrounding country. How is this to be done? The aus-ewer from a score of thriving towns and cities in the far west, would be, by advertising. The past week, we are informed, has been an unusually good one for the sale of Symphys, and very many peo-ple have no doubt been refleved by its use. The changeable weather of the session is almost sure to bring colds. by advertising.

The advantages and atttractions. of this beautiful transmontane conna try, in general, and this city its metropolis in particular, should be made known the length and breadth of the United States by judicious advertising-in pamphiet form, by special editions of the CITIZEN, by description in the great dailies of

New York, and otherwise. The wonderful growth of such places Kansas City, Wichita. Angeles, Oakland, Los and deother cities of magical velopment westward of us, is largely attributable to printers' ink. The capitalisty, real estate men and civic authorities of Asheville should see that Asheville is immedidiately and thoroughly advertised to the world.

A CRIMINAL COURT.

The Inferior court, now in sessio in this city, was established under the provisions of the act of 1876 77, as amended by the acts of 1879, and 1881. It has fulfilled the purposes of its creation admirably well. A saving in court and jail expenses has been made to the county. Justice has been more speedily administered, and the docket of the Superior court has been cleared for the transaction of civil business.
