THE LAKE'S

HISTORY

When the Attempt is Made to Shut Off Outsiders There May Be Some Trouble on the Bosom of the Waters.

RELFOOT Lake, which lies mostly in Chica county and partly in Lake, is the largest sheet of water in the state, it being twelve miles in length and from five to seven miles in width. It is fifteen miles from Union City, the nearest railroad point, where most of the sportsmen who visit this far-famed resort leave the trains of the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis and the Mobile & Ohio railroads. From this point the journey is continued in hacks, wagons, etc.

The first view a visitor obtains of the lake is one of surpassing beauty and grandeur. The road circles around a high bluff, and, suddenly, several hunaway as far as the eye can reach. Just under the lofty, picturesque cliffs nestles the little village of Wheeling.

Well, they may something like smoke, and vivid and constant flashes of lightning illuminated the surrounding country; and in less time than it takes to tell it thousands of acres of land sunk far below the level of the mighty Mississippi. The Father of Waters rushed into the sunken country, and the suction was so great that for three hours the river below the lake ran up stream, and rafts and boats were torn from their moorings and whirled into the seething, maddening vortex. As soon as the newly formed

Then there is a fish in the lake known as the alligator gar, which is almost as voracious as the shark. It has an imwas bathing in the lake, when, suddenly, he called for help, saying that some-

On the 23d of September, 1896, the lake was sold by decree of chancery. It brought something over $4,000, the purchasers being Mr. J. G. Smith, of Troy; W. M. Wilson, of Objon; D. C. Caldwell, S. D. Cochran, Dr. J. J. Wells and John E. Whs, of Union City.

Mr. John E. Wells, who had control of the lake, has recently sold it for $5,000 to the Reelfoot Outing Club, composed of the following gentlemen: W. C. Churchill, W. E. Chess, Llewellyn Smith, J. W. CLEO'S MOTHER.

She Washed and Ironed the Dancer's Cothes.

The parsimony of foreign celebrities who come to this country has been frequently amusing to Americans, declares the New York Sun. There have been some very striking instances of it in recent years, but the mother of Mile. Cleo de Merode seems to have carried off the palm in this respect. Salvini, it is said. was so penurious that he bought a sandwitch on the street for 5 cents rather than pay for his supper at a hotel; and one of the stories told about him on his last visit to this country was that once $1.051/2; May, $1.09@1.10; Northwestern, hotel a penny and told him to buy him three tacks. The actor had discovered wanted to repair it himself.

Tamaqua was notorious here for his stinginess. It was said that he sold the tickets sent to him in view of his artist's privilege and hired his own brother as a valet because he could be got at a cheap figure. Then he used to make him roll his trunks around on a truck at the foreign custom houses rather than pay the porters a fee for the work. It was only last winter that Herr Van Biene marked as a curiosity and sent back to England a hotel bill of fare on which he had marked down the price, $1.50, for a tenderloin steak as one of the wonders of an extravagant and ment which prompted Mile. Calve to look for a business manager while she was here and then express the greatest astonishment that such an assistant of the most capable kind could not be hired for $10 a week. These are some of the stories told of the highly paid foreigners who come to exhibit themselves here. But Cleo just as they were coming out of the office.

"Why, that wretch inside," exclaimed the mother, indignantly, "wants to give me only 517 francs for $100." Then Mme, la Mere de Cleo de Merode put up her umbrella with a mighty emphasis and stepped out onto the sidewalk. "Why, a man offered me 518 up town. But I thought I could get 520 down here. Now we have to walk up town. for otherwise there will be no profit left for us." Then Cleo and her mother started to trudge up town. The dancer

WHEAT MARKET

DURING THE WEEK HAS BEEN VERY SLOW.

But It Kept Climbing Upward Until It Reached the Dollar

Chicago, Nov. 27.-The past week has been a very slow one in the wheat market, which most of the time presented a decidedly holiday appearance, so stagnant, indeed, was trading at times, that scattered scalping operations and a little buying and selling by the December bull crowd constituted almost the entire business. Since Monday the trend of the market has been upward and closing prices yesterday in May, the shares. leading future, showed an advance of 24@2%c. New York, Nov. 27 .- The stock market has been remarkably dull and narrow all week and trading was further broken in on by Thursday's holiday. Some sharp changes in prices are shown in the specialties, but the standard railroad shares have been neglected and their movement has been narrow and unimportant, up one day and down the next. The Northern Pacific stocks were the notable exceptions and have been strong on the increased earnings of the road for November and on intimations that a dividend was likely to be declared on the preferred stock for the next quarter. The preferred stock is about 3 points higher on the week and the common over a point higher. Union Pacific has been heavy. THE DEMAND FOR PENNIES.

The most useful and hard-working member of the coin family, says the Philadelphia Press, consists of 95 per cent. copper and 5 per cent. the and zinc, and bears on its face the legend "one cent." It doesn't require a person of advanced age or long memory to recall the time when the humble coin was practically unknown west of the Missis. sippi. Now its use is well-nigh universal, and the demand for it is increasing so rapidly that the Philadelphia mint is compelled to turn out 1-cent pieces at the rate of nearly 4,000,000 per month to keep up the supply.

Two recent devices have been largely responsible for the increased use of our only copper goin. One is the penny-inthe-slot machine, which has spread over the land like the locust of Egypt within the past two or three years. A single automatic machine company takes in 500,000 pennies a day. As there isn't a cross roads village in the country that hasn't a chewing gum, kinetscope, music or weighing machine operated in this way the number of coins required to keep them all going is enormous. The other invention responsible for the rise of the cent is the "bargain counter." The craze for 49-cent and 99-cent bergains makes work for a let of pensies.

A sub-treasury official stys: "Why, in the middle of July there was a week or more of cold, rainy weather, and the supply of pennies coming in for exchange into larger denominations fell off one-third. All through the summer the pennies accumulate on our hands, but when cold weather comes and the children get back to school and retail trade revives there is a great demand for them. At present the minor coin division has tens of thousands of dollars' worth of pennies on hand, but they are beginning to go out, and by November 1 we shall probably be compelled to call on the mint for a fresh supply. The holidays demand a lot of pennies, and with the approach of Christmas our cent melts away amazingly.

"There is no better indication of fively trade conditions than the cent. During periods of duliness they always accumulate on our hands, and when trade Joseph Jefferson denies the report that revives they begin to circulate rapidly again.

The figures of distribution kept by the mint are interesting as showing the localities where pennies are most ueed. Last year the demand was greatest from Pennsylvania, which took over 11,000,000 of them. New York was the second largest customer, adding 9,000,-000 to her supply.

From the Lone Star State comes the following letter, written by W. F. Gass. editor of the Mt. Vernon (Tex.) Herald: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in my family for the past year, and find it the best remedy for colic and diarrhoea that I have ever tried. Its effects are instantaneous and satisfactory, and I cheerfully recommend it, especially for cramp colic and diarrhoea. Indeed, we shall try to keep a bottle of it on our medicine shelf as long as we keep house." For sale by Dr. T. C. Smith, druggist.
