The Biggest Slaughter of All: $20 and $22 Seal Capes for $10 and $12

This sale is just as we say. A slaughter of valuable goods for less than half what they cost to make. The goods are now on hand and customers are asked to come in and see them before the day of sale and see that they are worth exactly what we claim. They were bought at a great sacrifice and will be sold in the same way. We know that same goods cannot be bought in this town for double the price we have put on them. These garments will not be sold at this price except on the days mentioned above.

Also a Great Slaughter Sale of Fine Nainsook Embroideries will take place in our store on Wednesday, December 8.

We want every lady in Asheville to visit this sale as we have enough to supply every lady in Western North Carolina at one-half what they are now paying. Over 10,000 yards of new style Embroideries were bought in New York on Nov. 27th for this sale and we propose to let them go far below the cost of production. We don't mean that we lose anything on these goods, but we bought them at a great sacrifice and will sell the same way.

All 10c, 12c, 14 and 15c lines at 9c | All 16c, 18c, 20c, 25 and 30c lines to be sold at 14c

These emproideries all have insertions to match at same price. We can truthfully say that this is the greatest opportunity that will be offered to customers to secure these goods at such a low price for many years.

It is well known that these goods are now included in the heavy advance that will take place January 1, and we know that they will double the price we now offer them for.

Ladies and Children look out for our big Handkerchief sale which will take place about December 13 and 14. Over 10,000 handkerchiefs of every description to be placed in this sale. Some very fine goods put up in handsomely decorated boxes for holiday presents will be included in this bargain. We are going to have four special sales during the month of December and we promise our customers that every article mentioned in these special sales will be a big bargain and not at regular prices, but bona fide sacrifices.

JUST ARRIVED a big line of new Felt Hats and Ribbons in our Millinery Department—all entire new productions. Also a big line of New Dress Goods and Silks. Watch for our special sale of Fine Silks. We will give to the trade some big surprises in our next week's ad., but remember this, that from now until January 1 we do not propose to hold any goods and we mean by this that all goods in our store must go. Visit the Big Store and we will convince you that we are in a position to give you greater values than you have ever had before.

CHEERFULNESS AT HOME.

"Perhaps there is nothing that adds more to the happiness of a home than the habit of cheerfulness," writes Mrs. F. M. Colby in the December Woman's Home Companion. "It is a potent factor in the secret of housekeeping, and the housewife who has always a pleasant smile and a soothing word has already acquired one of the most valuable accomplishments. As long ago as the days of the wise matron a merry countenance had its recognized value. It is a duty to be pleasant.

"All women cannot be beautiful, but it is the duty of every woman to look as well as she can, and nothing adds more to a woman's good looks than a cheerful countenance. 'I have always,' said the good vicar of Wakefield, 'seen an admirer of happy human faces.' The sentiment is universal. The pleasure thus derived compensates for the absence of beauty, and supplies the deficiency of symmetry and grace.

"Cheerfulness can be cultivated and acquired as well as other qualities. If one's work is exacting and tiresome, it makes it no easier by being fretful. Preserve your equanimity. The world was not made in a day, nor was it made all flowers and rippling sunshine. Your work will go along much smoother, you will accomplish more, and you will make others happier by being cheerful."

A little building has been erected at number 20 Vance street, Asheville, N. C., to be known as Gospel Chapel. The services will be undenominational. Christians of all names will be welcomed in the meetings which will be held on dates not conflicting with city churches. "A life hid with Christ in God."—Col. 3:3. Gospel Chapel will D. V. be dedicated to God and His service Wednesday, December 8, at eleven o'clock a. m. Rev. C. W. Byrd, D.D., Rev. J. S.
