GOSSIP OF CYCLEDOM.

A soft tire is almost as treacherous as quicksand. It goes back on one when everything seems all right. Coasting a rough hill, turning sharply a corner or out of a car track will wrench it off frequently and sometimes punctures it.

In London, when a scorcher is arrested, if he is riding a very high-geared machine, that counts as evidence against him. The authorities over there are wise enough to know that no rider cares for an 80 or 90 gear, unless he wants to scorch.

Arthur Zimmerman, who was champion for 1892, 1893 and 1894, will reenter the lists next year. He has signed a contract with the management of the Princess Park track in Paris to ride in competition races and record trials from March 1 to September 30, 1898.

The "bicycle lift" is the latest imaginary disease attributed to cycling. It is alleged to be due to involuntary contraction of the leg muscles, resembling the equine "string halt." No doctor ever reported a case of the kind, but the story goes well with the yarns about the bicycle face, eye, hand, foot and back.

It is the general opinion that city authorities will soon enforce the use of brakes on all wheels, and therefore inventors are at work again. At least three varieties of brakes have been put out which operate by a lever roller coming in contact with the chain when the rider back pedals, the lever driving a spoon against the tire. Another style operates by pressing a button on the grip, thus raising a lever attached to a friction band on the crank axle.

SMALL THINGS OF INTEREST. Shoes made of porpoise leather are absolutely impervious to water.

Wildcats are numerous in Monroe county, Ky., and are a terror to the inhabitants. The loftiest cliff on the coast of England is Beachy Head, the height of which is 544 feet.

In Puerto Limon, Costa Rica, the whisky is so bad that the yellow fever will not attack anybody who drinks it. One of the hymns in the hymn book of a church in Toronto has been arranged to fit the tune of the song: "Put Me Off at Buffalo."

Twenty-seven onions, the combined weight of which was 85 pounds, were raised this season by J. R. Douglas, of Albany, Ore.

The trees in the streets of Paris are looked after by a public official appointed just for that purpose, and therefore the Parisian streets always look beautiful.

In some parts of China the punishment for murder is sleeplessness. The culprit is kept awake until he dies. Under this treatment a person lives nine or ten days.

All the street cars in Des Moines, Ia., pass the post office, and many of them have letter-boxes attached. A letter or other mail matter can be mailed at any point and the car is stopped to receive it.

Lewis Weaver, aged 70, of Mount Pleasant, Pa., has just buried his second wife, which makes the twenty-first funeral in his family. He has had 27 children and buried 19 of them.

John Hyman, of Logansport, Ind., is proud of his calling, which is that of a cooper. He has had carved for his monument a marble barrel, with a keg on it, and the barrel bears these words: "A Cooper by Trade."

Parisian blouses show the minute tuckling which seemingly cannot be done outside the French capital. One handsome blouse made for royalty is of red surah, with rows of tucks and plain pieces between in lengthwise lines. Others are made with tucked spaces across and some have a deep-folded piece over the belt which may be stylish, but is not becoming.

HOUSEHOLD GODS.

The ancient Greeks believed that the Penates were the gods who attended to the welfare and prosperity of the family. They were worshipped as household gods in every home. The household god of to-day is Dr. King's New Discovery. For consumption, coughs, colds and for all affections of Throat, Chest and Lungs it is invaluable. It has been tried for a quarter of a century and is guaranteed to cure, or money returned. No household should be without this good angel. It is pleasant to take and a safe and sure remedy for old and young. Free trial bottles at T. C. Smith's Drug Store, and Pelham's Pharmacy. Regular size, 50c and $1.00.
