We're a Selling 'em

The goods for Christmas Gifts, both useful and ornamental. Perhaps we marketed them too low. Whatever the cause may be, we find it keeps 15 to 20 sales-people hustling to supply the demand, although the times be hard. Probably the fact that the times are hard, induced us to lay in just such things for Christmas as appeal to those of us who do not feel specially rich.

ASHEVILLE'S POULTRY SHOW.

Spartanburg Herald.

The fanciers and poultry men, and representative citizens of Asheville, N. C., as well as making extensive preparations for their first annual poultry show, which comes off January 4th to 7th, 1916. This affair promises to be one of the biggest and most successful of its kind ever given in the south. A number of the Spartanburg poultry men expect to send exhibits. The railroads are all going to give special excursion rates for the week of one first-class limited fare for the round trip from all points in South Carolina, North Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia. It is safe to say that the attendance will be large.

A CLEVER TRICK.

It certainly looks like it, but there is really no trick about it. The subject can try it who has Lame Back and Weak Kidneys, Malacia or nervous troubles. We mean he can cure himself right away by taking Electric Bitters. This medicine tones up the whole system, acts as a stimulant to the Liver and Kidneys, is a blood purifier and a nerve tonic. It cures Constipation, Headache, Fainting Spells, Sleeplessness and Melancholy. It is purely vegetable, a mild laxative, and restores the system to its natural vigor. Try Electric Bitters and be convinced that they are a miracle worker. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50¢ a bottle at C. Smith's Drug Store and Pelham's Pharmacy.

BUNCOMBE'S SCHOOLS.

Supervisor D. L. Ellis of Buncombe, has laid before the supervisors' association at Greensboro, the following report:

The educational interests of Buncombe county, North Carolina. Condensed information about the schools and colleges of the "banner county" of Western North Carolina: Buncombe county has:

1. Three colleges, with a total enrollment of five hundred students.
2. Seven high schools and academies, with an enrollment of six hundred students.
3. A system of graded schools, with thirty teachers, instructing 2,000 white and 1,500 colored children.
4. A system of free kindergarten schools.
5. Five denominational schools, at which are taught the fundamental best suited to industrial pursuits in life.
6. One of the oldest and most enthusiastic teachers' associations in the state, with an average attendance of one hundred teachers monthly.
7. Three training schools for teachers, of two months' session every year, each of which is one of the most intelligent and progressive boards of education, and several of the most liberal and business like school committees in the state.

THE KILLING ON SHELTON LAUREL.

In Thursday's Gazette a brief report was given of a disturbance early this week on Shelton Laurel, in Madison county, in which two men were fatally shot and two others seriously wounded. Particulars of the affray have now been received. Whiskey and depraved women were at the bottom of the affray.

The place where the trouble occurred is about 22 miles from Marshall in the mountains, and it is from this locality Shelton Laurel—that a majority of the murderers that have disgraced Madison county in recent years. In the disturbance a few days ago Baxter Shelton and Wallace Ray killed a man by the name of Lamb and another by the name of Shelton. This information was brought by a carrier who also stated that several others were wounded. The Baxter referred to was tried only a few months ago for the murder of Ross Stanton.

It seems by all accounts to have been a family feud. The families in this particular place have married and intermarried until nearly everyone is in some way related. The sheriff and his deputies left at once for the scene and nothing further will be heard until they return.

There is no medicine in the world equal to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the cure of throat and lung diseases. This is a fact that has been proven in innumerable cases. Here is a sample of thousands of letters received: "I have tried Chamberlain's Cough Remedy while suffering from a severe throat trouble, and Wallace Ray killed a man by the name of Lamb and another by the name of Shelton. This information was brought by a carrier who also stated that several others were wounded. The Baxter referred to was tried only a few months ago for the murder of Ross Stanton.

OUR SAVIOUR IN ART

Cost over $100,000 to publish. Contains nearly 500 full-page engravings of our Saviour, by the great masters. Every picture is reproduced from some famous painting. Agents are taking from three to twenty orders a day. The book is so beautiful that when people see it they want it. The Heritage, Prado, Uffizi, Pitti, Louvre, Vatican, National of London, National of Berlin, Belvedere and other celebrated European galleries have placed their greatest and rarest treasures at our disposal that they might be engraved for this superb work "FIRST GLANCE AT THE EYE-THESE BRIGHT TREASURES TO MY EYES," says one. "I cleared $150 first week's work with one book," says another. "Some high grade man or woman should secure the agency here at once," says every editor, "as $500 can soon be made taking orders for it." Nearly $10,000 expended now on new plates for edition coming from press. Also a man or woman of good character standing can secure position of manager and correspondent of this territory, to devote all his time to employing and drilling agents and corresponding with them. NOTICE.

By virtue of authority conferred on me as commissioner in a proceeding entitled W. T. Clinton, administrator of Joseph Brank, deceased, vs. Thoma Wagener, guardian of Alexander Brank, et al minors, by an order of sale made in said case on the 25th day of November, 1915, by J. L. Cateby, clerk superior court of Buncombe county, I will sell to the highest bidder, for cash, at public auction, at the court house door in the city of Asheville, N. C., on the 27th day of December, 1915, the following described tract of land, lying and being in the township of Reems creek, county of Buncombe, state of North Carolina, four miles east of Weaverville, adjoining the lands of Elizabeth Hemphill, John Hemphill and others, and known as an old Fox home place, containing one hundred acres, more or less; being the property and tract bought by Joseph Brank deceased, from Robert Craig, deed to which is recorded in office of register of deeds for Buncombe county in book No. 160, at page 452. The November term, 1897.

W. T. CLINTON,
Commissioner.

This sale continued to Saturday, January 1st, at noon.

NOTICE.

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a deed of trust executed to me by J. Adams, W. H. Penland and J. E. Dickerson dated the 12th day of April, 1894, and registered in the office of the register of deeds of Buncombe County, North Carolina, in book 37, at page 89, et seq., of records of mortgages and deeds of trust, and by reason of the failure of the said grantors to comply with their promises and agreement in said deed of trust contained, particularly with regard to the prompt payment when due, of the principal and interest of certain notes due and payable to Geo. W. Pack, made and executed on said date by said grantors in said deed of trust and for the securing of which said notes for said deed of trust was executed, and being thereto requested by the said Geo. W. Pack, the holder of said notes, that is to say, of three of the notes mentioned and described in said deed of trust, I will sell at public auction at the court house door in Asheville, to the highest bidder for cash, on Saturday, the 15th day of January, 1916, three of the lots of land mentioned and described in said deed of trust, to-wit, lots Nos. ten (10) eleven (11) and twelve (12) of block No. eight (8), of a map or plat of land to be found in book 38, at pages 20 and 107, of records of the office of the said register of deeds, said lots being more particularly described as follows: Lying and being in the city of Asheville, county of Buncombe and state of North Carolina, on the east side of Cumberland avenue, and bounded as follows:
