FOILED BY A WOMAN. 30 Sticks

"Madam, it is my duty to arrest you!" "You dare not!"

"You dare not!" The lips were white with passion rather than fear, and the lady stood before me like a lioness at bay. Even then I could not help but note the splendid beauty of this grand lady. Tall and slender, eves blue and flashing, almost lurid now, the spectacle she presented standing there in the middle of the apartment was more the appearance of a queen than, a hunted ariminal

"I must," I replied. "I do not doubt rarely need artificial stimulants. Too close inbreeding is one cause of barren eggs and weakly chickens. "Certainly." This was my first interview with Eu-genia Cornille. I had seen her here for months, the leader of our gayest and most fashionable society. In her splendid man-sion she dispensed the most profuse and elegant hospitality.

A Spanish lady, a widow she had repre-ented herself, and she had been a resider here almost a year. No one ever suspected her of being aught than what she seeme until one day I was ordered to arrest her as a murderess.

It was now alleged that the young beau-ty was no other than the woman who had poisoned her husband in Havana and fied with all his wealth. An immense reward was offered for her apprehension, and the circumstances that had come to our knowlmissions of California. Henry Labouchere always dictates his work to a shorthand scoretary. me, I stapped to the window and said to my mate, who was waiting at the door: "The lady desires to send a messenger for a friend. Suffer him to pass." Almost at the same instant the door of and a youth—apparently a mulatto boy— came out and passed hurriedly through the room into the hall, and from thence into the street. It was no doubt the messenger, I thought, and I picked up a book and commenced reading. Nearly an hour passed, and still the lady did not make her appearance, nor did the boy return. "Cribbing" is especially common in Eu-clid papers, and in consequence examiners have the bad habit of keeping their eyes neve the bad habit of keeping their eyes very wide open indeed. This particular examiner quickly swooped down and in-sisted on seeing the inside of the blotter. The young man blushed and stammered, but all in vain. CURED OF BLOOD POISON AFTER FIF-TY-TWO DOCTORS FAILED.

Blood Balm Co., Atlanta Ga.

Gentlemen :-- In 1872 a small pimple broke out on my leg. It began eating and in four months I was treated by a physician of Talladega county, Ala., where I lived eighteen years. He relived it for a short while. In six weeks it broke out igain in both legs, also on my shoulder. Two small bones were taken out. It continued until 1876. In this time I had twelve different physicians. They told me the on-ly remedy was amputation; that it could never be cured. For six months I could not walk a step. I went to Mineral. Wells. Texas spent $300.00; came home; went to Hot Springs, Ark., stayed nine months-all failed to cure me. In 1887 I came back to Birmingham, Ala. I was advised to write you, which I did. You wrote me that B. B. B. would cure me, and I could get the medicine from Nabors & Morrow, druggists, of our city. I bought ten bot-tles and before I had finished my fifth bot-tle my legs began to heal, and in less than two months I was sound and well. That as been nearly two years ago and no sign of its return yet. I have spent in cash over $400.00, and B. B. B. done the work that all the rest falled to do. You have my permission to publish this. I have traveled so much trying to get well that my cure is well known. Fifty-two doctors have treated me in the last seventeen years. All they did was to take what money I had, and done me no good. I am now a well man.-PROF. C. H. RANGER.
