Heavy Receipts and the New Bedford Strike Cause a Small Decline in Prices.

New York, Jan. 17 .- Heavy receipts and strike of the mill operatives at New Bedford, Mass., involving in the neighborhood of ten thousand men, were the influences which resulted in a small decline in the cotton market to-day. Liverpool this morning was practically unchanged and prices here were one point higher at the opening, but in the afternoon there was renewed liquidation and the market gave away gradually until the close. May opened at 5.81, advanced to 5.83, declined to 5.78 and closed at the figure with the tone of the market barely steady. We expect a lower range of values. RIORDAN & CO.

CURED OF BLOOD POISON AFTER FIF TY-TWO DOCTORS FAILED.

Blood Balm Co., Atlanta Ga. Gentlemen :-- In 1872 a small pimple broke out on my leg. It began eating and in four months I was treated by a physician of Talladega county, Ala., where I lived eighteen years. He relived it for a short while. In six weeks it broke out again in both legs, also on my shoulder. Two small bones were taken out. It continued until 1876. In this time I had twelve different physicians. They told me the only remedy was amputation; that it could never be cured. For six months I could not walk a step. I went to Mineral Wells, Texas spent $300.00; came home; went to Hot Springs, Ark., stayed nine monthsall failed to cure me. In 1887 I came back to Birmingham, Ala. I was advised to write you, which I did. You wrote me that B. B. B. would cure me, and I could druggists, of our city. I bought ten bot-tles and before I had finished my fifth bottle my legs began to heal, and in less than two months I was sound and well. That of its return yet. I have s $400.00, and B. B. B. done the work that all the rest failed to do. You have my permission to publish this. I have traveled so much trying to get well that my cure is well known. Fifty-two doctors have treated me in the last seventeen years. All they did was to take what money I had, and done me no good. I am now a well man.-PROF . C. H. RANGER. For sale at Pelham's Pharmacy, Ashe-

The Black Cap.

There is one particular part of the dress belonging to the order of the coif-the black cap-which the judges in England always put over their wigs when passing sentence of death. Little is known con-Pulling, in his work "The Order of the ly not the coif, as Lord Campbell repeatedly states. It is, on the contrary, the covering expressly assigned to veil the coif on the only occasion when the coif was required to be hidden. By the ancient privileges of the sergeants the coif was not to be taken off even in the royal presence. The chief insignia of the order was to be so displayed when sitting on the bench or pleading at the bar, but this rule seems always to have been departed from in passing sentence of death.

"The head of the administrator of justice was then covered, as a token of sor-NO. 15. row, by the black sentence cap. This cornered cap, black cap, or sentence cap, as it is sometimes termed, is a piece of limp black cloth, which is put on the top of the wig. The cap is rarely put on, except when a prisoner has been convicted of murder, and then the judge places the cap on the top of his wig and passes sentence of death."-Gentleman's Magazine.
