STATE NEWS FROM RALEIGH

New Cotton Mill Incorporated at Fayetteville.

Annual Report of the Oxford Orphan Asylum.

A New Society Organization Composed of the "Younger Set"—Warrants Issued by the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Raleigh, Jan. 18.—The executive committee of the Oxford orphan asylum reported that during the past year $21,000 was contributed and expended. There have been 211 orphans cared for and provision has been made to take 16 more. Four cottages have been completed for the boys and four are to be built for girls.

Yesterday the Williamson-Holt manufacturing company of Fayetteville was incorporated for 30 years. The capital stock $50,000, for the manufacture of cotton goods.

Rev. James Battle Averitt last night delivered his lecture on "Plantation Life in the South" for the benefit of the old Confederate veterans.

Governor Russell went to Wilmington on Sunday for a few days. It is said that he will see Robert Hancock while he is away and ask for his resignation as president of the Atlantic and North Carolina railroad. Hancock was one of Governor Russell's pets.

Miss Mary Armistead Jones has issued cards for the entertainment of the "Fin de Siecle Club" to-morrow evening. The younger set of society people are surely taking the lead here.

The effect of the decision of the supreme court in repudiating the issue of the Stanley county bonds is now being felt. Foreign investors are now shy of North Carolina. Her securities refused as collateral by a northern firm and an insurance company stops further loans.

Rev. Balus Corde has resigned a $1,600 position as chaplain at the United States penitentiary at Leavenworth and Rev. T. T. Speight of Halifax county has been tendered the position.

Otis Skinner is booked here for tomorrow in "Prince Rudolph."

The new collector, E. C. Duncan, is here and is fearfully besieged by office seekers. There are plain republicans, and fusionists, all looking for help.

The superintendent of public instruction has issued warrants for the balance due the colored normal schools from the state. The seven schools have received this year $1,854.14. The appropriation was $14,000, $2,000 for each school, but since then an act has been passed giving the state industrial school at Winston, $1,000. This is run in connection with the normal school there.

FREE PILLS.

Send your address to H. E. Bucklen & Co., Chicago, and get a free sample box of Dr. King's New Life Pills. A trial will convince you of their merits. The pills are easy in action and particularly effective in the cure of Constipation and Sick Headache. For Malaria and Liver troubles they have been proved invaluable. They are guaranteed to be perfectly free from every deleterious substance and to be purely vegetable. They do not weaken by their action, but by giving tone to the stomach and bowels greatly invigorate the system. Regular size 25 cents per box. Sold by T. C. Smith and Pelham's Pharmacy.
