A $2,000 Word!

The Atlanta Weekly Constitution announces a new offer in which everyone may have a chance to supply the missing word in this sentence:

"AT FIRST IT WAS CONSIDERED BY THE ' ' AS A GOOD OMEN."

The sentence is taken from a well-known publication. The word is a familiar one, and it may readily suggest itself.

Contest Began Jan. 1--Ends March 1, '98

TO ENTER THIS CONTEST YOU MUST SUBSCRIBE FOR

For One Year, Only $1.00, Sending Your Remittance Direct to Atlanta. AND GET YOUR CHANCE AT THE MISSING WORD FUND

At the end of period covered by this contest The Constitution will pay out to the successful party or parties the full prize amount that has accrued in the contest. Remember that the missing word contests have become so popular and have been conducted with such absolute fairness to all that they have been widely copied after, but none have become equal to The Constitution's great original series.

IN ONE YEAR THE CONSTITUTION HAS PAID OUT NEARLY $6,000 IN CASH

In these missing word contests, it sets aside 10 per cent of the subscription fund received from subscribers guessing at the missing word, and this fund is given to the successful guesser or guessers in the contest. The fund is distributed with absolute fairness, and the fact that The Weekly Constitution has MORE THAN 150,000 subscribers and that it puts aside 10 per cent from all guessers' subscriptions for this distribution fund shows that the amount to be divided at each interval is large enough to be worth striving for. It is not a catch-penny or a doubtful proposition, but the plan is open and simple and IS ADMITTED BY THE MAILS BY THE POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT AS A MERITORIOUS CONTEST.

The book from which the sentence is taken is deposited in a safety vault, and will be opened at the close of the contest before a competent committee, which makes the award after an examination of the subscription books.

In one of these contests there was only one successful guesser, who received more than $1,000; and in addition to this in one year $5,000 has been distributed among successful guessers. Remember that the missing word is supplied or not, it costs nothing to guess, and even though not successful, the guesser gets

THE GREATEST OF ALL WEEKLY NEWSPAPERS FOR ONE YEAR

Keep that in view and send your guess with your subscription for The Weekly Constitution.

The Constitution guarantees that the amount of the award will not be less than $500 in cash, and it may be as much as $2,000.

THE WEEKLY CONSTITUTION IS THE GREATEST WEEKLY NEWSPAPER IN THE WORLD. It is a TWELVE-PAGE, SEVEN-COLUMNS-TO-THE-PAGE NEWSPAPER, containing EIGHTY-FOUR COLUMNS every week. It has no equal as a Weekly Newspaper in America; its news reports cover the world, and its correspondents and agents are to be found in almost every backwater of the Southern and Western States.

AS A MAGAZINE it prints more matter than is ordinarily found in any magazine in the country. AS AN EDUCATOR it is a schoolhouse in itself; a year's reading of The Constitution is almost an education. ITS SPECIAL FEATURES command it especially to every farm home in America. ITS FARM AND FARMER'S DEPARTMENT, its Woman's Department and its Children's Department are all under able direction, and are especially attractive to those who wish to read the most up-to-date and interesting news. The Constitution is Democratic in its policy, hearty advocate of the principles enunciated in the National Platform of the Party.

THE FOLLOWING ARE THE CONDITIONS OF THE CONTEST

- Ten Per Cent of the Guessers' Subscriptions goes to the Fund to be divided.
- In other words if this Subscription Fund amounts to $20,000 for this period then the fund to go to the successful guesser would be $2,000.
- THE CONSTITUTION PUTS 10 PER CENT of the amount it receives for subscriptions from parties entering the Missing Word Contest into a fund for distribution among those who guess correctly the missing word. If only one contestant gets the right word, he or she will be given the entire fund. If more than one supplies the missing word, the same will be proportionately divided among the successful guessers.
- THE CONDITION PRECEDENT FOR SENDING A GUESS at the Missing Word, is that each and every guess must be accompanied by a year's subscription to The Weekly Constitution. If, through the paper publishing this advertisement, in acceptance of a guessing offer, the guess at the missing word will be forwarded. The guess must be sent with the subscription. Should one person send more than one answer, he or she will be entitled to a share of the fund for each correct answer. There will be no capital prize—everyone will get a first prize. Persons may guess as many times as they send subscriptions.

IN MAKING YOUR ANSWER you need not write the sentence out in full—just say the Missing Word for the above particular period (designating it)

BISHOP ISAAC W. JOYCE, and Korea the good bishop also had many interesting experiences, and his homecoming is awaited with much pleasant anticipation by Methodists in general. Bishop Joyce thinks that the condition of missionary work is more promising in western China, northern Japan and Korea than in any of the other sections visited. He speaks enthusiastically of the educational work which is being done and seems but little discouraged by the undeniably small spiritual advances which have been the result of missionary work in the greater part of China and Japan.

BEGAN AS RODSMAN.

The Career of Horace G. Burt, New President of the Union Pacific.

Horace G. Burt, the newly elected president of the Union Pacific railroad, is conceded to be one of the most efficient operating experts in the country. He began his career with the Vandalla lines in 1867 in the humble position of rodman, and for weeks he carried the rod and target as the engineer force tramped across the country laying out new lines. He remained with the Vandalla for two years, when he went to Kansas as locating and constructing engineer for a road which was being built by James F. Joy. In 1871 he concluded that his education needed rounding out, so he entered Ann Arbor university, and for two years studied hard.

In 1873 Mr. Burt went back to railroad, taking a subordinate position in the engineering department of the Chicago and Northwestern. In time he gained the confidence of the officials, and in 1881 he was given the responsible position of superintendent of the Iowa division of the Northwestern, which had just been built. Two years later he was promoted to general superintendent of the same division. In 1887 the Northwestern was in need of a chief engineer, and the president naturally turned to Mr. Burt, who had given such satisfactory service in that department. So the division superintendent was called in off the prairies and installed in the headquarters at Chicago, assuming general supervision of all the engineering work of the big system. A year later the Northwestern secured control of some new lines in the west, and Mr. Burt was sent to become general manager of the newly created division. In July, 1890, Mr. Burt left the Chicago and Northwestern to go on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul as general manager. He had been there but a short time when the election of W. H. Newman as second vice president left vacant the office of third vice president in the Northwestern, and Mr. Burt was induced to return and accept this place, taking charge of the traffic department of the road. He has shown so much ability in his new field that the Union Pacific management, which is always on the lookout for the best men, decided to secure his services. He will make his headquarters in Omaha.

A WANDERING PRELATE.

Bishop Joyce, Who Has Been in Heathen Lands, is Headed Toward Home.

After spending nearly two years in pagan lands Bishop Isaac W. Joyce is preparing to make his way back to civilization and take up his residence in Minneapolis, where he is to succeed Bishop Fowler. He was assigned to make the interesting trip which he has almost concluded by the last general conference of the Methodist church. Since he sailed from America he has traveled more than 20,000 miles and has made a thorough examination of the missionary work which is being done by the Methodist church in China, Japan and Korea. Bishop Joyce is accompanied by his wife, and although the worthy couple are somewhat advanced in age they seem to have stood the fatigues and inconveniences of travel most admirably. They are now at Shanghai, but are soon to start for home, returning through the Holy Land and Egypt.

Few prelates of any church have ever made such a comprehensive investigation of missionary work in such an extended territory as has Bishop Joyce. Of the 719 regular active Methodist missionary workers in the three countries he personally met the greater number, although to do it he had to undertake some journeys from which many a younger and less enthusiastic man would have shrunk. One of his longest and most interesting trips was up the Yang-tse-Kiang, one of the great rivers of China. For 1,500 miles he went by steamer and then came 800 miles on that popular, but unclean institution, the Chinese houseboat. When he left the waterway, it was to get into a sedan chair, which peripatetic coolies carried for several hundreds of miles. In this way he penetrated to the very heart of western China. In Japan

BISHOP ISAAC W. JOYCE, and Korea the good bishop also had many interesting experiences, and his homecoming is awaited with much pleasant anticipation by Methodists in general. Bishop Joyce thinks that the condition of missionary work is more promising in western China, northern Japan and Korea than in any of the other sections visited. He speaks enthusiastically of the educational work which is being done and seems but little discouraged by the undeniably small spiritual advances which have been the result of missionary work in the greater part of China and Japan.
