Average relative humidity	62
Barometer at 9 p. m.	27.85 rising

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF.

The educational class of the Y. M. C. A. meets this evening.

Lyman Deal is able to resume his duties after an illness of several days.

J. W. Chappell, the shoe-maker, is making improvements in his establishments on College street.

About 40 persons expect to leave today for Clarkdale, Miss., to work on the cotton plantations.

N. A. Collins has taken a position with the Asheville steam laundry, succeeding B. W. Headen.

The Paidology club will meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock in Rev. R. F. Campbell's study, Church street.

The Knights of Pythias will confer the thirty-third degree on a number of its members Thursday night.

Two arc lights were suspended yesterday afternoon from the public square tower and were lighted last night.

The Royal Arcanum had its regular meeting last night and installed several new members into its mysteries.

A meeting of the executive committee of Central Democratic club will be held this afternoon at 5 o'clock in President Stevens' office.

The ladies of St. Mary's Guild will be at home Wednesday, January 26, at 61 Spruce street from 4 to 6 p. m. Music, reading, and tea. The admission will be 25 cents.

J. A. Gwaltney of Alexander was in the city yesterday with three dressed hogs which aggregated in weight 508 pounds, making in all twenty head killed by him this season.

Charles Lisenbee was in the city last night from Yancey and says that George McCurry has quit his wicked ways in Yancey, sold his land and left for Paris unknown.

There will be a progressive whist party this evening at Mrs. Ellerbe's, No. 117 Haywood street. A number of prizes will be awarded to the most successful players.

"The Dazzler" drew a large house last evening at the Grand. The play is an amusing farce comedy abounding throughout with sparkling wit. It is a good show and was well received here.

Some time ago the residents on Jefferson drive petitioned for an electric lamp at the intersection of Patton avenue. They are thinking seriously now of petitioning the board of aldermen for a light.

Tobacco continues to come into the market in large quantities. Yesterday's sales were large at both warehouses. Prices seem to advance with the season, some very extraordinary prices being paid yesterday.

Dr. I. A. Harris gives the information that Deputy Sheriff Hughey who was shot by a man he was trying to arrest, is about out of danger, but that he is not yet able to leave his room. His recovery is slow.

Mr. J. L. Page, who for some time has been a substitute as motorman on the Asheville Street railway, was married Sunday to Miss Belle Buckner. They will make Asheville their home. Mr. Page has accepted a permanent position with the Asheville and Elymore Railway company.

A mandolin and guitar club is being organized by a number of well known young men of Asheville. All those who have been invited to join the organization are requested to meet this evening at 8:30 in the office of Dr. Walter Hilliard, South Main street.

Messrs. Thomas and Wells, attorneys for the plaintiff in the case of G. R. Miller against Dr. J. A. Burroughs, will take the deposition of Elijah Sharp next week preparatory to a trial at the next term of the superior court. This is the case where the patient wanted his amputated leg returned.

Policeman W. B. Grant who was suspended last Saturday evening by Chief of Police James on a charge of drunkenness had a hearing before Mayor Rankin and the police committee yesterday evening. A full investigation of the charge was gone into and the officer was exonerated by the testimony and reinstated.

M. M. Jones, Esquire, of Black Mountain was in the city yesterday and reports a pleasant and successful hunt made by himself and a party of friends on Toe river in Yancey county. The hunt lasted four days and several exciting chases after deer were had. The party brought back a good supply of venison.

The republican club held a meeting last night. What they did no one knows except themselves. A reporter was notified for a few moments but was soon notified that an executive session would be held and that his room was preferred to his company. In the afternoon it was reported that the club would pass a resolution favoring Col. Lusk for the judgeship.

The work of placing a new glass front in the Minnaugh store room on Patton avenue is being rapidly pushed by the contractors, Spears and Glenn. This front is on the recess plan and when completed will be one of the handsomest in the city. All the glass required has been received and its placing will be complete in a few days. The store room will be occupied by the Men's Outfitter.

Yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock as Mrs. Dr. Fakes, Mrs. Claybrook James and Miss Mollie Irwin were driving on Central avenue their horse became frightened and ran with the vehicle over a rock wall four or five feet high, throwing the ladies and the driver out. The occupants were badly frightened and considerably bruised. Mrs. Fakes and Mrs. James were assisted to their homes, Mrs. Fakes having her arm painfully injured. Miss Irwin only sustained a few slight bruises upon the face.

There were half a dozen or more cases up before the police justice yesterday. The case of Georgie Cox the white woman who stabbed the negro George Carson in the breast Sunday afternoon in Scratch Ankle was postponed until further testimony could be obtained. Arthur Baxter who held up a fellow, searched him to see if he had any weapons and then flogged him, was fined $5. N. Howard and his son were fined $2.50 each for engaging in a family row.

LESSONS IN FRENCH.

Madame Heutte, who gives private lessons in French to a number of people in Asheville and at the hotels, has at present some vacant hours in which she could receive a few more pupils. She would go to their residence or receive them at 99 Haywood street, where she is stopping, and where she may be addressed. Madame Heutte is a Parisian, her terms are reasonable and the opportunity she offers to those who wish to learn French or to improve themselves in that language is exceptional.

MISSION WORK.

The woman's auxiliary of the board of missions of the Episcopal church met yesterday afternoon at Trinity church. There was a large attendance. The secretary's report was submitted and Bishop Dudley delivered an address on missionary work.

MAJOR WAY STRICKEN

Prostrated at His Home in Grace by Paralysis.

The many friends of Major C. B. Way will regret to learn that he is suffering from a severe stroke of paralysis, at his home at Grace, two miles north of this city. Major Way has been in delicate health for some time, but was able to attend church in North Asheville Sunday morning. Shortly after reaching home he was suddenly prostrated by the stroke, which rendered him unconscious, in which condition he still remained yesterday evening. Dr. Fletcher, who is attending him, hopes that the attack will not prove fatal. Major Way is one of the best known citizens of the county, having served as a justice of the peace for many years, and for two terms superintendent of the public schools of this county. Up to a short time ago he was postmaster at Grace.

The general impression is that A Ward of France is the finest scenic production ever put upon a New York stage.
