THE COTTON MARKET

Another Small Rise Yesterday-Improvement May Go Somewhat Further.

New York, Jan. 27 .- Cotton enjoyed another small rise today. Liverpool was hardly up to expectations this morning, but the opening here was from unchanged prices to two points higher. After the opening selling by commission houses resulted in a pemporary set back, but the local bulls have taken heart at the strength displayed by the market during the last day or two and at the the more moderate recipts and they bought freely. Shorts covering was also a feature and the market recovered its early loss and closed at 5.82, declined to 5.80, advanced to 5.84 and closed at 5.83 to 5.84 with the tone of the market very steady. After the close some belated buyers paid two points higher than the closing figures, the market figures. The improvement may go somewhat further but we do not expect an important advance in the near future.

RIORDAN & CO.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

New York, Jan. 27.- The influences that sent prices up in the stock market yesterday continued strong today and there were further advances nearly all along the line. The movements today though less significant of the recovery of confidence that had been shaken by the apparently warlike action of the government in sending a battleship to Cuba was broad, animated and strong, and was maintained with only insignificant reactions at a few intervals Chicago, Burlington and Quincy went up to 10014 where it was at the close of the day. Other closing quotations were as follovs: Manhathan 1174, Jersey Central 944, Northern Pacific 271/8, Southern Rallway 914, Southern Railway preferred 30%, American Tobacco 87%.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, Jan. 27 .- January wheat kept up to the high figures of yesterday's close today and boomed May up several notches more. With January hovering around the dollar mark May advanced sharply through the day and closed at the highest figure,
