EWART'S SUCCESSOR

Republicans of Henderson County endorse C. V. F. Blythe.

The republicans of Henderson county will present the name of O. V. F. Blythe, Esq., to Governor Russell for appointment to succeed Judge Ewart. Mr. Blythe has the unanimous indorsement not only of his own party, but the bar of Henderson county and all the people. He has quite an extensive experience as an attorney, and has shown the best legal ability. As a citizen he has a first class record for honesty, uprightness and all requisites of good citizenship. As a republican he has always been in the front rank, is now chairman of the central committee which position he occupied in the campaign of '06, and did valiant work. The republicans of this county and district. As an attorney, a citizen and a republican he is eminently worthy to be the successor of Judge Ewart. From several couples of the district he has received hearty indorsement. As Judge Ewart is a Henderson county man, fairness would require one from this county should succeed him. The republicans of Buncombe county now have a big share of the offices in the gift of the party in the district. They should concede the judgeship to Henderson, especially when one so well fitted for it is presented.—Hendersonville Times.

BREVARD.

Brevard, N. C., Feb. 3.—The charter to be obtained from the secretary of state for the turnpike road to be built by a stock company, is being prepared, and it is hoped that work will begin just as soon as the spring weather opens.

The Brevard Banking company opened for business on Tuesday and had a lively day. The citizens are highly gratified at the new arrangement. The bank is operated by Brevard men with Brevard money. The building has been nicely fitted up by the Brevard woodworking company, and the stationery prepared by the Brevard News office. Hence this is a home institution.

Dr. W. J. Wells arranged his matters in Virginia, has returned, and to the gratification of a large clientele, has resumed practice.

It is reported that J. E. Clayton has purchased from Dr. Cole his corner lot on Main street and will erect a large store house on the land in the near future.

Dr. Schenk is being advised with Dash & Pless, attorneys, about suits of Mr. Vanderbilt in this county, and looking after other matters for the Biltmore estate.

HENDERSONVILLE.

Lona Grant returned from Asheville Sunday, where he has been assisting in the removal of the family, to his studies at Judson college.

We learn that the roads were never so bad as at present. The heavy rains succeeded by cold weather has caused the mud to freeze up, making them extremely rough. This has a tendency to make business in town dull, as our country friends are not coming to town much.

Dr. Tennent of Asheville, will be in town on Saturday, February 5, at Dr. Few's office. The doctor is an eye specialist, and makes regular monthly visits to Hendersonville.—Times.

RUTHERFORD STOCK LAW.

At an election held in Rutherford county Tuesday to determine the question of "stock law" or "no stock law" the following vote was cast: For stock law 1,689; against stock law 698; majority in favor of stock law 1,002. The result of the election is gratifying to the friends of the stock law, and a very much larger majority would probably have been polled had it not been for the extremely cold weather of Tuesday. That county will now free itself of the many fences and gates with which it is burdened and the traveler through that section will not be troubled with opening a number of gates at inconvenient intervals on his journey.

This morning they left Mr. Bart Alexander on Beeterie with one hundred and fifty-two head of cattle. Their route lay over Bull mountain and up Reems creek. Cattle for spring killing will be somewhat scarce in our immediate neighborhood.

The thermometer stood at four degrees here this morning at sun rise.

Miss Harriet S. Bayliss, daughter of Dr. Bayliss, at one time editor of the Western Christian Advocate, has accepted the chair of English branches in the Central Tennessee college.

"I wonder why it is that foreign women never come to America for husbands?" "They are probably afraid. American girls give our men such bad recommendations by marrying foreigners."—North American.

Princess Carl of Denmark, formerly Maund of Wales, is the latest addition to the list of royal authoresses, and has been employing all the time she has spent in Denmark by writing a play. She has adopted the pseudonym of "Graham Irving," the latter name being chosen on account of her great admiration for Sir Henry.

SAID BY CHILDREN.

Teacher—"Come, come, Dick, what comes after ten?" Dick—"Eight, nine, ten—er—I donno." Teacher—"Bobby, can you tell Dick what comes after ten?" Bobby—"Yes'm—Jack, queen and king."

A mother recently took her four-year-old boy to church, but had to be constantly chiding him for speaking out in meeting. He finally broke out: "Mamma, if I can't work me talk, take off my shoes so I won't let my toes."

Johnny (on Christmas eve)—"Mamma, can't you give the baby something to make him sleep to-night?" Mamma—"Why, Johnny?" Johnny—"Because if Santa Claus hears him yelling he might think we're all just as bad."

A class of little girls at school were asked the meaning of the word philosopher. Most of the hands were extended, but one child seemed specially anxious to tell. "Well, Annie, what is a philosopher?" asked the teacher. "A man what rides a philosophede," was the little girl's answer.—Chicago News.

SOME AGED WOMEN.

Mrs. Susie Yeager, of Rhineville, Ky., now in her 90th year, was a schoolmate of Abraham Lincoln at the first school session he attended.

Mrs. Mary Flannery, aged 106, died in Independence, Ia., November 10. Mary Flannery was born in County Clare, Ireland, February 2, 1791. She was the mother of nine children, all born in Ireland.

Mrs. Margaret Boughan died at her home in Chocipes Falls recently. She was born in Ireland and claimed to be 124 years of age. Her husband corroborated her story and says that he discovered in the parish records of her birthplace that she was born in 1773.

Just outside the town of Cape Porpoise, Miss., live the oldest married couple in the United States. They are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Manuel, and they are 101 and 98 years of age respectively. The aged pair have lived together 71 years and are still happy.

IRONICAL IFS.

If your enemy is too big to whip you should forgive him.

If a man has plenty of sand he always has lots of grit.

If the office has no salary attached it is obliged to seek the man.

If some men would conceal what they know they would be more popular.

If justice was really blind she wouldn't be able to wink at her favorites.

If a woman's grief happens to be a wrinkle even time cannot heal it.

If men were serpents all the women would want to be professional snake-killers.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

Permanently Cures Scrofula, which is one of the worst afflictions of the human race, and comes from impure blood.

Eczema, a most offensive and uncomfortable affection of the skin, also due to impure blood.

Salt Rheum, a torment to the flesh, a disfigurement to the body, and a drain on the system, also due to vitiated blood.

Pimples, which so disfigure the skin, and make the human face divine anything but a thing of beauty, but which are Nature's advertisement of foul blood.

Catarrh, which very often comes from a chronic affection of the circulation, is a constant offense to one's self and all his friends.

Rheumatism, which all authorities now attribute to various acidities in the blood, which this great blood purifier of the age, Hood's Sarsaparilla, corrects.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold by all druggists. $1.00 per bottle. Prepared only by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Hood's Pills are the best after-dinner pills, aid digestion. 25c.

Tough Sponge Cake. Mistress—Do you call this sponge cake? Why, it's as hard as it can be.

New Cook—Yes, mum. That's the way a sponge is before it's wet. Soak it in your tea, mum.—Boston Traveler.

A Blissful Benedict. Pity the deaf mute, if you will. But one thing I envy him quite—To end curtain lectures, when he's had his fill. He has merely to turn out the light.—New York Journal.

Top and Bottom. "He is a man of extremes." "Yes. He is always talking at the top of his voice and offering to bet his bottom dollar."—Washington Star.
