General Debility and Loss of Flesh

Scott's Emulsion has been the standard remedy for nearly a quarter of a century. Physicians readily admit that they obtain results from it that they cannot get from any other flesh-forming food. There are many other preparations on the market that pretend to do what does, but they fail to perform it. The pure Norwegian Cod-liver Oil made into a delightful cream, skillfully blended with the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda, which are such valuable tonics, makes this preparation an ideal one and checks the wasting tendency, and the patient almost immediately commences to put on flesh and gain a strength which surprises them.

Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion. See that the man and fish are on the wrapper. 50c and $1.00, all druggists. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York.

CURED OF BLOOD POISON AFTER FIFTY-TWO DOCTORS FAILED.

Blood Balm Co., Atlanta Ga. Gentlemen:—In 1872 a small pimple broke out on my leg. It began eating and in four months I was treated by a physician of Talladega county, Ala., where I lived eighteen years. He relieved it for a short while. In six weeks it broke out again in both legs, also on my shoulder. Two small bones were taken out. It continued until 1876. In this time I had twelve different physicians. They told me the only remedy was amputation; that it could never be cured. For six months I could not walk a step. I went to Mineral Wells, Texas spent $300.00; came home; went to Hot Springs, Ark., stayed nine months—all failed to cure me. In 1887 I came back to Birmingham, Ala. I was advised to write you, which I did. You wrote me that B. B. B. would cure me, and I could get the medicine from Nabors & Morrow, druggists, of our city. I bought ten bottles and before I had finished my fifth bottle my legs began to heal, and in less than two months I was sound and well. That has been nearly two years ago and no sign of its return yet. I have spent in cash over $400.00, and B. B. B. done the work that all the rest failed to do. You have my permission to publish this. I have traveled so much trying to get well that my cure is well known. Fifty-two doctors have treated me in the last seventeen years. All they did was to take what money I had, and done me no good. I am now a well man.—PROF. C. H. RANGER. For sale at Pelham's Pharmacy, Asheville, N. C. Price 75 cents per large bottle.

HOUSEHOLD GODS.

The ancient Greeks believed that the Penates were the gods who attended to the welfare and prosperity of the family. They were worshipped as household gods in every home. The household god of to-day is Dr. King's New Discovery. For consumption, coughs, colds and for all affections of Throat, Chest and Lungs it is invaluable. It has been tried for a quarter of a century and is guaranteed to cure, or money returned. No household should be without this good angel. It is pleasant to take and a safe and sure remedy for old and young. Free trial bottles at T. C. Smith's Drug Store, and Pelham's Pharmacy. Regular size, 50c and $1.00.

Wives are more liberal than husbands. The wife who has a mind of her own is apt to give her husband pieces of it.

AMERICANS IN LIBERIA.

Why Colored Emigrants Have Failed of Success.

Great Mortality Due to Conditions Resultant from Lack of Proper Provisions on the Part of the People.

The public is familiar with the disastrous consequences of American negroes going to Liberia unprepared. Rev. C. Max Manning, secretary of the United States legation at Monrovia, lately here on leave of absence, is an educated man and speaks intelligently, though somewhat guarded, of things and conditions in Liberia. Naturally, he was asked as to the condition of the emigrants who left Savannah for Liberia during 1895 and 1896. He replied that he had seen and heard very little of them, the last party, that which went on the Laurada, having arrived some time before he reached there. He understood that they had chiefly gone into the interior. He met a few from Arkansas around Monrovia, but none from Georgia. The reports which he received of these immigrants were not the most favorable, he said. He heard that at Crossville, a colony established by the immigrants in the interior, two-thirds of them had died.

"The great mortality among these people," said Rev. Manning, "is not due so much to climatic influences as to the fact that the greater number of them were unprepared to take care of themselves, and should have never gone there. I do not consider the climate especially unhealthy. What Liberia needs is men with money and brains to develop its resources. Cheap labor is overplentiful. There are plenty of natives to attend to that, and they will do twice the work for half the money that the people who go there from this country can afford to work for. I know of no place in the world where a man with a little capital and who is a good trader can make money more rapidly, and there is none where a man without money is liable to suffer more quickly. The government desires to encourage immigration of the right sort. There is plenty of fertile land. The government gives 25 acres of land to each head of a family, and ten acres to a single man. The class of emigrants who left Savannah in 1895 and 1896 is not desired by the government. It is tired of that class of emigrants."

In speaking of the country, Rev. Manning admitted that Liberia had not progressed as rapidly as the friends of the black republic might wish. The civilized negroes are only a handful as compared with the uncivilized natives. The civilized negroes run the country, however, and the natives cut no more figure with them than a negro does with the white man in this country, Rev. Manning said. No white man is allowed to vote in Liberia. Only landowners can vote, and no white man is allowed to own land. This is a strange state of affairs in a country which was presented to its occupants by white people.

"They argue," said Rev. Manning, "that if the white people are allowed to own land and vote in Liberia the condition of affairs there will soon be pretty much the same as it is in this country, and that white men would own and run the country. Because of this embargo upon white men, capital has been kept out of the country, and its development is retarded. I tried to argue with the principal men that it would be better for them to induce white people to come in and build up their colony for their own advantage, if for no other reason, but they could not see it that way. I cited them to the city of Freetown, in the British colony of Sierra Leone, where the queen's government controls, but everybody has an equal showing. Freetown is one of the most progressive cities to be found anywhere, and reminded me greatly of Augusta, with the exception that the manufacturing element is lacking. Yet negroes do business there successfully in competition with white men. The majority of the business houses are owned and conducted by negroes. There are two banks. One has a negro president and a white cashier, and the other a white president and a negro cashier. The tellers and other employes are negroes."—Savannah (Ga.) News.

Tracked by a Thumb Mark. An extraordinary example of the efficacy of the thumb impression method of identification has happened in Bengal. Some months ago the manager of a tea garden in the Doorgas was brutally murdered, the murderer getting clean away, as the crime was not discovered until some time after its commission. For some time the police were at fault until it was discovered that the murderer, in rummaging among some papers of the deceased, had smudged a Bengali atlas with his thumb. The atlas was forwarded to the bureau, where the thumb impressions of criminals are kept, when it was discovered that the thumb impression of the atlas corresponded with the thumb recorded of a noted criminal then at large. The man was arrested on this evidence, and other evidence subsequently accumulated to connect him with the crime.—N. Y. Journal.
