

STATE NEWS FROM RALEIGH

County Summer Institutes to be Held.

Two Pardons Granted by Governor Russell.

Director Mawborne of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad Files Papers Opposing the Lease to the Southern

Raleigh, arch 16.—The railroad commission yesterday heard the exceptions to the passenger rates which are to go into effect March 23. The Seaboard was heard first. The afternoon was devoted to hearing argument of the counsel for the different roads.

Mr. Mawborne, one of the directors of the Atlantic and North Carolina, was here yesterday. He opposes the lease of the road to the Southern. He filed papers to this effect with the governor, and said the directors had appointed Dr. Person, of Wayne, and himself to represent them in this matter.

Governor Russell yesterday granted two pardons. One was to Edwin P. Hanna, and the other to John S. Lyda—one from New Hanover county and the other from Henderson county.

The farmers are now getting plenty of rain. It has been badly needed, but there is a pretty good supply of steady falling rain given them.

The handsome building which is being put up by the Capital Club here is going up rapidly. It will be one of the handsomest places in the city when completed.

Messrs. C. B. Edwards and W. C. Douglas yesterday attended the meeting of the trustees of the Odd Fellows' Orphanage, which was held at Goldsboro.

Members of the L. O'Brien branch Camp of Confederate Veterans, will hold a meeting on Thursday to discuss the attending of the state reunion at Charlotte on May 20, and also for the election of new officers.

Poor Clerk Wimbish, of the penitentiary! He will not be let alone about the carload of coffee he bought from a northern house. He is chronically as trying to sell to the war department coffee for the gift division of the United States army.

There is to be a meeting of the chamber of commerce tonight to take steps looking to the effort of securing Raleigh as the place for the permanent federal prison.

The Watauga Club met last night. The textile instruction committee made a written report which was amended when adopted. This report will be the first of a series of articles in industrial education which will be published.

Bids for building the new auditorium at the Blind Institute there were opened last night. Elliott Bros., of Hickory, N. C., got the contract. Their bid was for $21,400. The bids were from $29,000 down to the one of $21,400. There were three bidders from Raleigh, one each from Greensboro, Goldsboro, Knoxville, Charlotte and Hickory. The building is to be 65x113 feet and four stories. It is to be completed by October. There are playrooms, class rooms and dormitories on the first three floors, while the fourth floor is the auditorium. The Grand Rapids School Furniture Company got the contract for furnishing the chairs for the auditorium, which is to seat 1,000 people.

Mr. Schloss, the manager of the Williamson opera house, is here looking to the leasing of the Academy of Music.

Superintendent Mebane has written to the different counties asking which of them wish to hold county institutes this summer.

The rate question before the railroad commission today attracted quite a crowd. Some believe the governor will not be able to have the old rate restored, even though that is his warmest wish.

Chairman Dockery of the penitentiary committee, is very anxious to see the penitentiary to the government. He thinks the farms ought not to be re-leased—that as the leases expire the farms should be given up.
