HENDERSONVILLE.

Hendersonville, N. C., May 13.—The military company of this city met at their armory last night and had an enthusiastic meeting. They did not fully organize last night, as they have not yet received the regulation number, but expect to have a full company inside of ten days. They voted their company name "Dewey Cadets." Dr. A. H. Morey was elected captain of the company. This was a good selection, as he was for five years connected with the national guard of Ohio, and is a gentleman of fine executive ability with the vim to make his company one of the best in the state. W. J. Case was elected quartermaster and treasurer, and K. G. Morris, mayor-elect of Hendersonville, was elected secretary. Other officers will be elected when ranks are full. The company gave a vote of thanks to that patriotic and popular lady, Mrs. R. I. Barnwell, for her kindness in tendering the company her large store room as an armory.

This company is composed of the best material of our town and county, and when they fully organize and get into military shape they will not be excelled in appearance, patriotism or bravery by any that have preceded them. I visited Asheville this week and had a good time among old friends and succeeded in renting a summer house "Earle Court," on Patton avenue, and will afflict you with our presence June 1.

Mr. Clark, who bought the Hollyburton place near Brevard, is having shipped to him some fine short horn cattle. The Globe hotel here has been rented to a lady from Florida, and will be in running order by June 1.

Miss McLane will succeed us in running the Central hotel June 1. The following names are registered at the Central this morning: F. Blank, New York; C. W. Carr, F. R. Grant, R. N. Withenbury, T. R. Tuell, Otis A. Miller, Miss Mammie Biggar, Asheville; W. E. Breeze, Welch Galloway, Brevard; Miss Alta Ragland, Brevard; John Harrison, Franklin; Miss Leila McLain, French Broad.

S. M. Geary, Plerson, Mich., writes: "DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is curing more piles here today than all other remedies combined. It cures eczema and all other skin diseases."

ESMERALDA.

Esmeralda Inn, Hickory Nut Gap, May 13.—The guests at the Esmeralda Inn had a very unique picnic party yesterday, at Chapel Rock, which is situated in the midst of a charming little glen about half a mile down the gap, and with pretty cascades running through the center of it. It was named Chapel Rock from the fact that the first Episcopal service ever heard in the gap were held here by some ladies from Cincinnati last fall. So Mrs. Minor, of Detroit, ably assisted by Mrs. Arnold, Mrs. Collins, Mrs. Southworth and Miss Anna Jenks turned to with a will and by the time that Col. Turner who had driven up to Hat Cave in company with Miss Carrie Jenks to get the mail, had returned, the lunch baskets had been filled and they were ready to start for their destination. "But the best laid plans of mice and men gang aft a-glee," (ladies in this case), and clouds had gathered up the gap and a gentle rain began to fall. But when a woman wills she will, etc., and they were determined to have the picnic, so they gathered together about the little tables they could find, and scattered them over the picnic, and the usual picnic accompaniments of ham sandwiches, hard-boiled eggs and pickles, and some delicious coffee brewed by Miss Carrie Jenks.

The ladies bustled about and did the same as if they had been at Chapel Rock, and then they were ready to make on the beauty of the rock and the surrounding scenery and when the party broke up they seemed to be as well satisfied as if the outing had been real. The remainder of the afternoon and evening was devoted to rest and whist and the picnic voted a success.

The latest arrivals at Esmeralda Inn were: Dr. and Mrs. E. Westray Battle, Asheville; Mrs. J. Kerr Osborne, Toronto, Canada; Capt. O. W. Budd, U. S. A.; Mrs. R. A. Montgomery, Lansing, Mich.; Miss Edith Muriel Narden, Chicago, Ill.

SESSION OF DENTAL SOCIETY.

Fayetteville, May 13.—The meeting of the State Dental Society is full of interest. The welcoming address was delivered by Hon. G. M. Rose and an eloquent response was made by Dr. J. H. Durham, of Wilmington. It was a gem of classical and poetic diction. President Horton's address was a masterly effort. A fine essay was read by Dr. Hilliard of Rocky Mount. The subject of "Dental Education" was discussed by Drs. Liverman, E. L. Hunter and Rominger; "Operative Dentistry," by Drs. Durham, Hunter and Wright; Dr. Lawrence, of Georgia, was elected an honorary member. Dr. J. Holly Smith, of Baltimore, was called upon and responded happily. The morning session was devoted to clinics. In the afternoon Dr. G. B. Patterson, of Fayetteville, read an able paper on "Prosthetic Dentistry." Dr. Jewett, of the thanks.

BREVARD.

Brevard Clipper: Sheriff McGaha, accompanied by Miss Mary and Juanita Allison, visited the home of the sheriff's father, at Cedar Mountain, the first of the week. John Neely, of Asheville, visited friends and relatives in our town this week. Rev. L. A. Falls leaves today (Thursday) for his old home at Faison, N. C., to attend the Shelby district Sunday school conference, which convenes at that place. Owing to his absence there will be no services at the Methodist church Sunday morning.

SEVERAL TOWNS.

Black Mountain Eagle: Attorney G. E. Gardner, who accompanied Hon. W. J. Coker to Asheville, returned home Saturday. Lenoir Topics: A fearful thunder storm struck Lenoir last Thursday evening about 8 o'clock. Lightning struck a tree near Mr. G. L. Barnhardt's residence and set it on fire. At Mooresville Levi A. Bostian, aged sixty-nine years, and Miss Della Lloyd, aged twenty years, were married at the residence of J. H. Hodgson by Rev. J.

W. Clegg. Mr. Bostian is a Rowan man. The bride is a native of Ireland. Cleveland Star: Rev. J. R. Vaughan, of Asheville, N. C., will deliver his famous temperance lecture at Fallston, Sunday, 11 a. m.; Bellwood, Sunday 3 p. m.; Cleveland Mills, Sunday 8 p. m. He will give a temperance rally in Shelby Saturday night.

Sylvan Valley News: In Brevard no idle workmen are to be found. The new stone building of J. E. Clayton is employing all who apply for work, and not enough help is at hand to push the building as rapidly as is desired. Marshall Kilpatrick is in charge of the work.

Sylvan Valley News: C. Mauldin, of Asheville, and Fannie A. Beck, of Penrose, were married at the home of the bride's father, Rev. Asa Beck, on Tuesday. We are informed that they started immediately for the groom's home in Piedmont, S. C., stopping at Caesar's Head hotel en route.

Black Mountain Eagle: Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Austin got up Wednesday morning and left their baby, a male child, about two months old, sleeping soundly. On going to the bed Mrs. Austin found that the child was dead. When born the child weighed only one and a half pounds, at the time of its death it weighed six pounds.

Sylvan Valley News: King's creek got on a boom during the thunder storm Wednesday, and played havoc with the Chattanooga Lumber Company. The mill recently located above Floyd Wood's place was twisted out of all semblance of a well regulated saw mill, and it is thought that it will take a week to get it in operation again.

Charlotte News: Col. E. C. Dexter left this morning for a tour of the post-offices in Stanly county. At Plyler, eight miles from Albemarle, the postmaster has notified the department that he no longer wishes the vacant. Farming, he says is more profitable, and he will return to the plowshares from whence he came.

Statesville Landmark: Mr. Brawley, who lives near Amity, and is a first-class truck farmer, sold home-raised cabbage on the Statesville market Wednesday, and strawberries from Mrs. P. K. Key's truck farm were sold on the market the same day. Iredell is forging ahead and it will be a better day for all of us when more attention is given to truck farming.

Wilson News: Wiley Howard, of Kenly, was in Wilson yesterday and at his suggestion of two young white boys decided to take a walk to Hominy Swamp with them, not suspecting other than friendly feeling, but this thought was soon dispelled when the young scamps "worked the racket" on him and took all the money he had amounting to $9.40.

Laurinburg Exchange: A billy goat disturbed the seriousness of a meeting at Gibson Station Sunday. His majesty walked into the church when the sermon was about half finished, and when an attempt was made to run him out he sought shelter under a bench and put up a most heart-breaking yell that were all up the church members. The evangelist said most too much for the preacher and congregation. Billy was finally persuaded to spend the day in the open air.

Reidsville, May 13.—The members of the Reidsville Rifles are very indignant at a telegram received yesterday, in which they were notified that their place in the Second regiment has been given to another company. They charge treachery on the part of some one, and claim that the Hull volunteer bill has been violated, in that a regularly organized company belonging to the state guard has been turned down.

last Friday and are spending this week among relatives and friends in the mountains. John Stalling, who lives a few miles south of Lenoir, and for a number of years has been employed at the State Hospital at Morganton. The bride was formerly employed at that institution, but for a year or more has been employed at the Eastern Hospital, Knoxville, Tenn.—Lenoir Topics.

Newton Enterprise: There was a pitched battle near Olivet Baptist church in Catawba township last Sunday in which rocks, sticks, and other weapons were used. The Olivet boys were routed completely. Warrants have been sworn out for five of the attacking party, but they are as hard to find as the Cape Verd fern. Ed Harris, who will be Capt. Robertson's body servant in the war and has been nicknamed Robertson's angel, is said to have been the most conspicuous figure among the soldiers leaving Charlotte last week. He had raked up a unarmy somewhere, had a big knapsack on his back and three canteens and a pair of shoes swung around his neck.

Apex News: It is reported that in eastern Wake county a man by the name of Spencer has been preaching sanctification, and in order to carry out his points he announced to his hearers that on Saturday night he would walk on water. Saturday night he went to a pond and drove up some posts and laid some planks along about three inches under the water. Sunday morning, by appointment, a large crowd assembled to see the wonderful feat. During the night some mean boys took out one of the planks. After spending several minutes in prayer the sanctificationist proceeded to walk. With eyes fixed heavenward he slowly and deliberately walked in. Everything was still, and such remarks as "Ge, whiz! that man shorely an sanctified!" could be heard from the eager crowd of on-lookers. Suddenly when about the middle of the pond he came to the missing plank. "Ker choog!" under went the person above his head in water. The now thoroughly enraged crowd dispersed with very little faith in sanctification.

BEATS THE KLONDIKE.
Mr. A. C. Thomas, of Marysville, Tex., has found a more valuable discovery than has yet been made in the Klondike. For years he suffered untold agony from consumption, accompanied by hemorrhages; and was absolutely cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. He declares the gold in little value in comparison with this marvelous cure; would have it, even if it cost a hundred dollars a bottle. Asthma, Bronchitis and all throat and lung affections are positively cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Trial bottles free at T. C. Smith's Drug Store and Pelham's Pharmacy. Regular size 50 cts. and $1.00. Guaranteed to cure or price refunded.

The queen of England has ordered her battleship Revenge to make anchor in Leghorn, when the commander, Admiral Noel, and his staff can attend the Toscanelli-Vespucci celebrations being held in Florence. Mr. and Miss Noel have joined the admiral, coming from Bordighera, and the other evening at the concert held in the Palazzo Vecchio the ladies in white were set off to perfection by the dark uniforms of the officers. The uniforms of the English and American navy officers who are in attendance are subjects of much interest to the Italians, accustomed to the brilliant red and gold galore of their own and the Austrian and German army and navy. The utter simplicity, the dark colors and quiet get-up of the English impresses not quite favorably the color-loving Italians, and they scoff at the awkwardness of the British officers, who doff at the least, excuse their despised uniforms, in which they look like wooden men. The Italian officers, on the contrary, never appear willingly except in their gold braid and buttons, considering—and rightly—that the imposing dress adds greatly to their rather insignificant appearance.

"I would not be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for its weight in gold," writes Dr. J. Jones, of Holland, Va. "My wife was troubled with a cough for nearly two years. I tried various patent remedies, besides numerous prescriptions from physicians, all of which did no good. I was at last persuaded to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which promptly relieved the cough. The second bottle effected a complete cure." The 25 and 50 cent bottles are for sale by Dr. T. C. Smith.
