THE WEATHER.

Washington, July 2.—Fair, continued high temperature.

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF.

Grant's and Way's pharmacies will be open today.

Bainbridge's bookstore will close at noon Monday, July 4.

W. J. Fitzgerald has assumed the management of Cooper's commission brokerage.

Haywood street M. E. church had its annual picnic at Sulphur Springs yesterday. There was a large attendance.

The opening ball at Mountain Park hotel, which was planned for July 4, has been postponed for ten days or two weeks.

The light bearers of Central M. E. church, south, will meet at 5 o'clock this afternoon. A full attendance is requested.

J. D. Blanton's shoe store, as well as most of the other prominent business houses, will be closed tomorrow. The postoffice and the banks will also observe the holiday.

Manager Theobald of the Kandy Kitchen, has placed a very large handsome sign over his place of business. The board is 19 1/2 x 3 feet and the letters are two feet long.

There will be a meeting of the Flower Mission on tomorrow morning, July 4, at 10:30 o'clock at Mrs. J. A. Burroughs. This change of hour is made because the president of the Flower Mission can be present in the morning.

The body of Engineer David Kirk, of Denmark, S. C., who was overcome with the heat while running on his engine last week, passed through yesterday en route to his old home, Cincinnati, for interment.

On Thursday next, July 7, the Right Rev. Joseph Cheshire, Jr., D. D., bishop in charge of the missionary jurisdiction of Asheville, will consecrate St. Matthias church at 11 a. m. The public is cordially invited to be present. There will be an early celebration of the holy communion at 7 a. m.

The Biltmore Athletic association has planned for some time to have a tennis tournament. During the morning a number of match games of tennis will be played. The teams have not been selected but the entries will be numerous. In the afternoon beginning at about 2 o'clock there will be a match game of cricket.

Tax Listers Miller and Jones completed their work yesterday and the books are now closed. The number of delinquents, Mr. Jones says, is less than usual. The number who listed yesterday was 113, and the valuation of the property given in $200,000. Several of our largest taxpayers came in the last day.

Today is Major McKissick's Birthday and the hotel staff will present to him, through the chef, a very handsome gold and platinum watch chain with an invisible joint charm. It was made to order after a favorite design of Mr. McKissick, and has a suitable inscription upon the charm. It was secured through Arthur M. Field.

There will be an open air concert at Lookout park this afternoon. Music will be furnished by the Asheville orchestra. Tomorrow afternoon there will be a number of extra attractive features, both band and orchestra music will be furnished and dancing will be engaged in. Additional lights have been placed on the grounds, and with the assistance of the moon all will be light. The company expects to have a fine display of fireworks and to entertain the visitors in great style.

Arthur L. Butt's original gold, pearl and crystal paintings, 13,440 square feet of canvas rolled on cylinders, will be exhibited at Bethel M. E. church July 3, 4 and 5. This is no magic lantern, but real paintings. The first night revelation of St. John on Patmos will be shown; second night beautiful stories of the old bible; third night, the Black Valley scenes. The Knoxville Tribune says the exhibition is one of the most instructive entertainments ever given. Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights. Admission ten cents.

Licenses have been issued for the marriage of John Lankford and Zora Summey, of Buncombe. F. J. Edwards and Florence Martin.

If People Knew

As a new cash customer handed us a check for $5.84 he asked the price of a certain brand of flour, and when told said he bought a barrel that morning, but paid 60 CENTS MORE, believing he was trading with the cheapest merchant in town. It affords us the same pleasure to save our friends money that it does to make for ourselves.
