TO IMPEACH NORWOOD

Bill to This End Introduced in the House.

Magistrates have No Jurisdiction in Concealed Weapon Cases

Cannon Allowed $202 for Expenses of His Contest in the Senate.

The Hertford County Bill Progressed; House Appoints Committee-men for Penitentiary Investigation.

Special to the Gazette. Raleigh, Jan. 18.—After Representative Snipes, of Hertford, and Hampton, of Surry, had denounced the Raleigh papers for their accounts of yesterday's proceedings Representative Curtis introduced a resolution looking to the impeachment of Judge W. L. Norwood.

The bill of Representative Bryan, of Madison, to give magistrates jurisdiction of concealed weapon cases was before the house and it roused some warm words. The bill was reported unfavorably by the judiciary committee on the ground that many justices of the peace were incompetent or not above suspicion and for the sake of their fees they would compromise such cases; that the bill would really encourage the carrying of concealed weapons because people had no fear of justices of the peace.

Mr. Moore was loudly applauded, as was Representative E. J. Justice, who made an eloquent speech reflecting severely on Mr. Carter. He said that the bill should be entitled a bill to encourage the carrying of pistols—a devilish weapon conceived by man who invented it to take life.

certain fees. The vote against the bill was 72 to 24 for it.

The speaker announced the committee for the house on the joint committee to investigate the penitentiary: Gattis, Willard and Patterson, of Robeson.

The speaker announced the following bills had been ratified and were now laws:

To amend the charter of the Bingham school.

To create the penitentiary investigating committee for both houses.

To permit the erection of the Bagley monument in the capitol grounds.

Mr. Craig introduced a resolution out of order by leave to create a committee on election of trustees of the State university.

It was at once passed and the speaker appointed Messrs. Winston, Carr, Craig, Foushee and Wall.

The bill to repeal the act which requires two years' abandonment a ground for divorce was tabled, as was a bill to prohibit claims of over 6 per cent. liens by merchants.

The following bills were passed:

To allow Morganton to issue bonds.

To validate the issue of bonds by Charlotte.

To repeal the chain gang law of Madison county and allow convicts to be worked in other counties.

To allow Fayetteville to settle with the tax collector on a basis of 25 per cent of last year's taxes.

Allowing the sheriff of various counties until December 31 to collect arrears of taxes.

To reduce the price of supreme court reports to $1.50 per volume.

The following bills and resolutions were introduced in the house:

By Bonshall, of Wake, to amend the charter of the city of Raleigh. Referred to the committee on cities and towns.

By Carroll, to amend section 2,941 of the code by facilitating restoration to citizenship.

By Overman, to amend chapter 147, laws of 1897, so that in the event of the death of a trustee or mortgagee before payment all their rights and powers shall devolve upon their executor. It validates such rates already made. Referred to the judiciary committee.

By Gilliam, to abolish the fees of solicitors and substitute a fixed salary of $2,000. Referred to the judiciary committee.

By Johnson, of Johnson, to allow C. P. Jones to exercise the duties of a pharmacist, his certificate being lost. Referred to committee on propositions and grievances.

By Boggs, to provide for teaching the elementary principles of agriculture in the public schools. Referred to the committee on education.

By Gattis, to provide in any action concerning real estate it shall not be necessary to prove title outside of the state. Referred to the judiciary committee.

By Gattis, to make bonds for appearances in criminal cases liens on property. Referred to the judiciary committee.

By Alexander, of Rutherford, to transfer James D. Davis from fourth to second class pension roll. Referred to the committee on pensions.

By Redding, to repeal sections 19 and 37, laws 1897. Referred to the committee on judiciary.

By Johnson, of Sampson, to prevent foreign corporations from removing suits from state to United States courts by requiring them to agree not to remove, and to appoint an agent on whom process can be served. This is said to be like Marion Butler's bill proposed to the last legislature. Referred to the judiciary committee.

By Fleming, of Clay, to prevent fast driving over bridges in Clay county. Referred to the public roads committee.

By Overman, a resolution to appoint a committee of three to ascertain and report how many clerks are employed in the engraving clerk's office and how many are necessary. Adopted.

By Boggs, of Catawba, to extend the limits of Hickory. Referred to the committee on counties, cities and towns.

By Hoffman, of Burke, a petition of citizens of Morganton against the proposed bill to establish graded schools. Referred to the committee on education.

By Robinson, of Cumberland, a petition of citizens of Cumberland county against the repeal of the dispensary at Fayetteville.

SENATE. Senator Harriston rose to a question of personal privilege. He said that any paper in the state had a right to criticize his substitute bill, but that he desired to say that the attack in today's Morning Post upon his bill to require foreign corporations to become domestic

PENALTY DISMISSAL

Punishment Eagan May Suffer If Proven Guilty.

Gen. Miles May not Escape The Court Martial Proceedings Unscathed.

Gen. Eagan Won't be Arrested Until His Trial Begins.

Not Customary to Put General Officers in Arrest at their Quarters—He Will Probably be Relieved of Duties.

Washington, Jan. 18.—A formal order appointing a court martial for General Eagan was issued this evening.

The court is appointed to meet at 10 a. m., January 25, and is to try General Eagan "and such other persons as may be brought before it."

The details for the court is: Generals Merritt, Wade, Butler, S. B. M. Young, Frank, Pennington, Randall, Kline and Comba; Colonels Haines, Gillespie, Suter and Guenther, and Lieutenant Colonel Davis, judge advocate.

Every member of the court is within two days' journey of Washington. Young is in Augusta, Ga.; Frank, in Anniston, Ala.; Pennington, in Atlanta; Randall, in Greenville, S. C.; Kline, in Athens, Ga.; Comba, in Huntsville, Ala.

With the exception of General Butler every member of the court is an officer of the regular army.

One interesting feature of the order is that General Eagan will not be placed under arrest until the court martial meets and then only constructively.

The understanding had been that he would be relieved of his duties and directed to remain in arrest at his quarters but it was explained that this course was not followed in the case of general officers.

Tomorrow he will be served with a copy of the order and directed to appear on the date named. He will then, without specific orders, cease to exercise his duties and make himself as inconspicuous as possible before the public. It is understood that the charges against General Eagan will be "conduct unbecoming an officer and gentleman and to the prejudice of good order and military discipline."

The specifications will recite Eagan's language. The extreme penalty, if convicted, is dismissal from the army. That the outcome of the trial may be a court martial of General Miles is regarded as not unlikely.

General Eagan may bring Miles' interviews up as evidence.

GORMAN LEADS FILIBUSTERS

If Philippine Sovereignty Isn't Stricken, Treaty May be Hung Up.

Washington, Jan. 18.—The opponents of the peace treaty are bending all their efforts to the task of convincing its advocates that the convention must either be amended by striking out the provisions for sovereignty over the Philippines or that they must reconcile themselves to a postponement of the vote until next session.

Under Senator Gorman's leadership the opposition democrats say they will stand firm on this point, but it is doubtful that they will do so.

If they carry out their threat an extra session will be called after March 4, and the treaty would go through quickly.

The republican senators insist that the treaty will not be amended. Tomorrow Chairman Davis will move an executive session and keep the treaty constantly before the senate until the filibusters give in.

TO BE SURE OF OUR TITLE

Consent of Nicaragua and Costa Rica to be Obtained Before Building Canal.

Washington, Jan. 18.—Preliminary action in the Nicaragua canal bill was taken in the senate today.

Senator Caffery's substitute was laid on the table by a vote of 32 to 22, and the amendment by Senator Bacon, of Georgia, that no act should be operative until Nicaragua and Costa Rica consent to limit the previous concession and secure to the United States title in perpetuity, was defeated 12 to 37.

An amendment proposed by Senator Gorman, of Maryland, authorizing the president to arrange with Nicaragua and Costa Rica so as to acquire all the necessary rights and privileges was agreed to, while the substitute bill by Senator Gray, of Iowa, authorizing the purchase of the territory needed to construct and maintain the canal and appropriating $140,000,000, was rejected by a vote of 15 to 32, but went over without further action.

DARKENS FOR QUAY

Overzealous Friend Makes Probably Costly Blunder.

Conducted Affairs at a Joint Convention in a Way to Make Many Enemies.

Caused Democrats only Lukewarm Against Quay to Turn Red Hot.

Wouldn't Entertain Motion of an Appeal and Adjourned Session Contrary to Vote—Quay's Friends Feel Blue.

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 18.—Senator Quay may be beaten on account of the blunder of his friend, Lieutenant Governor Gobin, who, as presiding officer of the senate, made a ruling which is likely to turn the tide.

Even Quay's friends admit the contest will be prolonged. Quay received the same vote today as yesterday with the democrats voting solidly for Jenks, with the anti-Quay votes scattering.

Gobin ruled that a resolution providing that the method of procedure was out of order, but made a mistake when he refused to entertain an appeal and later declared the convention adjourned, although a motion to that effect was defeated.

The democrats and independents held a meeting, at which a most vigorous protest against Gobin's course was made in a series of resolutions.

Tonight there is talk of making things unpleasant for Gobin, who holds a brigadier's commission, which is claimed to be against the constitution.

Important developments are expected tomorrow and the anti-Quays are more confident than ever of victory.

JENKS IS AGAINST QUAY. Harrisburg, Jan. 18.—Jenks, the democratic candidate for senator, said tonight that Quay would be more than disappointed in the balloting tomorrow. Jenks added that he would not stand in the way of fusion when the time came.

DUEL TO THE DEATH BECAUSE OF A WOMAN. Booth's Cousin Married Howard and She Charged Him with Ill-Treatment.

Montevallo, Ala., Jan. 18.—Bomme Booth and Newton Howard, two young farmers near here, shot each other, to death yesterday.

Howard married a cousin—of Booth and the woman, alleging that Howard ill-treated her, fled to Booth for protection. Howard went after her and the fight occurred. Howard is dead and ooth is dying.
