their advance was not up to spot prices here. Our opening was higher and prices very firm and the market steadily improved throughout the day, the close being around top prices. Moderate orders from the south, together with a noticably less disposition to sell were factors.

Port receipts for the week are estimated at 90,000. The coming visible in sight is expected to reach 125,000. These figures are based on the rising temperature in the south. Unless the receipts increase rapidly in the future, Europeans may lower crop estimates and cover by sales in this market. This we consider as more than a likely contingency and we repeat our advice of this week, buy on all recesseions.

Chicago, Feb. 18.-Wheat has ruled easy today both here and abroad. Libuy evinced by the Europeans were the principal factors. Receipts continued larger than a year ago and other exporting countries are competing with the Americans in supplying the foreign

A comfortable dwelling house, with two rooms; barn and store house, a good country stand. A fine young orchard of about one hundred bearing apple trees. The entire tract is well adapted to pro duce, grass, clover, tye, oats, corn, cab bage, potatoes and other root crops in abundance. There is inclosed in this tract one of the finest building sites in western North Carolina, for a summer resort. It is beautifully located for a ho tel: this site is situated on high ground, overlooking the French Broad valley, and commainding a lovely view of Pis gah, Craggy and the Vanderbilt moun tains, and is very accessible, only about one half mile from railroad. There is also near this heautiful site a very fine, bold spring of freestone water. This magnificent site is covered with a fine grove of native forest. This site alone is worth more than owner asks for the whole farm. Anyone desiring a home amidst most beautiful natural surround ings, and in a climate noted for its su
