THE SUNDAY GAZETTE.

Next Sunday's Gazette will consist of TWELVE PAGES, and will be very fully illustrated. It will be a newspaper second to none that will enter the city, or any town within its field of circulation in this state, on the day of its publication. In thus presenting a thoroughly up-to-date Sunday paper to its readers the Gazette is meeting a public demand.

With this new progressive step the Gazette will simultaneously inaugurate another that is of equal importance to the business management of the paper. Beginning with next Sunday's issue of the Gazette the paper will be sent only to subscribers who have paid for it. In this respect there will be no discrimination as to whether the subscriber is rich or poor, a prominent citizen or otherwise.

ARE YOU BANKRUPT in health. Constitution undermined by extravagance in eating, by disregarding the laws of nature, physical capital all gone, if so, NEVER DESPAIR. Tutt's Liver Pills will cure you. For sick headache, dyspepsia, sour stomach, malaria, torpid liver, constipation, biliousness and all kindred diseases. Tutt's Liver Pills an absolute cure.

and under the invariable rule of advance payments for subscriptions this increase will be among the class that will and can pay for what they buy—the only class with whom it pays to do business. For the present the subscription price of the Daily Gazette will remain as follows: $4.00 a year; $2.00 for six months; $1.00 for twelve weeks; 40 cents a month. The wholesale price of the Sunday edition will be advanced one-half cent per copy.

The race question seems to be about as troublesome in Illinois as it is anywhere. The public waits with interest the outcome of the miners' fight there and of the trial of the Lake City lynch-ers in South Carolina. Both are "studies in black and white" with very deep shadows.

THE STORK AS A DEALER IN MILLIONS

New York World. The stork, the bird that pays his visit when orange blossoms have faded and the echoes of gay marriage bells are no more, the bird that comes to turn a well regulated household topsy-turvy, will shortly visit the George Vanderbilts. And thereon hangs a tale. Another story of a will, in which Master Stork plays no small part. When the late William H. Vanderbilt left this world he directed that in the event of his son, George, failing to leave a wife and issue the property bequeathed to George should pass to Cornelius, his grandson. Whether or not the stork, in his moments of idleness, comfortably ensconces himself in the surrogate's office and pores over the last wills and testaments of dead millionaires is not actually known; but it is a matter of record and comment that his visits seem to evince a decided disposition to play practical jokes. Lady Beresford recently made a meteoric visit to this country—and all on account of the stork. Mrs. George Vanderbilt crosses the sea leaves Italy and Paris behind—and all on account of the stork. The young Cornelius Vanderbilts, to whom all promises of wealth have had charms, abandon them—and all on account of the stork. When the stork visits the happy home of the George Vanderbilts he makes it happier by his heir. When he passes on his homeward trip the windows of the young Cornelius Vanderbilts he shrilly whistles "Euchred."

THE HAMMONDS AT BILTMORE

The bridal couple, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hammond, are enjoying their honeymoon at Biltmore. They arrived last Friday in a special car from New York. Mrs. Hammond is a niece of George Vanderbilt. She is a tall and strikingly handsome brunette, possessing the Vanderbilt charm of manner and lack of coquettishness. The bridal couple have taken up their residence in River Cliff. They are charmed with the beauties of the land of the sky and will probably remain at Biltmore until the return of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Vanderbilt, which is expected sometime this month.
