attempted suicide Saturday by drinking carbolic acid. He was found Saturday afternoon in an empty house and in a critical condition. He is expected to recover.

Judge Starbuck has granted an injunction against the opening of a dispensary at Franklin. The dispensary commission are cited to appear before him today.

The Nag's Head hotel will be opened to the public by Messrs. C. W. and F. M. Grice on the first of July, at which time the steamer Uew Bern will commence her regular schedule.—Elizabeth City Economist.

The democrats elected their ticket in the following North Carolina towns: Statesville, Morganton, Burlington, Raleigh, Greensboro, Tarboro, Wapentown, Kinston, Ellenboro, Asheville, Durham.

Mr. J. T. Wyatt, of Faith, has received an order for several hundred dollars worth of granite. The granite is to be gotten out at once and shipped to Greensboro to be used in the Revolution cotton mill.—Salisbury Sun.

A correspondent of the Raleigh Post says Mary Marable, colored, died at the county home in Vance county a few days ago after having been vaccinated. She applied the leaves of Jamestown (Jimspood) weed to her arm, which caused blood poisoning, resulting in death.

At Wilmington Tuesday morning about 1 o'clock the wife and stepdaughter of M. T. Davis, watchman at Hall & Pearsall's naval store yard across the river, were drowned while crossing with Mr. Davis in a small rowboat. The bodies were recovered.

Ed Spivey, a guard at the Halifax state farm, was overpowered by a squad of convicts he was working last Thursday, and five of the penitentiary birds escaped. Among the number was Prantley, a white man, under a life sentence for murder. Brantley was one of the Bonner murderers at Aurora some years ago.

On last Monday while E. C. Suther was ploughing along he noticed a dry large terrapin, says the Concord Standard. Old-looking as it was, he picked it up and found the initials of one of his sisters, "M. V. S." and another name, the initials being "C. H. R." and the date of 1869.

At the soldiers' home the new building, work on which begins next month, will be composite—a dormitory and hospital combined. The plans are under way. It will provide accommodations for at least fifty more veterans. There are many applications for admission.

In the Wake superior court last week the jury in the case of the Hygienic Plate Ice company against the Raleigh and Augusta Air Line Railroad company, brought in a verdict in favor of the ice company for $20,000, with interest, and costs. This is said to be the largest verdict ever given in a damage suit in Wake county.

The L. O. B. Branch Camp Confederate veterans at a meeting held in Raleigh last week decided to vote unanimously for Colonel Julian S. Carr, of Durham, for major general of the North Carolina division. The camp will vote for Colonel Thomas S. Kenan, of Raleigh, for custodian for North Carolina of the Lattle Abbey.

The Washington Post says that strawberries from New Bern, Kinston and Goldsboro will be exhibited at the fruit fair and festival to be held in Washington city on the evening of the 19th day of May, under the auspices of the North Carolina society. Specimens will be taken from the baskets shipped the day before and will be noted for their excellence in size, flavor and shipping qualities.

The Winston Journal learns of a remarkable goose in Davie county. It was owned by the late Mrs. T. Spray, of Advance, who died a few weeks ago. The goose has reached the age of 27 years, all this time in the possession of Mrs. Spray. From the goose the owner has made four large feather beds. This can be vouched for by Mr. Bailey, on whose land she resided. The goose is still alive.

Last Saturday was the university's annual field day. There were ten events, and in several of them last year's records were broken. Prizes amounting in the aggregate to $80 were contributed by the residents of Durham and other places in that part of the state, and in addition to this the coveted privilege of wearing the university sweater was given to the winners of certain events. The contests were, in consequence, spirited.

The statuette of Thomas H. Benton, presented by Mr. Charles L. Van Noppen, will be placed in the library of the university in a short time. In transportation it was broken in several places, and otherwise badly damaged. The damage has, however, been so skillfully repaired that its traces are scarcely observable. The statuette represents Senator Benton in a characteristic attitude when addressing the senate, with one arm at his side and the other stretched out level with the shoulder, the index finger pointing. The figure is about thirty-two inches high, and is made of plaster of paris, in imitation of bronze. It is a very fine piece of work.
