The lightning struck a tree, and, it is supposed, ran on a wire fence to the calf, which was lying beside the fence a little distance away. Anyway, the calf was found dead beside the fence the next morning. The animal was a present to Mr. Furches from Mr. F. M. "Now, I suppose," remarked Mrs. Snuggs, "that the surgeons of the army are attached to the medical corps." "Your supposition does you great credit," replied Mr. Snuggs sarcastically. "It's a wonder you didn't imagine that doctors joined the army for the purpose of building bridges or going up in a balloon. Where should army surgeons be except in the medical corps?"

The Rug.

The lifetime of a rug depends not a little upon whether it is hung over a line and beaten to remove the dust or laid on a flat surface and beaten and swept. The warp of even a small rug is strained more by taking hold of one end and vigorously whipping out the dust than it is by a month's time of wear.
