SEVEN CUBANS

Out of Entire Fifth Army Corps Accepted Money.

But None of These Had Guns to Exchange for the Seventy-five Dollars.

General Brooke Feels Chagrined at Turn of Affairs.

Papers Declare the Whole thing a Fizzle, and It Looks Like Bitter Defeat for Gomez.

Havana, May 27.—The first day of the distribution of the three million dollars ended at 5 o'clock this afternoon. Of 4,317 men comprising the Fifth army corps, only seven received their $75, but not a man turned in a gun, because none had any. All Havana is laughing at the outcome, and there is evidently a feeling of chagrin at General Brooke's headquarters, although it is believed that more men will take the money outside of Havana, as they are less under the influence of the agitators who are centered here. Many Cubans look upon the turn of affairs as a bitter defeat for Gomez. The latter feels his embarrassment poignantly, but still remains hopeful of a turn in the tide.

The papers unanimously declare the whole thing a fizzle and say the American "need" expect no change, as the Cuban army is practically disbanded. Gomez has decided to withhold his manifesto until next week.

FREE SPEECH PROHIBITED

When it is Used to Alienate a Wife's Affections.

Dallas, Tex., May 27.—J. B. Warfield, state agent of the tobacco trust, was placed in the Dallas county jail this evening to serve three days' imprisonment and pay a $100 fine and stand committed until the fine is paid, because of contempt of court. Warfield's contempt consists of the violation of an injunction issued by Judge Richard Morgan, upon the application of W. R. Morris, prohibiting Warfield from communicating or associating in any manner with Mrs. Morris, whose husband had accused Warfield of alienating her affections. He is suing Warfield for $100,000 damages. Warfield denied the jurisdiction of the court in issuing such an injunction, defending himself upon the constitutional guarantee of free speech, which, he said, permitted him to visit or converse with Mrs. Morris, if she was willing he should do so.

No similar case or issue is on record in any of the courts of this country, but Judge Morgan decided that the constitutional guarantee of free speech could not be stretched so far as his court was concerned, to the breaking up of the home circle or the destruction of the marriage relation.

Warfield appealed to the state court of criminal appeals, but that court sustained Judge Morgan. Warfield moved for a rehearing, which was denied. He then threatened to appeal to the supreme court of the United States, but today abandoned further contest. He has been out on $2,500 bond since last February.

SKIRMISHES AT FERNANDO

Filipinos Making Attempts to Worry the American Garrison There.

Manila, May 27.—The insurgents are returning to the outskirts of San Fernando, where they are making persistent attempts to worry the American garrison. Skirmishes are frequent.

The Filipinos are spreading a story which is being widely circulated among the natives that the grand celebration which took place on Queen Victoria's birthday, including the illumination of the British cruiser Powerful, was arranged in honor of the Filipino commanders, who are gaining prestige with the Americans.

The American troops are being shifted about preparatory to the establishment of northern garrisons and the reorganization of General Lawton's division south of Manila.

INSURANCE COMPANIES WIN

In Anti-Trust Case in Arkansas—Companies All Resume Business.

Little Rock, Ark., May 27.—The Supreme court today handed down the decision in the famous anti-trust insurance case. It is a complete victory for the insurance companies, and a fatal blow to Attorney General Davis' construction of the anti-trust law. Sixty-three companies which suspended business on the signing of the act, resumed this afternoon. The court holds that the law does not apply to pools or combinations formed outside of the state, which do not affect person's property, prices or insurance within the state.

GOOD ROADS MASS MEETING

Committee Appointed From Each Township to Organize Local Associations.

Professor Holmes Eulogizes Buncombe and Gives Many Points on Road Work.

The good roads mass meeting was held yesterday afternoon in the court house. The fourteen townships of the county were well represented. The meeting was most successful in arousing interest in the subject and Prof. Holmes said after the meeting that he was especially pleased with the attendance and the interest shown. Literature on the subject of good roads was given to everyone, and the badges were much sought after.

The meeting was called to order by President Loughran in a speech explaining the character, purpose and progress of the association. He said: "This association was organized March 6 with about twenty members. In a little over two months, we have secured 109 active and nineteen honorary members who have contributed in subscriptions, dues and initiation fees, $1,180.19. Of this $800.50 were private subscriptions for beautifying and improving the pleasure drives near Asheville. Not one dollar of the fund raised by initiation fees, dues and subscriptions to the general fund have been used on the drives. The money contributed to the general fund is for agitating the subject of good roads and educating the people on the subject. We have built five miles of road so far. In each township similar to the parent organization. We stand ready to help by literature, and, if necessary, contribute our own personal efforts. We want three men from each township to act as a committee to perfect an organization there.

"This meeting is not to discuss what section of the county shall be improved, nor what kind of roads we shall make. Let the members in each township discuss that after they have organized. When the organization throughout the county is complete, a big meeting will be held to decide these matters.

"This is no trifling matter. It means the upbuilding of the county. Asheville is now paying over 60 per cent. of the taxation of the county, and her citizens will heartily aid, both with their time and money in this great project. This is not for good roads in Asheville, but for the county entirely. Not one dollar will be used in Asheville."

Captain J. R. DuBose then moved that they appoint three men from each township to act as committeemen for

FORMAL INQUIRY

To Establish Responsibility for Grounding of the Paris.

Treasury Department Has Notified the Owners Who Will Co-operate.

Canadian-American Boundary Negotiations at a Stand-still.

The Dominion Objects to Every Proposition, and It is Felt That She Is Acting in bad Faith.

Washington, May 27.—The treasury department has decided to make a formal inquiry to establish the responsibility for the grounding of the steamship Paris. Notification to that effect has been sent to the agents of the company, and a reply has been received offering their co-operation. The treasury department will not send an agent to the scene but will take the evidence of persons whose testimony may be of value when they return to the United States.

President McKinley and cabinet will attend the Memorial day exercises at Arlington under the direction of the G. A. R.

Although denied in government and diplomatic circles that there had been any break in the Canadian-American boundary negotiations, the admission is frankly made that nothing is being done to bring the contending parties nearer an agreement. There appears to be no doubt Canada is the cause of the embarrassment. She made objection to every proposition and attempt on the part of the United States to get a statement from the Dominion of what she will accept. The feeling here is that the United States has good cause to believe that Canada is acting in bad faith.

Although the negotiations are necessarily conducted between Washington and London, England has not acted in any instance without first securing the views of Canada, which are followed in every instance.

The latest proposition was that the Alaskan boundary question should be submitted to arbitration. Canada was favorable to this, but insisted that the arbitrators should also consider the claim of the Dominion government to a port on the Alaskan coast. The United States refused to consent to this, although expressing a willingness to arbitrate the question of the boundary. Since then no proposition has been advanced.

UNITED STATES WILL URGE ARBITRATION.

At The Hague on All Questions Which May Cause War.

Washington, May 27.—Officials at Washington believe the plan of arbitration that will be submitted to the peace conference at The Hague, will be the plan outlined on the instructions given the delegates by the state department. It was learned today that the United States, through its representatives, will urge that rules be adopted binding all nations to submit to an international tribunal, all questions which may cause war.
