On last Friday Mr. F.O. Cox, of Winterville, was digging a well in his yard. When the diggers had reached a depth of seventeen feet, and just as they were getting through a deposit of marl and reaching, the sand beneath, they found several chips, hat looked like they might have been buried centuries ago. The chips were in perfect shape, almost black in color, and bore well defined prints of the cutter axe. If they could be traced back these chips would doubtless be found to belong to some pre-historic age. The chips have been furned over to the Reflector and after being kept at the office a few days will be sent to the state museum.-Greenville Reflector.

Saturday afternoon the Norfolk and Southern passenger train, when within one mile of Elizabeth City, N. C., dashed into a buggy, in which three boys were seated, killing all three, as well as the horse, and demolishing the buggy. The victims of the tragedy were Henry and William Mann, aged respectively fourteen and ten years, sons of William Mann and Charles Baker, aged fourteen, son of Richard Baker. Physicians were hurried to the scene of the tragedy from Elizabeth City, but arrived too late. The Mann boys were killed instantly, and the Beker boy, who was also struck, only lived one minute. Richard Mann, the elder son of William Mann, was killed in a shingle mill about ten months ago. No blame attaches to the trainmen.
