About two hundred people enjoyed the concert by the First Regiment band, and the dance at Lookout Park last evening. A meeting of northern settlers will be held Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the office of Maj. H. C. Hunt, to make arrangements for the northern settlers' convention which will be held in the city within the next few weeks. Stylish invitations were received yesterday from E. P. McKissick, proprietor of the Battery Park Hotel, at Asheville, to his fourteenth annual german. This will doubtless be the swell affair of the season for Asheville, if not the state.—

Charlotte Observer.

The trolley wire broke on the Charlotte street line of the Asheville street rallway lime yesterday evening. The wire flew clear in front of the car amd nearly hit the motorman. The car ran over the wire and cut it in two. Cars on the line were delayed some time.

United States Court Clerk Moore, has received a letter from Judge Simonton saying he would not come to Asheville at this time as the lawyers had asked a postponement of the cases arranged for hearing. Judge Simonton will not here before the middle of next month.

A motion will be made by the Supreme Lodge, K. of P., through its legal representative, Julius C. Martin, for a removal to the United States court of the suit for damages which has been brought against the lodge by Mrs. Hillhard. The motion will probably be argued today by Mr. Martin in the superior court.

The case against Rev. J. W. Lee reof his church, who were on the commit-tee appointed to investigate the charges in quality and price. of immorality against him, are sick. and a complete examination into the matter has been delayed. In the meantime Mr. Lee is in Washington, and though his friends here have had no communication with him, they suppose he is still trying to obtain an appointment as chaplain in the United States army.-Greensboro correspondent Charlotte Observer.

COLLECTOR HARKINS.

H. S. Harkins and others have brought suit in the Superior court for $10,000 damages against the Asheville Electric company. The action was taken because of alleged damage done 'Valley Home," Mr. Harkin's country home place on Hominy, by the damming of Hominy creek by the pany. In the complaint it is leged that 30 acres of valuable land have been submerged by the pany's dam; that the damage done the mill on the place will amount to $1,500; that a well of good, pure water has been polluted, and that the body water is a public nuisance. The plaintiff is represented by Moore & Moore, Judge Shuford and others.

CENTURY RUN.

Made by Two Asheville Boys Sunday in About Seven Hours. Harry Miller and Vance Guest made their contemplated century run last Sunday. Several other boys had intended to go, but changed their minds. They left Asheville at 6:30 a. m. and rode to Brevard first. Miller's chain gave way, delaying them two hours. From Brevard they went to Sapphire, where they spent an hour. They returned to Brevard and then to Hendernet weight sealed cans, thereby retain-ing its natural, delicious flavor. Take ro remained two hours. They went to Mill's river and then returned to Asheville, arriving here at 10 o'clock. Miller's chain gave out two more times on the trip, delaying them an hour each time. The boys were both worn out with their long ride, which measures 102 miles.
