Dreyfus' conviction. It was admirably planned and perfectly carried out. It only failed because the assassin did not know how difficult, it was to kill a man with a pistol, particularly if you propose to save yourself. Some other move of the same character is confidently expected. Great forces are in action; individual lives do not count. No one here yet knows what a plot the government has discovered. Even those who could tell do not yet know how far the plot reaches. It is a significant fact, however, that the government announced today that future arrests would be made on the charge of rebellion instead of riot, and the difference between rebels and prisoners of

PREACHER'S SENTENCE COMMUTED.

Columbia, S. C., Aug. 23 .- Governor McSweeney has commuted the sentence of A. R. Fowler to service on the chain gang, instead of imprisonment in the state penitentiary. There was a numerously signed petition asking for the change of sentence. Fowler is a white man, who was convicted of forgery in Greenville county. His case altracted considerable attention on account of his being one-armed and his ministerial work.

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. #23.-Colonel Bryan will spend much of his time in eastern Kentucky when he makes his speeches in behalf of Senator Goebel. An old-fashioned barbecue will be given. The place of this meeting has not been settled as yet, but it will be in the heart of the mountains near the scene of the recent feud. In the central and southern parts of the state Bryan will tour with the Goebel numinees on a special train.

Innumerable cases of sickness are reported, many Americans are said to be prisoners in the hands of the Tagals, but they are well treated, and the same is true of the Spanish prisoners, except the monks. It is also stated that the guns and cartridges used by the army of Aguinaldo are supplied by American houses operating through Chinese ports.

It is generally believed in Madrid that the vatican is in close relations with Aguinaldo.
