Major William H. Harvey, chief of transportation for the Confederate States government, died in New Bern on Monday. The Journal says that his executive ability was so marked as to bring high praise from Jefferson Davis and all the Confederate generals with whom he came in contact and whose forces he moved by railroad.

It is reported that the town of Portsmouth, not far from Hatteras and Ocracoke, is to be abandoned by its residents, who will purchase land near Beaufort, on Bogue sound. The great August storm has so destroyed the beach at Portsmouth that now the tide rises and falls around the doorsteps of the houses. Many of the latter are damaged.

We are told that a certain farmer in this county who, with the aid of his wife, cultivated a two-horse farm, resorted to an unusual method of taking care of the baby while the mother was helping in the field. He prepared a box for the baby, fastening it to his plow, so when the father was plowing and the mother hoeing the baby was riding.—Monroe Journal.

A. S. Emerson of Baltimore has leased the Kinsey talc mill and mines near town. H. S. Brittain has charge of the mining, beginning work yesterday. It is reported that the Virginia Iron, Coke and Coal company has recently leased several iron properties on Valley river, in addition to the Kinsey property at Tomolia, which they are already working.—Murphy Scout.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is a scientific compound having the endorsement of eminent physicians and the medical press. It "digests what you eat" and positively cures dyspepsia. M. A. Ketter, Bloomington, Tenn., says it cured him of indigestion of ten years' standing. For sale by the Paragon Pharmacy.

erns as to crops, up to September 1. Messrs. Graham and Douth, the clerks who are doing the work, say that the reports from the east show far greater damage to crops by the storm than is popularly supposed. In two or three counties the loss to the cotton crop is reported to be 40 per cent.

A petition from over 300 citizens was laid before the county commissioners Monday, asking them to call an election for the citizens within a certain boundary to vote on the question of "stock law" or "no stock law." A counter petition of less than 200 was also filed. The board, being satisfied that a sufficient number had asked for the election, ordered an election to be held on Thursday, the 5th day of October, 1899.—Franklin Press.

It was announced in Thursday's Knoxville papers that the Seaboard Air Line had purchased the Atlanta, Knoxville and Northern railway and that official notification would be made in a few days. If the A. K. & N. is to pass from under its present able management we trust the Seaboard people will get it. With the Southern and Seaboard here, and the strong possibility of the Missing Link railroad striking us in the near future, the outlook is most flattering for our town. Still, if the latter road comes this way, some encouragement must be given it. Our business men should not sleep over their rights.—Murphy Scout.

A Reidsville correspondent of the Charlotte Observer says: Reidsville is rapidly completing her water system, and the prospect is that we shall have the most complete system in the state, the size of the place considered. The water is absolutely pure and, coming from an underground source, will scarcely ever be muddy. The tank will be 125 feet high and will contain 75,000 gallons, while the steam pumps will deliver a million gallons per day. The authorities have decided to move the electric light station to the pump house and to add an incandescent system. For this purpose two new dynamos have been purchased; also, two additional engines.

For wounds, burns, scalds, sores, skin diseases and all irritating eruptions nothing so soothing and healing as Dr. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Mrs. Emma Bolles, Matron Englewood Nursery, Chicago, says of it: "When all else fails in healing our babies, it will cure." For sale by the Paragon Pharmacy.

An Instructive Pronoun. The ritual of society, as women make it, is very exacting the world over, even in almshouses. The London Outlook reports a serious trouble among a set of workhouse officials.

The infirmary nurses, three in number, had demanded a separate sitting room and the delight of Sunday dinner therein, and the motion had sought to humiliate them by sending the cook to enjoy her Sunday dinner in their company. The brawny cook described what occurred as follows:

"Well, Nurse Blank, she come down and got inside the door. 'Four covers?' she says. 'Four?' 'Who's the fourth?' 'Me,' says I. 'You!' she says, and with that she tosses her head and walks away."

Here cook drew a long breath, then continued, "If it hadn't 'a' been Sunday, gentlemen, I should have let her have it for calling me 'you!'"

There's always hope while there's One Minute Cough Cure. "An attack of pneumonia left my lungs in bad shape and I was near the first stages of consumption. One Minute Cough Cure completely cured me," writes Helen McHenry, Bismark, N. D. Gives instant relief. For sale by the Paragon Pharmacy.

A Conscientious Forger.

The following incident is told of Austin Bidwell, the notorious forger, who many years ago attempted to break the bank of England:

When he was arrested, he remembered that, being short of money at the time, he had procured lunch on credit at a London restaurant, and wrote to an acquaintance whom he had befriended to settle the score. This was duly done, and Bidwell was apprised of the fact. Then the forger recollected that he had forgotten to tip the waiter threepence, as usual, and he forwarded three postage stamps to the restaurant keeper for Robert's benefit. Bidwell's missive to the landlord, framed, was long on view in the bar of the restaurant.

Sorry He Spoke.

The driver of a prison van was hailed by a woman who was: "Got any room inside, Robert?" "There's room for one," replied the driver; "we kept it for you."

Not entirely disconcerted, the would be wag had another shot.

"What's your fare?" he asked.

"Bread and water—same as you had before," said the driver.—London Fun.

"They are simply perfect," writes Robt. Moore, of La Fayette, Ind., of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the "famous little pills" for constipation and all liver ailments. Never gripe. For sale at the Paragon Pharmacy.

A man is never fully conquered until his wife has succeeded in making him say before company that he likes to push the baby wagon.—New York Press.

HEADACHE

"Both my wife and myself have been using CASCARETS and they are the best medicine we have ever had in the house. Last week my wife was afflicted with headache for two days, she tried some of your CASCARETS, and they relieved the pain in her head almost immediately. We both recommend Cascarets."
