THERE IS NO ARTICLE OF DIET
to which more judgment should be given than the selection of Coffee.

It means more than a habitual drink. Our climate necessitates drinking Coffee as an exhilarant. But like other commodities the GOOD and BAD exist and the painstaking lady of the household must be keen and avoid the flaring promises THAT THIS KIND OR THAT KIND is as good as the delicious Monogram Java and Mocha.

TAKE NO SUBSTITUTE. MONOGRAM HAS A DELIGHTFUL FLAVOR, PERFECTLY HEALTHY, OF FULL STRENGTH AND VERY ECONOMICAL.

Every can warranted to give universal satisfaction or money cheerfully refunded. All first class grocers sell and recommend Monogram.

We hope she is somewhat better this morning, although she has taken no nourishment for seven days. I am sure I have the prayers of all in this ordeal."—Charlotte Observer.

MORE WEDDING BELLS.

Miss Wells and Mr. Brown to be Married This Winter.

The following invitations have been issued:
Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Wells request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Allie Maye,

to Mr. Camie N. Brown, on Thursday, October twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, at twelve o'clock, noon, Masco, N. C.

The bride to be is a daughter of ex-County Commissioner Frank Wells. She was at one time a student at the Asheville Female college and has a number of friends in the city.

Mr. Brown is well known in social and business circles. He is a son of ex-County Chairman T. C. Brown, and at present proprietor of the Palace livery stables.

NEW NIGHT WATCHMAN.

Ex-Policeman Wilson Takes the Position Held by J. F. Sims.

Ex-Policeman Thomas E. Wilson has taken the position of night watchman, formerly held by J. F. Sims, and began his duties last night. The route is over Patton avenue and South Main street, and the watchman's duties include trying all the doors of the business places during the night. Mr. Wilson served on the police force three years, but his connection with the force was severed last year when the political headman's axe fell upon the advent of the new board of aldermen. Wilson has since been a deputy sheriff, and has made a careful officer. It is admitted by everyone that his courage is unlimited.

No complaints have ever been entered against Watchman Sims, who has occupied the position three years, and caught several thieves, and prevented a number of robberies. He takes a position as inside night watchman in the Paris Medicine company's laboratory on South Main street.

HARVEST SEASON FOR ADVERTISERS.

All seasons are good seasons for advertisers to use the columns of the newspapers, though some seasons are better than others. It is the general opinion of men of wide experience that the autumn months are apt to bring the greatest returns.

That the fall should be the best season is not at all surprising, for the needs of the individual man and woman alike are more pressing as cold weather approaches. The advertiser who keeps himself and his goods before the people at this time is the one who will most certainly fill his exchequer. There is a vast amount of money in circulation. Times are good, with labor well employed and at remunerative prices. In consequence, more money will be spent this fall than for many years past. But the spender keeps his eyes open for bargains, as always, and depend very largely upon the daily papers as to where the bargains are to be had. The advertising columns of the Gazette have a peculiar fascination for all classes at this time. With the women folk they are scanned with as much interest as the news columns. Verbum sap.
