The peculiar simplicity of the French peasant is illustrated by two incidents. A peasant went to his postoffice and of-"This is too heavy," said the postmaster. "You will have to put another "Wh-wh-why," said the peasant, with wide open eyes, "w-w-will another stamp make it lighter?" Another peasant, presiding over the municipal council of his village, gave the assembly a lecture on the lack of necessity for any more road building. "As for the roads which are now bad," he said, "it is of no use to repair them,

Perhaps the youngest engineer in the Union is King McEntire of Green Hill, who fires and runs the engine while his father manages the saw and shingle mills. King is not yet seven years old and does his work well. His brother, aged nine years, bales the shing'es, doing a man's work neatly and expeditiously.-Rutherfordton Vindicator.

The two little Waldensian boys who strayed away from home at Valdese, Burke county, last August, have been located in South Carolina, where a kind-hearted farmer has taken charge of them and has become so attached to the little fellows that he does not want to give them up. He writes to the father that the larger boy is at school and that both are well and happy, and it is probable that he will be allowed to keep them for the present.-Statesville Landmark.

At Tarboro Wednesday night Mr. John A. Waddell shot and killed Hamp Banks, a half-witted colored boy who had gone to Mr. Waddell's house to deliver a note. Banks, insted of going to the door, went to a window and was trying to make his entrance through it. His efforts aroused Mr. Waddell, who asked who was there and what was wanted. The negro made no answer, but thrust his head into the room through a pane of broken glass. At this Mr. Waddell seized a pistol and fired several shots. The negro was killed instantly.-Statesville Landmark.

Mr. H. U. Davis a farmer who lives about four miles north of Mooresville, has discovered a very rich vein of iron ore on his place. He sent a specimen to Raleigh and had it examined and tested by State Chemist Kilgore. He pronounces it meallic ore, 66.94 per cent. The vein is about one hundred yards in width and extends nearly north and N south. Some of the rock on the branch that runs across the vein are almost solid iron. This property is within a few hundred yards of the Mocksville-Mooresville railroad.—Charlotte Ob-

This state is to be well represented at the Paris exposition. Most of the expense of the exhibit will be borne by the United States, which assigns space to the state. But, as an earnest of its zeal in the matter, the board of agriculture today apportioned $2,500 to supplement the United States government appropriation and to have the state thoroughly represented. It is the expectation that there will be a fine display. T. K. Bruner, the board's 10 secretary, will gather the collection. He will go to western North Carolina in a few days, as the United States government's agent, to complete its collection of apples. - Raleigh Cor. Charlotte Observer.

President McIver furnishes the following interesting statistics: Of the first 426 students enrolled at the State Normal and Industrial college 142 are members of the Methodist Episcopal church, 122 of the Presbyterian church, 39 of the Episcopal church, 14 of the Christian church, 11 of the Protestant Methodist church, 5 of the Lutheran church; 1 is a member of the Friends church, 1 of the German Reformed church, 1 of the Advent church, 1 of the Jewish church; 391 total membership. Of the 35 non-church members 2 prefer the Friends' church, 6 the Presbyterian, 11 the Baptist and 16 the Methodist .-Greensboro Patriot.

There are now no colored troops in North Carolina. There was one company at Charlotte, but when it was mustered out of the regular army at the close of the Spanish-American war it was not reinstated in the state guard. This was done in conformity to the following, from an act passed by the last If you go into a barber shop and find | legislature entitled, "An Act to establish and provide for the militia and for state guard." Section 1. That Section A Holton (Kan.) barber advertises that | 2 be amended to read as follows: That the white and colored militia shall be separately enrolled, but shall never be compelled to serve in the same organization; provided, that no organization of colored troops shall be permitted while white troops are available, and that, when permitted to be organized, colored troops shall be under the command of white officers." This clearly shuts out any colored companies from the state guard.

CASTORIA. The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature

He Protected the Clerk.

A typical story of Lord Curzon is the following: A government clerk in India on a visit to his home overstaid his leave a day or two and was dismissed by the head of his department. As the man had over 20 years' service he appealed to the viceroy, and in due course the head was asked to explain. He gave the reason for the dismissal as general incompetence. The viceroy ordered the clerk to be reinstated and wrote across the report that in his opinion the incompetence lay with the man who took 20 years to discover such a shortcoming in his clerk.
