Partridges Pletiful - Where Good Shooting May Be Had

Special dispatch to the Baltimore Sun. Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 24.—The shooting season in this State will begin November 1. It is safe to say that not in many years have there been more partridges. It as feared by many persons them. The birds are in all parts of the State east of the Blue Ridge and extending to the tier of counties bordering the sounds. From Danville to Greensboro, thence as far west as Morganton and eastward to Goldsboro here are birds in abundance. Granville county offers good sport, and so does Person

The Legislature, at its last session, enacted a law for a number of counties, requiring hunters to have the written permission of the landowners when when huning on the lasters' lands. This was aimed at "pot hunters." In parts of the State, mainly in the High point and Hickory sections, Northern sportsmen, to a very large extent, pay the taxes on the lands and have all the privileges. East of Guilford county this is not done. The large landowners make things particularly pleasant for sports-

Sportsmen from the Baltimore section will find good shooting in Randolph county. It is evident that the plan of securing hunting rights by paying the comparatively trifling taxes on lands will be widely extended.

HALLOWEEN RECEPTION

A reception was given by "Sister El la," on "Hallowe'en," which proved a grand success. This estimable lady opened her dolors to the entire community and greeted her guests with a welcome that is characteristic of a "Sister." The decorations consisted of chrysanthemums, pinks, roses and evergreens, which were lovely, profuse and artistically arranged. By 8 o'clock about one hundred guests rad arrived to participate in the evening's pleasure. The programme consisted of music, (vocal and instrumental) recitations, etc. At a seasonable hour refrshments were served by the genial hostess.

"Sister Ella" gave this reception for a twofold purpose—as an evening of recreaion and pleasure, and to further her acquaintance with the people of the surrounding country, as she is here as a "free" educator, so that the rich and poor children alike may have the benefit of a school. This commendable charity should have the undivided cooperation of every one in this community. The school was opened on All Saints' day and about 35 children were enrollled. "HANS." Old Fort, N. C., Nov. 2 '99.
