Mrs. Emilio Aguinaldo, wife of the be vaccinated who may not be able by Philippine general, is about 45 years reason of poverty to pay therefor, and old, being her husband's senior by several years. She dresses in the graceful, semi-tight fitting costume of her country, and wears her heavy, black hair in collecting beautiful seashells, of which she has many rare specimens.

TO BE PREPARED

For war is the surest way for this nation to maintain peace. That is the opinion of the wisest statesmen. It is equally true that to be prepared for spring is the tudes are learning, and at this time, when the blood is sure to be loaded with impurities and to be weak and sluggish, the millions begin to take Hood's Sarsagerms, cheates a good appetite, gives system in a healthy condition, preventing pneumonda, fevers, and other dangerous diseases which are liable to attack a weakened system.

The prospects for a large fruit crop in North Carolina this year are considered good. Farmers and fruit growers express this opinion. The recent cold spell, they say, has good effect upon the orchards and has practically insured a full crop of fruit.

Mrs. J. M. Rosenblatt, of Greensboro, died Wednesday morning. Last Friday morning she left her room an hour or two before daylight and wandered off while asleep. The exposure brought on pneumonia, which caused her death. She was 28 years old and leaves a husband and four children.

The North Carolina Methodist Episcopal conference has subscribed $4,067 for the "twentieth century fund," for the prosecution of Christian education. Subscribers have a right to direct the use of the fund they contribute. It is directed that Trinity college shall have $3,232 for its loan fund, Vanderbilt university $475, Little Female college $50, education in Cuba $50, and $260 the trustees will apply, as there is no direction as to its use.

The trustees of the university met in Raleigh Wednesday and directed the president and faculty to make arrangements for a continuous session of the university, the year being divided into four sessions, as is now done at the University of Chicago and the University of West Virginia. The regular college year will continue as it is, but after the June commencement college lectures will continue until September. Water works are also to be put in at the university at once.

Last Thursday evening two brothers, Bird and George Dowdle were digging a grave on Lotta in which the day bea grave on Lotla in which to bury Mr fore. They were working with their backs turned toward each other when Bird in drawing back his mattack stuck George on the head with the axe part of it, chipping up a portion of the skull about the size of a silver dollar. He fell and was apparently dead for several minutes but finally revived. Drs. Lyle and Rogers were called and dressed his wound, and he bids fair to recover .- Franklin Press.

The North Carolina synod of the Evangelical Lutheran church met at Salisbury Tuesday to consider the question of the possible removal of North Carolina college, now located at Mt. Pleasant. Salisbury presented a bid of $10,000 and a site of sixteen acres. Lenoir college, at Hickory, presented an overture contemplating a union of the two colleges at Hickory, through a committee of the Tennessee Lutheran synod. The Mount Pleasant people, through a committee, offered a protest against the idea of removal, and it was finally decided that the colege should remain at Mt. Pleasant.

It is stated by committeemen that the date of the unveiling of the Vance statue cannot be decided until the committee gets to Washington and has definite news from Artist Ellicott. About March 1 is the time now fixed for the visit to Washington. Some persons favor May 10 as the date of the unveiling, for the reason that it falls in the middle of the week, while May 20 will be Monday, and it is objected that a good many people might be unwilling to travel Sunday to get to Raleigh. But it is admitted that May 20, the state's chief holiday, is the most ap-

A NIGHT OF TERROR. "Awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she would die from Pneumonia before morning" writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who at tended her that fearful night, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery which had more than once saved her life, and cured her of Consumption. After taking, she slept all nigth. Further use entirely cured her." This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all Throat, Chest and Lung Diseases. Only 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at all druggists.

Senator Beveridge has decided to make but one more speech in the senate at this session, and has consented to deliver one address at a social gathering, and this is to end his speech-making for this year. He has declined dozens o pressing invitations to talk before all sorts of clubs, societies and political organizations. Last week some of the leading bishops of the Methodist church of which Senator Beveridge is a member endeavored to persulade him to deliver a speech at a big banquet, to be given by them last Monday in Washington. The senator firmly declined.
