GOVERNOR GENERAL DAVIS TEL-EGRAPHS WAR DEPARTMENT THAT THE CIVIL DISORDER IS BEYOND CONTROL OF THE MU-NICIPAL ... THURITIES

"San Juan, April 9.-Civil disorder here beyond control of municipal police, thereby forcing the use of troops to preserve order. Have placed an officer of the army in charge of the police of San Juan. The trouble has been principally caused by the assaults of natives upon resident negroes from neighboring islands. One native and one British subject have been killed." The trouble, which began last week and has been growing more threatening daily, is the outcome of the pier labor ers' strike. The English islanders are charged with attempting to crowd out the Porto Rican workmen. The wrath of the rioters has been directed especially toward English speaking negroes wherever they find them in the city Martial law to a limited extent has been in force in San Juan since last Fri- Tells Senator Pritchard He Will At day, but not till yesterday did the mili tary take full charge of the police super-

One Turns States Evidence But Does n't Tell Much.

Columbia, S. C., April 8.-John Harvey, Ben Jackson and Tom Steen, arrested three weeks ago for murdering in the directorates of competing lines Cassie Boan, whom they had assaulted, setting her on fire in the woods after having cut half a dozen slashes from four to twelve inches long in her body. John and Harvey Jackson were put on trial today and the court room was packed. Tom Steen turned state's evidence, but on cross-examina...on he admitted that he had done so at the suggestion of the two men on trial. He did not tell much that was injurious. Several witnesses swore to having heard Jackson make threats against the girl. Harvey Jackson had tried to get up a crowd to whip her. Testimony as to finding the girl in the woods with her body blistered and bleeding was given by A. A. Kirkley. All the testimony will not be in before late this evening.

Mr. Baily, of Kansas, followed with comments on the recent course of political events, including some amusing observations of his impressions as a member of the house.

ANOTHER RICE OF WAT

Mr. Bell, of Colorado, in the course of a general political speech, declared that no president has come so close to working the American government as McKinley. Property interests, he said, have been allowed to run riot, and that he had become tired of the prating about patriotism. The object of it all was for the benefit of special interests, not for the people as a whole. Without the use of money and the influence of great corporations. of great corporations, he said the administration could not succeed itself.

Mr. Gaines, or Tennessee discussed the Porto Rican question, At the opening of the house Mr. Wilson of Idaho called up the resolution asking for information regarding the forest resources belonging to land grant railroads and other corporations.
