The First Regiment band appeared in all its glory at the opera house Monday evening and gave our people the benefit of one of the most pleasing and highly enjoyable concerts ever witnessed in this city. The boys are exceedingly clever and pleased the audience immensely. If they should decide to repeat the visit a larger house would be in evidence, we are sure. Every one present Monday evening was delighted and a large number on the outside also received the benefits—free. Hence the vacant seats within.—Hendersonville Hustler.
