THE GOEBEL MURDER TRIAL

Georgetown, Ky., July 12.—In the Powers trial this morning the defense asked that the orders of yesterday show that six temporarily accepted jurors were sworn to try the case. Judge Cantrill ordered the request, but refused to permit the names of the six jurors to appear in the order. The swearing of the jurors before the full jury is selected will likely be urged as error in case of appeal. The special venire of 100 men is here today and the making up of the jury has been resumed.

CANDIDATES NOTIFIED

President Told of His Renomination in Presence of a Throng of People.

Senator Lodge Delivers Notification Speech.

Ceremonies at the Home of Mr. McKinley in Canton.

Governor Roosevelt Notified at Oyster Bay, L. I.

SENATOR WOLCOTT DELIVERS THE ADDRESS—MANY DISTINGUISHED NEW YORKERS ATTEND THE CEREMONIES AT ROOSEVELT'S COUNTRY HOME.

Canton, Ohio, July 12.—The severe storm of last night was succeeded today by real "McKinley" weather. The day dawned bright and clear with a crisp breeze and a warm sun dispelling all evidences of last night's severe storm. At the McKinley residence the effects of the storm were apparent in the disarrangement of the flag decorations and the big luncheon tent, but these were soon straightened up and everything was in readiness for the ceremonies at the appointed time. The second notification of William McKinley that he had been selected as the nominee of the republican party for president was made at the same place as the first and all the accessories were similar to the occasion of four years ago. Then the chairman of the committee was Senator John M. Thurston, of Nebraska, who had been permanent chairman of the convention. Today Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, stood upon the same porch, and in the presence of a vast multitude, officially notified President McKinley that he was the unanimous choice of the republican national convention for president. The speech of Senator Lodge and the response of President McKinley were intended to be more than formal, and to a certain extent formed the basis upon which the campaign is to be fought this year. Their utterances were listened to with the closest attention by the many prominent Americans who were present. Chairman Lodge and the members of the notification committee, together with Chairman Hanna and members of the national committee, arrived on a special train from Cleveland at 11 a. m. They were met at the station by the citizens' committee in charge of the arrangements, with a band of music and escorted to the home of President McKinley. Several flags had been flung to the breeze in the early morning and the streets through which the procession moved had some indications of a celebration. The various organizations and clubs as they arrived marched to the president's home and were grouped about the place within seeing and hearing distance of the ceremonies.

Some time before the arrival of the notification committee President McKinley went into the yard and inspected and approved the arrangements. A large space in the front yard was roped off and filled with chairs for the notification party and distinguished guests. Tables were also provided for the press. Outside the roped space numerous photographic outfits were set up and trained on the point where the speaking was to take place. Five minutes after 11 o'clock the booming of guns announced the arrival of the committee at the station. They immediately entered carriages and, with the Canton escort, proceeded to the president's house. By the time they had arrived a large crowd had collected and they were received with cheers. Senator Lodge and Senator Hanna were in the lead of the party. Both entered the house and had a few moments' chat with the president and then returned to the porch. A few moments later the president, with Mrs. McKinley on his arm, came upon the porch. Their appearance was the signal for general cheering. A number of distinguished men occupied seats on the porch among them being Senator Hanna, Postmaster General Smith, Cornelius N. Bliss, Henry C. Payne, Judge Day, R. C. Kerens, Representative Taylor. With Mrs. McKinley were Mrs. Barber, Mrs. Mary Saxton, Mrs. Judge Day and Mrs. Charles Dawes.

Senator Lodge immediately mounted a small standing block and delivered his speech. The senator's remarks were frequently interrupted with applause. When Senator Lodge closed President McKinley mounted the stand and the vast concourse of people cheered heartily. It was some moments before the president could proceed. He had a manuscript in his hand, but referred to it only at long intervals. When he mentioned the "new peoples under our care" there was a hearty burst of applause. The audience appreciated the deft turn which Mr. McKinley gave to imperialism and cheered most heartily. When the president closed there were loud calls for Hanna, but Col. Grant, chairman of the local committee, introduced Senator Fairbanks, of Indiana, who, in a brief address, declared McKinley would be re-elected and pledged the vote of Indiana, for McKinley. In response to renewed calls for Hanna the senator appeared and said the republican party of Ohio and the United States expected every man to do his duty and to do it earnestly. Hanna caused a laugh when he said the republican party at Philadelphia had done its duty and "McKinley had concluded to accept" and "the party must do the rest."

Mr. Hanna was followed by Charles Emory Smith, postmaster general, who said it was evident that this gathering was entirely satisfied with their candidate and their national chairman. He went on to say that four years ago the battle lines were drawn as they were today. He spoke sarcastically of the Kansas City platform, charging it with being full of inconsistencies. He concluded with a high tribute to President McKinley. Senator Lodge was recalled and paid a glowing tribute to President McKinley, saying he resented unjust criticisms of the president during a trying time when he was doing his full duty. He referred to Bryan as the nominee of "mailed tickets" and said there was no possibility of Bryan forming a cabinet and named the leaders of the several conventions as material from which selections would have to be made. Col. Samuel Parker, of Hawaii, explained how politics were run in the Pacific islands. He said he was not a speaker but a rancher or a cowboy. He supposed one reason Roosevelt was so popular was because he was a cowboy. This was the first mention of Roosevelt's name and it created applause. He said they had a democratic party in Hawaii also an ice trust. They were glad to be admitted as a state. He had some colleagues who wanted to come back here where senators were elected. He said he had heard a great deal about imperialism, but when he came to Canton yesterday he was admitted without waiting about. He was a cabinet officer of the late Queen Liliuokalani in Hawaii and one would have to wait a week to see her. He was glad that kind of imperialism was over in Hawaii. This closed the speechmaking and the notification party went to luncheon.

ROOSEVELT'S NOTIFICATION.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 12.—Governor Roosevelt was today officially notified of his nomination for the vice presidency at his county home, Sagamore, near Oyster Bay. The notification committee appointed by the republican convention at Philadelphia left New York on a special train at 10:30 o'clock and made a quick run to Oyster Bay where carriages were in waiting to convey them to Sagamore. There were a number of the members of the notification committee not present. A number of invited guests accompanied the party, most of them prominent New Yorkers. Members of the notification committee present were: Senator Wolcott, of Colorado; the chairman, J. B. Thompson, Colorado; A. J. Slosser, Connecticut; Alvin D. Conner, Delaware; C. S. Hernley, Indiana; J. J. Marsh, Iowa; J. T. Bradley, Kansas; Albert Pierce, Maine; Alex. Taverly, Nebraska; Albert Wallace, New Hampshire; F. V. Greene, New York; C. T. Rollins, North Carolina; G. C. Rawlins, Ohio; J. Murdock, Pennsylvania; L. B. Darling, Rhode Island; Emil Branch, South Dakota; C. R. Smithers, Virginia; James Reynolds, Wisconsin; John E. Jones, District of Columbia; W. L. McWilliams, Indian Territory; John S. Long, Florida; O. C. Strong, Oklahoma. It was noon when the party arrived at its destination. Governor Roosevelt received them on the wide vine-covered porch of Sagamore and grasped the hand of each gentleman as he alighted and then presented each to Mrs. Roosevelt, who stood on the veranda behind

IS SIMMONS RESPONSIBLE

It is by His Orders Cherokee Indian Citizens are Refused Registration.

The Inquiry Made by Congressman Pearson.

Steps Taken for Arrest of Swain and Jackson Registrars.

Under Section 55:10 of United States Revised Statutes.

A REGISTRAR'S INTIMATION THAT HE IS ACTING UNDER THE AUTHORITY OF THE DEMOCRATIC EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The following telegram was sent by Congressman Richmond Pearson to Democratic Chairman F. M. Simmons yesterday:

Asheville, N. C., July 12, 1900.

Hon. F. M. Simmons, Chairman, etc., Raleigh:
Registers in Swain county refuse to register any and all Indians and declare they are acting under orders from their superiors. County election board in Swain deny giving such orders. I beg to know whether you have issued such orders or instructions and whether it be true that you have heretofore expressed the opinion that the Cherokee Indians have the right to vote. Section 12 of the election law specifically provides for the registration of Indians in separate column. Before proceeding under section 55:10, revised statutes United States, I desire to fix responsibility upon the real person who causes these citizens to be deprived of rights guaranteed by the constitution and explicitly recognized by the supreme court of the United States; by the present legislature in Cannon vs. Franks and by existing election law, section 12. Answer by wire today and oblige
RICHMOND PEARSON.

Mr. Pearson was notified by telegram later in the day that Mr. Simmons was at Winston, and the above despatch was sent to him there. As no reply was received from the democratic chairman attorneys were sent to Swain and Jackson counties with instructions to cause the arrest of the registrars refusing to register Cherokee Indian citizens. These registrars claim to be acting under orders, and as the above despatch indicates these orders do not come from the county election boards. It is therefore assumed that they come from a still higher "authority." That this authority is no less than Chairman Simmons himself the following despatch would seem definitely to indicate:

Dillsboro, N. C., July 12, 1900.

Hon. Richmond Pearson, Asheville, N. C.:
Ransal Hyatt, registrar at Qualla, says he has registered no Indians, but if state committee refuses to stand by him he will commence next Monday. (Signed) R. S. JARRETT.

This despatch also indicates that at least one of these registrars does not propose to play Cassabianca, and stick by the burning ship when all but him had fled, but if his "higher authority" is not willing to bear its share of the punishment he will defend his own safety.

The penalty for violation of section 55:10 of the revised statutes is $1,000 fine and one year imprisonment, either or both. The instigators of the offense are as guilty and as liable as the offending registrars.

A BOER VICTORY.

Nitral's Nek Captured by the Burghers—Many British Made Prisoners.

London, July 12.—The war office has the following from Roberts:

"Pretoria, July 12.—The enemy, having failed in an attempt to get around our right flank and in our rear made a determined attack on our right flank yesterday. I regret to say they succeeded in capturing Nitral's Nek, garrisoned by a squadron of Scots Greys, two guns of real horse artillery and five companies of the Lincolnshire regiment. The enemy in superior numbers attacked at dawn and seizing the hills which commanded the nek brought a heavy converging fire on the small garrison.
"Nitral's Nek was held by us in order to maintain the road and telegraphic communication with Rustenburg. I sent reinforcements from here but before they reached the spot the garrison was overpowered. Two guns and a greater portion of the Scots Greys were captured and about ninety of the Lincolnshires. The casualties, I fear, were heavy."
Roberts also reports several minor engagements.

London, July 13.—The defeat of the British at Nitral's Nek is an unpleasant check to the recently growing optimism regarding the end of the war in South Africa. Correspondents have been for days preaching the end, declaring that the capture of Dewet and Steyn was imminent. It was believed that Botha and the Transvalers were prepared to accept the inevitable as soon as the Free State's cause collapsed. Botha's operations have, however, evidently been developing over a wide area, leading to the belief that he perhaps is aiming to make good his threat to recapture Pretoria. At any rate the Boer activity promises to make considerable trouble for Roberts and their success at Nitral's Nek will doubtless give heart to the fighting burghers and lead them to prolong the struggle.

THE SILENCE UNBROKEN

Now Acknowledged That No Recent Trustworthy News, Has Come From Pekin.

Pessimism Increases in London Regarding Situation.

The Bombardment of Tien Tsin by the Chinese Continues.

International Forces Still Without a Controlling Head.

A PRIVATE LETTER FROM PEKIN

JUNE 24 TELLS OF THE IMMINENT PERIL THEN OF THE FOREIGN RESIDENTS.

London, July 13.—It is now apparently realized in Shanghai, as it certainly is here, that no authentic news has been received from Pekin since June 24. Sensational papers here print Shanghai gossip, but all of it is unconvincing and is frequently contradictory. The actual position at Tien Tsin can't be ascertained. The need of a single recognized directing hand has not apparently been met. There is no suggestion of international jealousies or disagreements, but each commander has followed his own methods, and daily conferences, though harmonious, have not resulted in any concerted line of action.

ALL HOPELESS.

New York, July 12.—A despatch from Shanghai says: A private letter from Pekin dated June 24, and received at Tien Tsin June 30, says:
"We are in danger of death. Thirty thousand troops are attacking. Only three days' food is left. No news comes of troops. If no relief comes, all seems hopeless. Mallien's store has been burnt and the Hotel de Pekin bombarded. The Italian, Dutch, American and part of the British legations have been burnt."
This confirms Sir Robert Hart's despairing message of the same date.

OMINOUS SILENCE.

Paris, July 12.—The Temps today announces that it is in a position to confirm, contrary to statements from various sources, that no European telegram has been received from Pekin since that of Sir Robert Hart (inspector of Chinese customs), despatched Sunday, June 24, declaring the situation was desperate. Continuing the Temps says: "The subsequent silence is sinister. If it is true the legations are safe they could communicate with Europe. If they cannot it is because the Chinese have juggled dates and the massacre has taken place as announced on June 30 or July 1."

GREAT JAPANESE ARMY.

Yokohama, July 12.—Though no decision has yet been announced, it is certain that Japan will send nearly 50,000 troops to China. The press agrees that the despatch of so large a force is a duty in the interest of humanity, but asserts that a large measure of responsibility for the troubles rests upon Russia and Germany, because of their arbitrary action in China.

BURN TSUNG LI YAMEN.

Washington, July 12.—A belated cablegram was received at the navy department today via Siberia. It bore no signature, but Secretary Long believes that it came from Rear Admiral Kempff. The facts set out in the cablegram appear to have already been described in a little different form in previous advices from Shanghai. The text of the message is as follows:
"Nagasaki—Secretary of the Navy, Washington: Taku, China, July 2.—A runner from Pekin reports the German
