tion by November 1. They claim that it will be the largest mill in the state. -Hickory Times-Mercury.

Mr. D. B. Coltrane tells us the work of building the new cotton mill at Landis, below China Grove, will begin soon. Another kiln of brick is to be burned and then the bricklayers will go to work. It is hoped to have the mill running in the early part of next year. -Salisbury Sun.

Some one attempted to enter the postoffice at this place Sunday night. Monday morning on arriving at the postoffice a large sledge hammer, brace, screw driver, wrench and other irons were found in the lobby. Evidence of a strong effort to enter the room in which the safe is kept was apparent. Some one broke open Virgil Swaim's shop and stole the tools found and other tools were missing .- Davie Record.

Mr. W. H. Johnston, of Davidson, is here today looking for his fourteenyear old daughter (another Miss Packard), who has left home with a man named Tilden Harrison, whom Mr. Johnston had employed on his farm. Harrison is about twenty years of age. The girl has light hair, blue eyes and a scar on her cheek. Mr. Johnston is greatly distressed over her conduct. He did not know that his daughter and the man saw each other, except as she might meet with any person employed about the place. He has no idea which way they have gone, but will do everything in his power to find them .-Charlotte News.

LANNUA ANALAN Dr. Howard M. Wilkinson, the gentleman who loved not wisely, nor well, has been sold out, lock, stock and barrel. Says a special from Dover, Del., to the New York World yesterday: "The drug store of Dr. Howard M Wilkinson, the eloping druggist, was put at constable's sale today and knocked down to R. H. Van Dyke, at- and reconstructives. It will even digest torney for the creditors, for $2,320. The all classes of food in a bottle. No other estimated value of the stock was preparation will do this. It instantly $8,000. The goods that had been sent relieves and quickly cures all stomach troubles. Dr. T. C. Smith. to Charlotte, N. C., were also sold, the purchaser 'taking chances' on getting possession of them. John D. resort. Hawkins, a warm personal friend of Wilkinson, was the buyer, and, it is presumed he will turn them over to Wilkinson when they are received. They were worth $1,000, but were bid in at $500. Wilkinson was a silent spectator of the sale. He asknowledged that he did not know where Miss Josephine Packard was, but said he ex-pected to see her soon and begin legal proceedings for her release from confinement."

One J. L. York, who formerly resided in Greensboro, has at last landed on the way to a term in the federal prison. He was arrested in Fayetteville yesterday for using the United States mails for flaudulent purposes. Being unable to furnish bail. he was placed in jail to awalt a preliminary hearing on September 12. York has resided in Fayetteville for about six months, representing himself to be a paint manufacturer desirous of establishing a large factory in that place. He inspected a number of sites and selected one upon which to build his factory. The people of Fayetteville, at first were enthusiastic over the enterprise and extended Mr. York the "glad hand. He purchased lumber (on a credit) and placed it on the lot which he had bought (also on credit), after which he had a quantity of fine stationery printed and began an extensive correspondence all over the country, In this way he managed to get possession of a lot of machinery, lumber, oil and other goods. He worked these off at very low prices-and lived high. The people of Fayetteville became suspicious of him, but he was not molested until Postoffice Inspector Connolly got hot on his trail. York is well remembered in Greensboro, where he is sometimes referred to as "York of mineraline face." This nom de plume attaches to him on account of a gigantic scheme he inaugurated while here two or three years ago. By grinding up soapstone or some other material, he proposed to provide a substitute for flour, the proceeds from which were to make him a modern Croesus. This scheme was exposed in its infancy .--Greensboro Telegram. The progressive nations of the world are the great food consuming nations. Good food well digested gives strength.
