WILL MAKE FOR PEACE

Anglo-German Alliance Will Lessen Danger of General War.

Means a Readjustment of the Balance of Power.

Regarded as Strengthening Position of the United States.

The News a Veritable Thunderbolt to France and Russia.

WHY GERMANY IS IN FAVOR OF THE OPEN DOOR—HOPES TO COMPETE SUCCESSFULLY WITH BRITISH TRADE.

London, Oct. 20.—Today's announcement of the Anglo-German agreement in regard to China signifies the most important diplomatic event in this generation. It implies more than its application to the Chinese problem. It means the readjustment of the balance of power in Europe and the world.

Today's announcement is a veritable thunderbolt to France and Russia. It had been believed both in Paris and St. Petersburg that Germany secretly decided to use her special grievance, based on the murder of her minister to exact territorial indemnity from China, and both France and Russia were not unwilling to see this ambition gratified, chiefly because it would offend England. This alliance at first perhaps would seem to be a sacrifice of moment to British interests in China, but such is not the case. Germany has discovered within the year what America discovered a little earlier, namely that British trade in the great markets of the east and elsewhere is vulnerable to energetic competition, and that the maintenance of the open door was all that was necessary to successful rivalry. Thus Germany plans England's undoing in trade while supporting British policy in politics.

But it is the wider significance of the alliance which is most impressive. The supreme fact of all is that the alliance makes for peace, and the danger of a general European war, which undoubtedly has been coming closer, is pushed back.

OPINION AT WASHINGTON.

Washington, Oct. 20.—With knowledge gained through press reports of the agreement regarding China between Great Britain and Germany, officers here profess to be too little acquainted with the matter to discuss it intelligently. They showed no surprise, however, over the announcement that an agreement had been reached, and the general opinion among them is that no serious question on account of it.

One of the officers prominently concerned in the conduct of the negotiation concerning China pointed out that the agreement only served to bind England and Germany to the preservation of the integrity of China, and the maintenance of the open door. One suggestion here is that the agreement is a warning to all the other powers that there must be no attempt to partition China. Taken altogether, the official view is that the agreement will serve to bring the Chinese troubles to a satisfactory conclusion. It is regarded as strengthening the position of the United States.

YOUTSEY SENTENCED TO IMPRISONMENT FOR LIFE

Motion for Arrest of Judgment Filed, and Hearing Set for February.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 20.—"We the jury, find the defendant guilty and fix his punishment at life imprisonment." This is the verdict returned by the twelve men who were selected to try Henry E. Youtsey one of the principals in the murder of William Goebel. It was learned from one of the jurors that no bait was taken last night, though it was practically agreed that a verdict of guilty would be found. This morning the vote was unanimous that Youtsey was guilty, then the degree of punishment was asked, and on this the jury was somewhat divided, but finally agreed on the life sentence.

Attorneys for the defense are preparing a motion for an arrest of judgment which, if sustained, will postpone the sentence of Youtsey till the next term of court in February. Of course an appeal can be taken also, but it need not be presented till after February, in case the motion for arrest of judgment is sustained. It is likely a jury will be empaneled as soon as practicable to inquire into Youtsey's insanity.

The defense filed their motion for arrest of judgment and Judge Camrill set the motion for hearing the second day of the February term and therefore Youtsey will not be sentenced till next year, if then. On the judge's own motion, he entered an order to have Youtsey moved to the Franklin jail for safe keeping.

BRYAN STILL RUSHING THROUGH VARIOUS STATES

The Nominee of the Numerous Wild and Woolly Parties Heads for New Jersey.

Buffalo, Oct. 20.—Bryan wound up his tour of the state here tonight, having spoken sixty-seven times in twenty-five counties. His reception here was most enthusiastic. He spoke in the convention hall to a large crowd. Outside the streets were almost impassable because of the crowds that could not get into the hall. In his speech, which was lengthy, he discussed the trusts, imperialism and militarism. He left tonight for Pittsburg and from there he will proceed to Huntington, W. Va., where he arrives Monday. He will tour West Virginia, Maryland and Delaware, and strike New Jersey October 25.

The Aged Author Expires From Heart Failure in a Colored Woman's House.

The woman said Mr. Warner entered the house and complained of faintness. He sat in a chair and asked for water, and expired in a few minutes. Friends of Mr. Warner say the woman was an almoner of Mr. Warner's. The medical examiner says death was due to heart failure. He was 73 years of age.

JOINT ELECTORAL CANVASS IN THE SEVENTH DISTRICT

J. E. Randleman and J. E. Blair Discuss the Issues at Statesville.

Statesville, N. C., Oct. 20.—J. L. Randleman, republican elector, and J. E. Blair, democratic elector, spoke here last night in their joint canvass of the district. About 200 people heard the discussion and the audience was nearly evenly divided. Mr. Randleman is a young man but is a brilliant speaker. His opponent is older and an experienced campaigner, but could not hold his own with his young antagonist, who is an orator, a reasoner and in all a convincing speaker. He opened the discussion with the democratic party, which he said brought forward free silver as a remedy for the hard times that had come to the country with the democratic administration, but their theories regarding free silver had been proven fallacious. Bryan made his reputation in congress on a free trade speech. We have felt the influence of free trade and we have felt the influence of protection, and we know which is better. He asked if capital has not sought labor with a friendly hand during the last four years, with the result that it will not again adopt a measure that would blight our welfare.

He referred to the records of the republican party and democratic party regarding trusts. The American Tobacco company, about which the democrats howl so bitterly, was formed under a democratic administration and yet they adopted not a single measure against it.

Bryan refused to be a candidate unless free silver was incorporated in the platform and yet he claims it is not an issue. If it is not, why did he receive the nomination of the free silver and populist parties? Why does he speak from the same platform with them? The silver dollar is worth but 47 cents with the eagle crushed off, while the gold dollar is still worth $1 as bullion. We stand for a dollar that is worth a dollar and the republican party will not permit our dollar to be dishonored. Aguilardo sold his people and his honor to Spain and yet the democrats would have us turn over that country to such a man, who has stabbed our soldiers in the backs.

Mr. Blair opened with a few whacks at his opponent and then said everyone should vote to his own interests. If Porto Rico is part of the United States, the principles of the constitution are applicable to the people and the 15 per cent tariff looks like an empire. If the president takes power outside of the constitution he assumes that part of the people are free and part not, and will have a half republic and half empire. Militarism is the first step to imperialism. You can't override the constitution without a large standing army, and what does the merchant, the farmer, the poor man want with a standing army?

We will put all the trust made articles on the free list, he said, and that will smash them. The last fifteen minutes of his talk was devoted to a "nigger" harangue, attacking President McKinley and Senator Pritchard.

Mr. Randleman was powerful in his reply. He said Mr. Blair had not shown a single remedy in his talk for any of the evils. It is democratic opposition to republican principles, then aid and assistance that is laying low our soldiers in the Philippines.

If we have given the workman a 15-cent dinner pail, we have at least given them more than soup houses. (Blair complained bitterly of the 15-cent dinner pail in his talk.)

The fifteenth amendment guarantees to every man the right to vote and if Senator Pritchard has introduced a resolution to declare the constitutional amendment void, he has shown his patriotism. He said Senator Pritchard had done more for North Carolina than any man that ever represented us in congress, and is the greatest man the state ever knew.

If you would down McKinley for appointing negro postmasters and revenue agents, why not damn Bryan for speaking from the same platform with a negro, and after a negro, and for giving the colored men the privilege of forming colored men's Bryan clubs and

HONEYCUTT SENTENCED TO FOUR YEARS AND A FINE

The Slayer of Deputy Marshall Greer Convicted of Refilling.

Statesville, N. C., Oct. 20.—Honeycutt, the Mitchell county man, who is so well known in that section and all over the state, was tried in federal court yesterday on a charge of refilling, which means emptying a cask of liquor without destroying the stamp and refilling it, using the same stamp. He was found guilty of this, the penalty for which is severe. Judge Boyd also took into consideration in the sentence the fact that Honeycutt had killed Deputy Sheriff Greer about two years ago, and said that people must learn that they could not kill the officers in the discharge of their duties. His sentence was four years in the penitentiary and $500 fine. Honeycutt's lawyers endeavored to mitigate the circumstances of that shooting but Judge Boyd was firm. Honeycutt had previously served a term in the Tennessee penitentiary for killing a man. H. R. S.

P. McKissick, of Asheville, who is also a member of the executive committee of the State Fair association, but the actual management of the tournament will be in the hands of the Peters Cartridge company, who have had wide experience in conducting such affairs. It is expected that many shooters from the states of North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee and Georgia will participate. Several clubs from these states have already notified the management of their intention to be present, and it is known that each event will be hotly contested. No professional will be allowed to enter these matches, as it is strictly an amateur tournament. The matches will occur on October 24 and 25, and the prize events will be as follows:

ANOTHER CONVENTION

Of Strikers to be Called to Consider Operators' Last Offer.

Scranton to be Chosen as the Place of Meeting.

Strong Sentiment in Favor of Accepting the Proposed Advance.

Mitchell Denies Report of Intended National Strike Next April.

THE TIME WHEN THE CONVENTION WILL MEET NOT YET DECIDED, BUT WEDNESDAY OR THURSDAY WILL PROBABLY BE SELECTED.

Hazleton, Oct. 20.—President Mitchell tonight issued a statement denying statements to the effect that the miners contemplate inaugurating a national strike April 1.

Wilkesbarre, Oct. 20.—President Mitchell and the executive committee of the United Mine Workers virtually decided to call another convention of the strikers in order to consider the last offer of the operators, and there is little doubt but that it will be accepted. When the convention will be called is not decided. The decision rests with Mitchell, and he will probably decide to hold the convention on Wednesday or Thursday.

Scranton will be selected as the place of meeting. There is a decided sentiment among the strikers to accept the ten per cent advance without regard to the reduction in the price of powder. The men fear that the strike will last over election and then the operators will withdraw their offer.

A CHILL FOR JARVIS

Marion, Oct. 19.—Ex-Governor, ex-Senator and ex-Candidate for Senator Thomas J. Jarvis arrived in Marion from Rutherfordton last night and is stopping over at the Eagle hotel for the day. It was whispered around among a very few that he had come to make a speech, but this seems to be a mistake, and notwithstanding the fact that some one rang a dinner bell at the court house door three different times the ex-candidate did not offer to speak, and the large gathering, composed of six unaffiliated Simmonists, dispersed, much chagrined and disappointed. Jarvis says it "ain't no use," everything, politically speaking, is dead, the people cannot be aroused to take any interest whatever in the campaign.
