CAROLINA NEWS.

Most Rev. Sebastian Martinelli, the pope's representative in the United States, was in Charlotte Tuesday. He went from Charlotte to visit St. Mary's college in Gaston county.

Mr. J. H. McNeill tells the Progress of a remarkably large sweet potato which was raised in Harnett. Mr. Sandy McNeill dug it out of his patch on Monday last week. It weighed fifteen pounds.—Jonesboro Progress.

We learn that the federal authorities will look after the shipping of birds from the state in the future. This law makes all parties concerned guilty—the shipper, the transporters and the receivers.—North Wilkesboro Hustler.

There are rumors that the Ashley Bailey company are erecting another large silk mill in this city adjoining the one already in operation. Though the company's manager here would not admit this fact when asked this morning, he stated that it was talked of.—Fayetteville Observer.

Raymond Hunt, supposed murderer of Ellis Cline, was captured near Morganton Saturday morning. The murder was committed last Christmas at a quilting near Hickory. Hunt fled to Tennessee, but returned recently and was captured while sleeping at his father's saw mill.—Raleigh News and Observer.

That beans can be successfully grown here for fall market has been proven by our prosperous truckers. Mr. M. P. Casey informs us that he has shipped 119 baskets and unless nipped by Jack Frost in a few days can ship as many more. He has realized nearly a dollar a basket for all he has shipped.—Chadburn Messenger.

No services were held in the Baptist church on Sunday night on account of the explosion of the acetylene gas generator. The explosion occurred just as the worshippers were assembling, and while many were startled, no one was injured. The generator is located in the basement of the church, and Sexton Gale was standing near it when the explosion occurred. He was hurled back against the door but fortunately was uninjured. The lights, of course, went out, so no services were held.—Shelby Aurora.

Mr. H. C. Field, agent of the Southern railway, called the Enterprise reporter in the warehouse Wednesday morning and pointing to a bundle of rat traps which had been shipped to the High Point Hardware company, said: "What do you think of that?" The traps had arrived at the depot the evening before and during the night they had captured nine large rats without even being baited. The rats were all alive and kicking and the goods were delivered to John Welborn in this shape—rats and all. Fine recommendation for the trap.—High Point Enterprise.

Dr. Cyrus Thompson, secretary of state, has received a letter from Judge Advocate General Samuel C. Lemley, of the United States navy department, asking that the state records be searched for any direct descendants of Captain Johnston Blakeley. This is for the purpose of finding some one to christen the new torpedo boat Blakeley when it is launched at South Boston, November 22. Judge Lemley says that it has been discovered that Captain Blakeley married a Miss Hoopes, of New York, and one child, a daughter, was educated in North Carolina.—Raleigh Post.

A negro girl, Oceana Gaffney, living in the northwest part of the town, jumped into an old well in the rear of the house of M. Putnam Monday. It is supposed with suicidal intent, but was hauled out none the worse for her experience. It seems her mother had whipped her and she left home saying she would jump in the well. After making her plunge and finding the water only three feet deep, she concluded she did not want to suicide, so began to yell for help. Mr. Putnam heard her cries and pulled her out.—Shelby Aurora.

Malcolm H. Hanna, a mechanic in the employ of the Gastonia Coffin company, died this morning. He was hurt last Saturday while running a rip saw. The plank upon which he was at work was broken in two and the loose end was hurled at him by the saw, striking him in the abdomen. It was thought that his injury was slight at the time. A post mortem examination shows that he was terribly injured internally, though there was hardly any outward appearance of injury upon his body. Mr. Hanna was 26 years of age and leaves a wife and one child.—Gastonia Cor. Charlotte Observer.

Many people worry because they believe they have heart disease. The chances are that their hearts are all right but their stomachs are unable to digest food. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and prevents the formation of gas which makes the stomach press against the heart. It will cure every form of indigestion. Dr. T. C. Smith.

A Cincinnati wife attempted suicide because she didn't like her new hat. This should be a warning to other wives not to order new hats this fall.

HE FOOLED THE SURGEON. All doctors told Renick Hamilton, of West Jefferson, O., after suffering 18 months from Rectal Fistula, he would die unless a costly operation was performed, but he cured himself with five boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve. The surest Pile cure on Earth, and the best Salve in the world. 25 cents a box. Sold all druggists.

His satanical majesty uses a great many different kinds of bait, but he can catch all the loafers he wants with a bare hook. Dispatches from Teheran, the capital of Persia, report that there is great discontent among the people on account of the fact that the shah's expenses during his European visit amounted to 12,500,000 francs ($2,500,000), although misery, famine and pestilence were general at home during his absence.

A VILLAGE BLACKSMITH SAVED HIS LITTLE SON'S LIFE.

Mr. H. H. Black, the well-known village blacksmith at Grahamsville Sullivan county, N. Y., says: "Our little son, five years old, has always been subject to croup, and so had have the attacks been that we have feared many times that he would die. We have had the doctor and used many medicines, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is now our sole reliance. It seems to dissolve the tough mucus and by giving frequent doses when the croupy symptoms appear we have found that the dreaded croup is cured before it gets settled." There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For sale by C. A. Raynor, druggist.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets cure biliousness, constipation and headache. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. For sale by C. A. Raynor, druggist.
