CAROLINA NEWS.

Of the twenty-eight negroes who stood the examination for teachers' certificates at Raleigh eight were successful. One received first grade.

An interesting contribution has been made by Dr. Thomas D. Hogg, of Raleigh, to the historical room of the state museum. It is a bundle of cotton yarn, spun at the Rockfish factory, in Cumberland county, in 1864, and is a part of the dividend declared to stockholders in that year.

Monroe Moore, near Monroeton, was seriously hurt Saturday. It seems that the young man was at work in the mill at Iron Works and in some mysterious way fell on one of the wheels. Both of his legs were cut off above the knees and his body was badly bruised. He is in a critical condition and will probably die.—News and Observer.

Today a white girl, aged 16, who ran away from Durham ten days ago, was caught in West Raleigh. She put on her father's clothes and left home at night. Her mind is said to be not entirely sound. Her father came here after her and took her home this afternoon.—Raleigh Cor. Charlotte Observer.

A tragedy occurred in Charlotte, at the opera house, Monday night, when "The Mascot" was presented. The Observer says: "Up in the gallery, in the space that is reserved for colored people, Frank Campbell had been boisterous during the first act, and had been twice required to keep silence. At the conclusion of the act he arose from his seat saying 'that he never expected to come back again.' With several other negroes he made a rush for the narrow stairway, and as he got about half way down he threw his leg over the banisters as if he purposed to slide down. The impetus of his body—and he was drinking—threw him over the railing, and he fell to the floor below, a distance of about seven feet. His head struck first—just above the right eye—and his body doubled up and he lay still." The negro's skull was fractured and he died at 1 o'clock.

HOW THEY TRADE IN CHINA.

When a man or woman goes into a shop in China a clerk, with much ceremony, brings fragrant tea, which is served in fine style. The compliments of the season are exchanged, there are talks about the weather—in fact, every kind of evasion is employed to keep away from the real reason of the visit, which is to buy something. The proprietor solemnly watches these proceedings from afar. The style of compliment is of this order: "In what celestial country did your exalted excellence purchase the superlative garments upon which I feast my eyes? Surely in no miserable and unworthy land like our own?" When the tea and talk are exhausted the little pipe bearer, who always attends his master or mistress out of doors, lights a pipe for his employer. There are only a few whiffs in each pipeful, so the process has to be frequently repeated.

Then business begins. The shopper asks the price of the required article and makes an offer that is much lower. This is promptly refused in language that is courteous and polite beyond description. Then the possible purchaser departs with great dignity and elegance. When a bargain is completed the purchaser never pays it himself. The chief steward is called, notified that the article has been accepted, and when the bill comes in the "boy" settles it, giving an account quarterly to his master of money distributed by the household. Money as we have it is unknown in China. There are no silver dollars, no fractions of dollars as quarters and ten cent pieces, no paper bank notes. There is a coin called cash, with a hole punched in the middle that is used in small transactions. Cash can be strung like beads on a string. It takes 100 pieces to equal the value of one standard cent. Gold is only used for ornaments in China, never for current coin.

When an infant is in the cradle it is down to bed-rock.

It's Worse For a Woman

To suffer with skin disease than it is for a man, for a smooth skin and a clear complexion are essential elements of female beauty. When the taint of scrofula is in the blood it will be sure to show itself soon or late. Often its manifestations are as repulsive as they are painful. Many people have been cured of scrofula in its most malignant forms by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This remedy is remarkable for its power to purify the blood. It absolutely eliminates the corrupting elements. It makes the blood clean and rich. It increases the action of the blood-making glands, and so increases the quantity of pure blood supplied to the body.

"I will forever thank you for advising me to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery," writes Mrs. J. S. Murphy, of Fondra, Pocahontas Co., Iowa. "It has cured me of chronic scrofula of twelve years' standing. I had doctored for the trouble until I was completely discouraged. I also had chronic diarrhea for twelve years. I am in good health now—better than I ever was in my life, owing to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took several bottles of the 'Discovery' before I stopped."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a work for every woman, is sent free, on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps (to pay cost of mailing only), for paper edition. Cloth-bound, 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

A VILLAGE BLACKSMITH SAVED HIS LITTLE SON'S LIFE.

Mr. H. H. Black, the well-known village blacksmith at Grahamsville Sullivan county, N. Y., says: "Our little son, five years old, has always been subject to croup, and so had have the attacks been that we have cared many times that he would die. We have had the doctor and used many medicines, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is now our sole reliance. It seems to dissolve the tough mucus and by giving frequent doses when the croupy symptoms appear we have found that the dried-out croup is cured before it gets settled." There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For sale by C. A. Raynor, druggist.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets cure biliousness, constipation and headache. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. For sale by C. A. Raynor, druggist.

WINE OF CARDUI

Cairo, Ky., Sept. 6, 1899. I take pleasure in writing a few lines in praise of your wonderful medicine, Wine of Cardui. It is the best medicine I ever heard of. I am thirty-six years old and have been sick all my life. I had a dozen doctors, but none of them did me any good. I have taken one bottle of Wine of Cardui and will take another with Black-Draught. I have been married six years and have a baby five years old. I had womb and kidney trouble. My monthly period was so bad that sometimes it came twice a month. I was too sick to do work for a family of three. I was in bed when I got the bottle of Wine of Cardui. Now I am up and can do most of my work. When I was sick I could not sleep at night. I sleep well at night now. A friend of mine advised me to use Black-Draught with Wine of Cardui. Mrs. ETTA KILLMAN.
