THE ELECTION LAW.

We are gratified to learn that the petitions now in circulation asking for a modification of the harshest features of the election law are being generally signed from Cherokee to Dare. The migners include hundreds of democrats as well as hundreds of ministers of the gospiel. In fact, it is difficult to understand how any reasonable man could refuse a request so obviously fair as that contained in this petition. The letter of explanation, which accompanfes the petitions, addresses itself with overwhelming force to every honest conscience. We are authorized to make public this letter of explanation, and the expressions of the Charlote Observer, the Chatham Record and other leading democratic papers in favor of the proposed changes convince us that the demand for a reasonably honest law will he too strong for the general assembly to refuse or ignore.

The demands set forth in the accompanying petition are so simple and to reach Manila. His entire following is reasonable that an explanation seems mardly necessary, as the constitutional surrendering. Small encounters and immendment goes into effect before the date of the next general election there can be no honest excuse, even among partizans, to refuse to allow the voters who may still be entitled to vote a reasoniably fair expression of their will: and it is confidently believed that thousands of fairminded democrats will foin in the effort to secure this result and sign the petition for that purpose. The first demand, if granted by the legislature, simply restores to the courts the right to issue writs of mandamus and injunction in cases where election officers refuse to do their duty, or openly violate their duty. These great writs have never hereitofore been suspended in North Carolina in time of pelaice.

The second demand simply requires the registrars to take an oath to discharge their duty honestly and imparhally. No officer will refuse to take an gath unless he intends to commit a

The third demand requires the judges to deposit the ballots in the proper ballot box; this law has been upon our statute books for 123 years-in fact, ever since the formation of the state. But it was repealed by the legislature

The appointment of Col. V. S. Lusk of this city to fill the vacancy on the supreme court bench created by the death of Judge Fairchild, would be extremely gratifying to Col. Lusk's host of friends in these western counties, who recognize his ability to fill the place with honor to himself and to the state. Of all who have been mentioned in conection with the appointment-and there are several-none is better qualified or more deserving of the high honor.

AN ANTI-KIDNAPPING LAW.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 3 .- Senator Ransom of Omaha, introduced in the state senate today a bill to make kidnapping under certain conditions punishable by death. It provides for three grades of punishment. For simple kidnapping. three to five years in the penitentiary; for kidnapping and exhorting money, a life term in prison and for kidnapping and threatening to injure the victim, hanging. Three other bills bearing on kidnapping and not greatly different in phraseology, were introduced.

The present Nebraska statute on this crime is regarded as very lame, and good authorities question whether , for the act of abduction alone a conviction would be possible. With members of the legislature in their present temper, one of these bills is pretty sure to be given right of way.

MANY FILIPINOS SURRENDER.

Manila, Jan. 3.-Gen.- Funston reports that Gen. Sandico, the rebel lead, er, is hiding in Victoria. He is trying dispersed and the men are individually surrendiers of rebels are reported everywhere. Gen Alejanderino has apparently escaped, as the Mount Aryurat expedition is returning, after killing or capturing a number of insurgents and burning all the rebel supplies and shelter.

CONGRESSIONAL INVESTIGA. TION OF THE BOOZ CASE.

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 3 .- The congressional committee to investigate the Booz case arrived too late today to examine witnesses. They held a short executive session. At its conclusion the committee announced that it would go to Bristol tomorrow to hold a meeting at which it would try and dispose of the Bristol and Bustleton witnesses. An effort will be made to finish the taking of testimony here tomorrow night.
