A WARM DEBATE IN THE HOUSE YESTERDAY

FLYNN OF OKLAHOMA MAKES AN ACCUSATION AGAINST STEPHENS OF TEXAS—SPEAKER HENDERSON'S TIMELY GOOD HUMOR.

Washington, Jan. 29.—When the house met today, Mr. Stephens, of Texas, arose to a question of privilege in connection with the exchange which took place between himself and Mr. Flynn, the delegate from Oklahoma, just prior to adjournment yesterday when the direct lie was almost passed.

Mr. Stephens read the language used by Mr. Flynn, in which the latter charged that Mr. Stephens had surreptitiously inserted in the bill to ratify the agreement with the Kiowa and Comanche Indians, which became a law June 6, 1900, a clause giving white settlers the right to take up such of these Indians' lands as contained minerals.

Mr. Stephens said it was unfortunate for Mr. Flynn that he himself had introduced a bill in January, 1900, which contained the identical language which he now charges was surreptitiously inserted in the bill. He indignantly repelled the insinuation to which Mr. Flynn had given utterance.

"Would we have allowed a section to go in," he asked, "which permitted whites to take without compensation lands we were allotting to the Indians?"

"Didn't you introduce a bill containing similar language?" asked Mr. Stephens, who now confronted the frate Oklahoma delegate across the aisle.

"I had sufficient confidence in the gentleman at that time," retorted Mr. Flynn. "What lead to the investigation which unearthed the facts," he continued, "was that the moment the bill passed the gentleman from Texas telegraphed his friends to go into the lands and locate claims."

"Did you not telegraph your friends?" interposed Mr. Stephens.

"Yes, that the bill had passed, but I insist that the investigation developed the fact that the gentleman from Texas was the only member of either house who knew the mining clause was in the bill."

"That statement," cried Mr. Stephens, raising his arm threateningly, "is utterly unfounded, and I believe it is knowingly and maliciously made."

"That is strong language," retorted Mr. Flynn, who preserved his equanimity. "I received my information upon a visit to the reservation."

The members of the house at this point expected a sensational explosion, but the incident flattened out.

Mr. Hull of Iowa called up the conference report upon the army reorganization bill and moved that the bill be sent back to conference. After a brief wrangle the motion was agreed to.

The house then went into committee of the whole and took up the agricultural appropriation bill. Mr. Wadsworth, chairman of the agricultural committee, explained the salient features of the measure, which carries $4,377,250, being an increase of $353,750 over the amount of the current law.

Other proceedings of interest was the agreement by the house to the conference report on the army reorganization bill and the transmission by the president of messages similar to those submitted in the senate.

IN THE SENATE.
The Indian appropriation bill and the

SHIP SUBSIDY BILL

The former passed and then Mr. Turner took the floor in opposition to the ship subsidy bill. He denounced the measure as vicious in principle and extravagant in operation. He declared it was exaction of money from the taxpayers and the purpose proposed was spoliation pure and simple. At the close of his speech amendments to the bill were reported by the commerce committee and agreed to and without completing the bill the senate adjourned.

In the early part of the session four messages from the president were submitted. Among them was one recommending an appropriation for the purchase of two of the Philippine islands not included in the Paris treaty, and another recommending that provision be made for the families of the Italians lynched at Taalooka, La.

OUR FOREIGN MARKETS

The most important and interesting summary of what has been achieved by the United States in the direction of opening up and extending our markets abroad is presented in a letter from Secretary Hay which was laid before congress today accompanying the annual publication known as "Commercial Relations of the United States and Foreign Countries." Secretary Hay says: "The general conclusion to be drawn from a survey of the conditions in foreign countries as described in our consular reports herewith presented, is that the United States is approaching even more swiftly than was expected a position of eminence in the world's markets due to the superior quality and the greater cheapness of many lines of its manufactures, which must work great economical changes and may result in a shifting of the center, not only of the industrial, but the commercial activity and the money power of the world to our shores."

"Trade indications of American supremacy during the past year have been so marked that many foreign industries according to the reports of our consuls in Europe have introduced American machinery and labor saving appliances and are remodeling their factory methods, and we may expect in the near future more strenuous competition, for which it is important we should prepare ourselves."

"As an aid to such an equipment the study of the great mass of information as to foreign industries and trade conditions which is to be found in the two volumes of commercial relations will obviously prove most useful to our manufacturers and exporters, and I therefore recommend that congress be requested to authorize, as was done last year, the printing of a special edition of 10,000 copies of the 'Review of the world's commerce', and 50,000 copies of 'Commercial Relations.'"

BUTLER WILL DISCUSS SIMMONS IN THE SENATE

On Motion to Refer His Credentials to Committee on Elections.

Washington, Jan. 29.—In the senate today Senator Butler moved that the credentials of F. M. Simmons, senator elect from North Carolina, be referred to the committee on elections and that his motion and the credentials lie on the table. Adopted.

FOUR YEAR'S TERM LONG ENOUGH

Bryan's View on Proposition to Lengthen President's Term.

Lincoln, Jan. 29.—Bryan's Commonwealth, which has now obtained a circulation of 55,000, appeared this evening. Its leading editorial was devoted to the question. It says, "The world has cause to mourn her demerit." The most interesting editorial is upon the Cleveland proposition to increase the president's term to six years and limit him to one term.

Upon this he says: "To lengthen the president's term is simply to enlarge the stake for which great interests play. Trusts could increase their campaign fund fifty per cent if they could secure control of administration for six years instead of four. A four year's term is long enough for a good president and too long for a bad one."

DESECRATED BADGE OF THE UNION

Cambridge W. C. T. U. Deplores Action of Mrs. Nations.

Cambridge, Mass., Jan. 28.—Cambridge reports say Womens Christian Temperance Union at a meeting adopted resolutions deploring the attitude of the union of Enterprise, Kansas, and saying that they feel that Mrs. Nations and others have desecrated the badge of the union which stands for purity and peace.

HEIR APPARENT SUFFERING FROM MEASLES

London, Jan. 29.—It is officially announced that the Duke of Cornwall and York, heir apparent to the throne, is suffering with German measles.

SIR JOHN McLEURE DEAD.
London, Jan. 29.—Sir John W. MacLeure, conservative member of the House of Commons for the Stratford division of southeast Lancashire, is dead in the 65th year of his age.

FUNERAL PROCESSION STRANGE SPECTACLE

By Queen Victoria's Request Her Daughters Will Walk Behind the Funeral Car. King Edward VII. Leaves Cowes For London.

East Cowes, Jan. 29.—The solemn procession that will leave Osborne Friday will be as surprising to the eyes of England as to those of the western world, yet it will be in exact obedience to the written wish of the queen that she be laid at rest in this manner. No people in England, except humble cottagers in the highlands, have women walk at the funeral of a friend. Probably it was the sight of some old tenant's interment at her Scottish home at Balmoral that appealed to the queen and led her to ask not only of the men of her family but the daughters to walk behind her funeral car.

Cowes, Jan. 29.—King Edward left Cowes for London this morning.

The Duke of York is suffering from the strain of recent events and has been confined to his room since Thursday. It is feared he will be unable to take part in the ceremonies Friday.

The only American wreath which has arrived at Osborne house so far is from Mrs. Sidney Everett of Boston, who is staying on the Isle of Wight. It is inscribed "In token of lifelong and reverence."

The outer coffin arrived last night. The non-commissioned officers detailed to guard the coffin rehearsed to day with a dummy coffin filled with sand and weighing over a half a ton.

The main wing of Osborne house is expected to become the residence of Princess Beatrice in her capacity as governor of the Isle of Wight. The other part of the house will be reserved for the king.

The Orleans family will be represented by the Duke of Chartres, a younger brother of the late Count of Paris, the Duke of Alencon, and the Count of Eu, sons of the late Duke of Nemours, between whom and the late queen in 1838 Louis Philippe tried hard to arrange a marriage.

The king's order in directing that the drapery of the buildings be purple has created no little consternation. Many other places already covered with black. It will cause no end of expense to make alterations. In addition, the supply of purple is already getting short.

RUSSIA IS SEEKING ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS

New York, Jan. 29.—A despatch to the Herald from Shanghai says: Russia is secretly offering the following terms in regard to Manchuria:

Money compensation to be demanded for losses in Manchuria. Manchuria to be restored to China and the official power is to be Chinese. Russian officers are to administer Manchuria with power to receive all war material and so forth. No arms, forces or arsenals are to be allowed in Manchuria.

CHINESE EMPRESS FEARS DESIGNS OF THE POWERS

Will Not Return to Peking Until Her Position is Settled.

Peking, Jan. 28.—A meeting of all the ministers will probably be held February 1 when a list of the Chinese to be executed will be completed. It can be stated that unless the United States changes its attitude the ministers will not demand the death of Prince Tuan, Tung Fu Hsiang and Duke Lan.

The Japanese have arrested the sons of Hsu Tung and Chih Shui, notorious boxers. It is reported from Singan-Fu that many officers of the southern provinces are visiting the empress denouncing Li Hung Chang.

The Chinese commissioners received a despatch from the empress saying that she would not consider the question of returning to Peking until all the foreign soldiers are removed, and would not permit the emperor to return.

PAT CROWE ARRESTED IN INDIANAPOLIS

Man in Jail Believed to be Kidnapper of Young Cudahy.

Indianapolis, Jan. 29.—The sheriff of Decatur county arrested a man on the street today whom he believed from the description was none other than Pat Crowe, the kidnapper of young Cudahy.

The stranger acted suspiciously and protested against arrest.

Examination at the jail developed the fact that he had all the marks mentioned in the circular describing Crowe, even to the missing eye tooth. Suspect says his name is Williams and that he was never in Nebraska.

BANK MAY RESUME

Believed Bank Will be Allowed to Reopen Under New Management.

Montgomery, Jan. 29.—At a meeting of depositors of the Joshua Morris bank, which was suspended Saturday, a committee was appointed to examine the affairs of the bank.

It is believed the bank will be allowed to reopen under new management. The assets are believed to be $2,000,000, and the liabilities between $300,000 and $500,000.

MURDERERS SENTENCED

Concluding Scene in Court in the Bosscheiter Case at Paterson.

McAlister, Death and Campbell to be Imprisoned For Thirty Years.

KERR ESCAPES WITH LIGHTER PUNISHMENT

Patterson, N. J., Jan. 29.—Walter C. McAlister, Wm. J. A. Death and Alexander Campbell, who were found guilty of murder in the second degree for killing Jennie Bosscheiter, October 18 last, by the administration of chloral and subsequent rape, together with George J. Kerr, who plead non vult contendere to the charge of rape were brought into court today for sentence by Judge Dixon.

McAlister, Campbell and Death were each sentenced to 30 years imprisonment at hard labor, Kerr was sentenced to 15 years at hard labor. The sentences of the men are full terms which the law provides.

Campbell's sister has been circulating a petition to Judge Dixon asking for clemency for her brother.

The court room was crowded to its utmost capacity when Judge Dixon took his seat on the bench. In the court room were the father, stepmother and sister of Jennie Bosscheiter, who had been given seats where they could have a good view of all that transpired.

A few minutes after court had been declared open, McAlister, Campbell and Death were brought in by deputy sheriffs and seated.

The proceeding began with a plea by Michael Dunne, one of the attorneys for the convicted men, for clemency for his clients. He urged that in the cases of Death and Campbell the question of their reformation was worthy of consideration by the court.

Counsel also submitted a petition signed by citizens asking for mercy for Campbell, who had been known for many years to the petitioners as industrious, temperate and of good character.

Former Judge Scott addressed the court in McAlister's behalf, urging previous good character and high family connections.

McAlister, Campbell and Death were then told to stand up. McAlister and Campbell looked extremely pale and Death had the appearance of suffering greatly under the strain.

Judge Dixon addressing the three prisoners, said:

"You stand convicted of murder in the second degree. Had you been found guilty of murder in the first degree the punishment would have been death but the leniency of the jury in the exercise of their lawful authority saved you from the gallows. We must administer justice as they are. It is true these sentences will destroy lives, obliterating every prospect of an honorable existence among the people. The court cannot make any distinction but must sentence you for this crime."

RUSSIANS SCENT AN ANGLO-GERMAN ALLIANCE

St. Petersburg, Jan. 29.—Several newspapers declare the appointment of the Kaiser as field marshal in the British army and the sending of the German naval squadron to participate in the queen's funeral distinctly indicate an Anglo-German alliance of defensive character.

The Svet says it has become clear that Kruger was not received at Berlin because the country needed an alliance with England for the purpose of her assuming the dominating position in the Balkans that she is assuming in the far east. The paper admits that such an alliance is calculated to injure Russia.

HUNDRED DOLLAR MEDAL FOR MRS. NATIONS

By Kansas Union as "Bravest Woman in Kansas."

Topoka, Kans., Jan. 29.—A hundred dollar medal will be presented to Mrs. Nations by the state temperance union, which union describes her as the bravest woman in Kansas.

Mrs. Nations today presented flowers to seven prisoners in jail. She asked each, "What brought you here?" and the answer invariably was whiskey.

The chief of police has invited Mrs. Nations to join him in a solemn smothering crusade. She accepted, and the present week is the time fixed for the crusade.
