EARLY MORNING HATCHET BEE

Mrs. Nation Wrecks Most Handsomely Appointed Saloon in Topeka.

Policeman Took Her to the Station House Where She Held a Praise Service.

AFTER HER RELEASE SHE RESUMED SMASHING

MRS. NATION ISSUES A PROCLAMATION CALLING ON THE SCHOOL CHILDREN TO BREAK

THE GLASS DOORS OF THE BAR-ROOMS.

Topeka, Kan., Feb. 5.—Mrs. Nation launched her crusade against the "joints" at an early hour this morning. She rose at 4:30 o'clock and soon after started on a tour of joint smashing. Accompanied by Mrs. J. P. White and Miss Madaline Southard she attempted to enter the place at 830 Kansas avenue. The man on duty at that early hour was taken unawares but managed to disarm Mrs. Nation and bolted the door before any of the party could enter. Mrs. Nation said her friends caught hold of her arms and prevented her going through the window. The next place visited was "The Senate", at 405 Kansas avenue. The women entered without resistance, but a colored man quickly seized Mrs. Nation and took her hatchet away. Somehow in the scuffle she was struck on the right temple with the hatchet but the blow did not disable her and she at once seized the hatchet carried by Mrs. White. She turned over two large slot machines and smashed the glass front of each. She soon made a wreck of the large refrigerator and after that turned her attention to the liquor and fixtures behind the bar. A keg of beer came in the way of her hatchet and the contents completely drenched the skirts of Mrs. Nation. At this juncture the colored porter fired his revolver at the ceiling to frighten the crusaders and attracted attention from the outside. Policeman Graham was attracted to the place by a noise and escorted Mrs. Nation to the police station. Here Mrs. Nation and her little band of followers held a short praise service and lectured those in charge at the time.

The Senate saloon which was wrecked was one of the handsomest and most complete in its equipment of any in the city. It was filled up with handsome cherry bar and the great mirror which hung on the north side, was valued at $500. Probably $1,500 worth of property, mostly made up of cherry bar and handsome fixtures were destroyed.

Mrs. Nation was released at the police station after a short trial. She immediately began another round of the joints.

At the police station Mrs. Nation was booked as "Joint-smasher." The others were released. Her case was continued till Thursday without bond, the charge preferred being that of instituting riot. The case against Mrs. Nation for attempting to smash the Union saloon on East Sixth street, yesterday afternoon, was dismissed.

Mrs. Nation today issued the following proclamation to the school children of Topeka:

"My precious little children: I send you greeting and ask you to help me destroy that which is on the streets and protected by the police and city officials to destroy my darlings. I want every one of you little ones to grab up a rock and smash up the glass doors and windows of these hell-holes. You will do your duty and enroll your names on the pages of undying fame and place yourself on the side of God and humanity. Your loving friend,
"CARRIE NATION."

Binghampton, N. Y., Feb. 5.—Two persons perished and three were fatally injured in a fire which totally destroyed the Exposition hotel in this city today. The dead are:

There were 25 persons in the building most of whom escaped. The body of Severson, partly dressed, was found on a bed by the firemen. Holland's body was lying on the floor near a window in another room and position indicated that the man attempted to escape had lost his way in the dense smoke.

MILITARY APPROPRIATION BILL IN THE SENATE

Amendment Requiring Cadets to Take Oath to Refrain From Hazing.

Washington, Feb. 5.—The senate met at 11 o'clock today. A bill authorizing the Mount Carmel Development company to draw water from the Wabash river at Grand Rapids, Ill., was passed. Mr. Chandler, of New Hampshire, presented the credentials of his successor Mr. Henry E. Burrham.

The chair appointed Messrs. Hanna, Spooner and Jones of Arkansas, members of the joint committee on inauguration, and Messrs. Chandler and Caffery as tellers of the vote for president and vice-president when the electoral vote is counted.

Mr. Teller called up and spoke upon his resolution calling upon the secretary of war for information concerning the reports of the deportation of Geo. T. Rice, editor of a Manila newspaper, to the United States by the general in charge of the American forces in the Philippines. He read the press reports concerning Mr. Rice's case, saying that he did not wonder that he was defiant, knowing there was no law justifying his expulsion. Mr. Teller said he did not know whether Rice's paper had been suppressed, but he had been credibly informed that four newspapers had been suppressed in Luzon by the military authorities.

Mr. Teller spoke of the proceeding as one of importance to all, for Mr. Rice was a citizen of the United States, and an offense against him was an offense against every other citizen of the country.

Mr. Teller's resolution was agreed to and the District of Columbia appropriation bill was taken up.

The military academy appropriation bill was also taken up. Several amendments to the latter included one requiring cadets to take oath to refrain from hazing gave rise to considerable debate. When the senate adjourned the bill was still pending.

IN THE HOUSE.
The house devoted most of the session to the consideration of the postoffice appropriation bill without disposing of the measure. The house then adjourned.

THE "COMMONER" UPHOLDS NEW YORK'S MAYOR

Defends His Action in Not Lowering Flag at Queen's Death.

Lincoln, Feb. 5.—Bryan, in today's Commoner, upholds the action of the mayor of New York in failing to lower flag on the death of Queen Victoria. He says the mayor presented a complete defense when he cited the failure to pay such a tribute to Joubert as a precedent. He adds: "If the flag on a public building does not pay tribute to the memory of a hero who died in freedom's holy cause then it is not extremely important that the flag be required to pay tribute to kings and queens."

He advocates the fulfillment of the pledges made in the congressional resolution regarding Cuba.

They subsequently were allowed to return to their house for the night. Next day one of the Englishmen was allowed to return to Pekin, but Ament was not permitted to leave.
