MOLINEUX'S ALLEGED CRIME

Ex-Senator David B. Hill
Cites Evidence of the Prisoner's Guilt.

Proof That Molineux Wrote
the Addresses on the Poison Packages.

THE TESTIMONY IN THE BARNET CASE

THE HEARING IN BUFFALO EN-DED AND THE MATTER NOW IN COURT'S HANDS FOR DECISION.

Buffalo, June 19.—The argument of the appeal of Roland B. Molineux, the alleged poisoner of Mrs. Katherine J. Adams was resumed before the court of appeals today. Ex-Senator David B. Hill, for the people, made a number of additions to the authorities and decisions referred to in his brief, and then took up the question of the guilt of the defendant, reminding the court that not only in its argument had the other side avowed the innocence of the accused. He insisted that it had been proved by the overwhelming preponderance of evidence that Molineux had written the letters and the addresses on the poison packages. He said it was not material who brought the bottle holder and drew attention to the fact that Zellner, Molineux's friend and assistant had never set foot in New York after the arrest. Mr. Hill also dwelt upon the fact that Molineux was a chemist and described his laboratory and the poisons which it contained.

"Where is the man," he exclaimed, "who had the opportunity that he had to poison his enemies?" Mr. Hill pictured Molineux as a sufferer from a malady which made him melancholy, reviewed the trouble at the Knickerbocker Athletic club and pictured Molineux as plotting for revenge. He insisted that every circumstance in the case linked Molineux to the crime, including the fact that he had hired a lawyer and engaged a handwriting expert before suspicion against him had shaped itself.

"The defense," he said, "went through the trial casting suspicion right and left and without reason or system, merely seeking to avert it from their client."

Mr. Hill asserted that under the tutelage of Mr. Carvalho, expert in writing, the accused learned to disguise the handwriting and did disguise it in the writing he did for Expert Kinsley.

Leaving out the consideration of the expert testimony Mr. Hill said the state had still a complete chain of circumstantial evidence of the guilt of the accused.

"We have," he said, "Molineux's acknowledged description of his malady and we have the same description in the Barnet blank. We have all the other direct and circumstantial evidence that connects the prisoner directly."

"As to the Barnet case the admissibility of testimony regarding which the defense disputes, Mr. Hill asserted that that case and the case of Mrs. Adams were so closely interwoven that it was impossible to separate them. He also argued that the forgery of the names of Barnet and Cornish and the interception of their mail was criminal and that the state had a right to show them."

Mr. Hill discussed at length the law in regard to comparison of writing in detection of criminals and declared the people had only exercised their rights at the trial. He ridiculed the claim that there had been anything involuntary in the prisoner's testimony at the inquest.

Recorder Goff, Mr. Hill said, had treated both the defense and prosecution fairly, threatening both Weeks and Osborn with contempt.

In closing Mr. Hill pleaded that the case was one of importance to the state; that the defendant had been fairly tried; no substantial error had been committed and no material fact had been excluded.

Mr. Milburn, replying to a criticism that he had not declared the innocence of the defendant explained that he had not made a practice of obtruding his personal beliefs in argument of a legal question. He said Mr. Hill had spoken as if to a jury and had improperly stated certain features of the case.

He contended that the law had not been followed in the admission of the handwriting testimony, and that there had been error in admitting the Barnet testimony. Mr. Milburn having closed, the case was formally submitted.

Arrives at Pagsagan.

Cailles' command arrived at Pagsagan today under charge of a sergeant platoon of the Eighth United States Infantry, which has been occupying the place evacuated. This was done pursuant to an agreement by which all of Cailles' men are concentrated at or near that place preliminary to their surrender. The Americans will move out as the insurgents appear. Other detachments of Cailles' men are concentrating in the same vicinity.

EPISCOPAL CANONS ON MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE

Elopements of Young Persons Frowned Upon.

New York, June 19.—The joint commission on the revision of the canons of the Protestant Episcopal church has just made public its report which will be submitted for approval to the next general convention in San Francisco next October. Attached to the report, but not incorporated in its text, is the prohibition against marrying a dead wife's sister.

Elopements of young persons are frowned upon in the following words: "No minister shall solemnize the marriage of any person who is a minor under law of the place of marriage unless the parent or guardian of such minor is present and consenting or shall have given written consent to the marriage if permanently resident in a foreign country."

"No minister shall solemnize a marriage except in the presence of at least two witnesses, the minister or the witnesses being personally acquainted with the parties."

Re-marriages by divorced persons is carefully considered thus: "No minister shall solemnize a marriage between any two persons unless or until by inquiry he shall have satisfied himself that neither person has been, or is the husband or the wife of any other person then living; unless the former marriage was annulled by a decree of some civil court of competent jurisdiction for cause existing before such former marriage."

Discipline for divorced persons is laid down thus: "No person divorced for troubles arising after marriage and marrying again during the life time of the other party to the divorce shall be admitted to baptism or confirmation or receive to the holy communion except when penitent and separated from the other party to subsequent marriage or when penitent and in immediate danger of death, but this canon shall not apply to the innocent party to a divorce for the cause of adultery."

SOME CHANGES TO BE MADE IN SEABOARD

Norfolk, Va., June 19.—Rumors are afloat concerning forthcoming changes in the traffic and executive department of the Seaboard Air Line effective on the first of the coming month. The promotion of Capt. V. E. McBee, general superintendent of the system, which was intimated several days ago, is now it seems, practically assured. He will become third vice-president of the system. The rumor that Mr. J. William Middendorf, of Baltimore, will be made second vice president of the line, appears to be equally well founded. Mr. Middendorf, as the directing genius of the banking house of Middendorf, Olver & Co., has individually done more than almost any other man toward financing the general combination of railway properties comprising the greater Seaboard system. He has been John Skelton Williams' right hand man. The appointment of his friend and co-worker to the position indicated, it would seem, is in line with Mr. Williams' policy. It is announced that upon his promotion to the position of third vice-president Captain McBee will be succeeded by N. D. McMahon, at present superintendent of Pocahontas division of Norfolk and Western railway, whose capabilities in the position now held by Captain McBee are well known to Mr. Barr, who was formerly general manager of the Norfolk & Western.

"THE ALLIED THIRD PARTY"

This is the Name of the New Political Organization in Missouri.

Convention Adjourns After Adopting Platform of Party's Doctrine.

PUBLIC OWNERSHIP AND REFERENDUM

POPULISTS, FREE SILVER RE-PUBLICANS, SOCIALIST SINGLE TAXERS AND BRYAN DEMO-CRATS ELEMENTS OF THE PAR-TY.

Kansas City, June 19.—There is every probability that there will be a new third party in the field in Missouri in the campaign of 1902. It will be the result of the conference of public ownership men, populists, free silver republicans, socialist single taxers and Bryan democrats, which adjourned here today after being in session two days. The party will be called the "Allied Third Party."

A committee was appointed to prepare an addendum to the people of Missouri setting forth its principles, according to the resolution embodying the doctrines of the new party adopted today.

Kansas City, June 19.—At today's session of the conference of political reformers, whose object is the building of a third party in Missouri, to take on national proportions, J. H. Cook, chairman of the populist state central committees, of those in Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska and Colorado, inviting them to take up the work of uniting the reform forces in the country into a new third party, with the ultimate purpose of affecting a national organization.

The convention accomplished its chief purpose by adopting the following resolutions embodying the principal doctrines of the new party:

Public ownership of all public utilities, as railroads, telegraph, etc.

While awaiting the legislation necessary to secure public ownership rigid control of freight and passenger rates and severe penalties for rebates and other discriminations by railroads.

Taxation of railroads and other public utility corporations in the same proportion as the value of farm and other property. Direct legislation by the initiative and referendum to the end that the people may initiate good legislation and veto bad legislation.

A graduated income tax to the end that wealth, which received government protection, shall bear its just share of the cost of government.

That whatever is used as money shall be full legal tender issued by the general government in sufficient volume for business purposes and that volume be fixed in proportion to population.

Just election laws throughout the state.

Home rule for cities and abolition of the present system of using the police as a standing army to carry primary elections in the interest of dishonest politicians representing still more dishonest special privilege corporations.

Election of United States senators by popular vote.

ALLISON URGES SHAW TO BE A CANDIDATE

Des Moines, June 19.—Governor Shaw received a letter this afternoon from Senator Allison in reply to his telegram to the senator suggesting that he allow his name to be used as a candidate for president. The governor admitted that the senator stated in the letter that under no circumstances would he be a candidate for the presidency, but Governor Shaw said that he was in favor of his being a candidate and believed that the State of Iowa owed it to the governor to support him and send a delegation to the national convention to that end.

DENMARK MUST SELL OR FORTIFY ISLANDS

Demands of This Government that Offer a Difficult Alternative.

London, June 19.—The Copenhagen correspondent of the Daily Mail says the United States sent another note to Denmark saying that if she was not willing to sell the Danish West Indies she must fortify the islands at St. Thomas and St. John and establish garrisons at these places.

The correspondent says the demand appears to have been prompted by a desire on the part of the United States to secure the safety of the Isthmian canal. If the harbors named are not fortified they will be at the mercy of any sea power.

The correspondent adds that in as much as Denmark could not possibly undertake this work, which will cost several millions, the situation is regarded as serious.

IN COLUMBIAN REVOLUTION

Lively Experience of the Steamer Jamaica in South America.

New Orleans, June 19.—Dr. A. B. Brown, inspector of the board of health who was on the steamer Jamaica which arrived here today, said that when the ship was at Cooche they had rather a lively experience with Columbian revolutionists, sixty or seventy of whom were at that point. One of the revolutionists presented a demand to Captain Peterson that the ship's pilot and physician and a Columbian government official on board be sent ashore. They desired to execute the Columbian officer and wanted to use the pilot in navigating the vessel to Bocas. Captain Peterson promptly refused their demands. The insurgents made several attempts to board the Jamaica, but were kept off. They looted Chinese huts at Cooche and impressed the native women into the service.

BALFOUR DENIES THAT THERE IS ANY INHUMAN TREATMENT OF BOER WOMEN IN THE CAMPS.

London, June 19.—A meeting was held in Queen's hall tonight for the purpose of discussing the alleged horrors of women and children in the refugee camps in South Africa. Before the doors were closed there was a mad rush in which the glass panes of the doors were smashed and many persons injured so badly from kicks and blows that they needed surgical assistance. Several of the women fainted.

The meeting had been roundly denounced by the papers and patriotic Britons had been urged to break it up. Many of the latter gained access to the hall and caused the uproar. Some fifteen thousand other opponents of the meeting assembled in the vicinity of the hall, but were prevented by a strong force of police from entering. Had they been allowed to enter a riot would undoubtedly have followed. The meeting passed off without any other serious consequences.

A number of the interruptors were ejected from the hall and sufficient quiet was finally obtained to enable (Continued on fifth page.)
