WORST SNOW STORM OF PRESENT WINTER

Spreads Over New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland and Virginia—Especially Severe on Sufferers from Recent Floods—Railroads and Telegraph Suffer.

New York, March 5.—Another snow storm which threatens much damage started at 4 o'clock this morning. The snow was wet and heavy and caused much inconvenience and considerable delay to traffic on the elevated and surface lines. On the river the weather was so thick during the morning that ferryboats were unable to run at more than half speed.

Telegraph lines were demoralized. The State Library, Union company between New York and Philadelphia and 10 wires south of Philadelphia between 9 and 10 o'clock. The company reports that it is losing wires in all directions on account of the heavy snow, which in some localities was followed by sleet.

The snow storm which began this morning ceased for a short interval this evening, but about 7 o'clock it set in with renewed vigor. At midnight the snow was falling heavy and indications were that the storm would be the worst of the season. A high wind was drifting the snow badly.

Despatches from points in New York state, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland and Virginia tell of heavy snow falls throughout those states today. In many places the snow was falling late tonight. Saratoga reports the storm the heaviest since the great blizzard. Despatches from Balltown, Amsterdam, Newburg and other places are equally emphatic regarding the severity of the storm, while points heard from in Pennsylvania and Maryland report the storm the worst of the season.

Heavy drifts are reported from all quarters. Railroad traffic is tonight badly impeded. Trains on many roads are running behind time. The snow in many places ranges from a half a foot to two feet on the level. The storm is especially severe on sufferers by the present flood and it is predicted that if rain should follow the snow there would be even worse floods than those recently experienced.

Pittsburg, March 5.—The heaviest snow storm of the winter set in last night and at noon today it is still snowing. It was then seven inches deep and indications are of continued snow today and tomorrow. Street car traffic is almost at a standstill, both in Pittsburg and Allegheny. The railroads are also suffering to some extent and trains are delayed.

Huntington, W. Va., March 5.—A snow storm has been raging in south-west Virginia for 22 hours. In the Ohio valley the snow is 14 inches deep. In the mountainous district it is 30 inches. All street car traffic has been suspended in Ohio river towns. Railway traffic is greatly impeded.

BOERS' PERSONAL APPEAL TO ROOSEVELT

HE PROMISES THEIR REPRESENTATIONS SHALL BE CONSIDERED.

Washington, March 5.—Messrs. Wolverans and Wessels, the Boer delegates, at an audience with President Roosevelt today asked him to intervene to end the war in South Africa and also urged that the exportations of munitions of war from New Orleans be stopped.

It is understood the president gave no encouragement to the delegates. Secretary Hay explained to them, citing diplomatic precedents to sustain his position, that the government could not stop the exportation of munitions of war.

Washington, Mar. 5.—It is stated that Wolmerans and Wessels at the conference with President Roosevelt today appealed for some action on the part of the United States to end the war. The preferred intervention but were willing that the government should do anything which it thought right and proper to bring about a cessation of the troubles. They did not make any specific request, leaving the determination of the character of whatever step the government might be induced to take to the president and Secretary Hay. Their appeal was addressed to the sympathies of this government and indicated that the Boers would be satisfied with any arrangement bringing about peace. They were promised by Roosevelt that their representations should be given consideration.

YESTERDAY IN CONGRESS

REPRESENTATIVE MOODY INTRODUCES A NEW APPALACHIAN PARK BILL.

Proposes to Name the Contemplated Forest Reserve McKinley Park.

SHIP SUBSIDY BILL STILL UNDER DISCUSSION

SHORT SESSION OF THE HOUSE DUE TO DEATH OF REPRESENTATIVE POLK—CLASSIFICATION OF RURAL FREE DELIVERY.

Washington, March 5.—The senate resumed consideration of the ship subsidy bill today. Clay in a vigorous and lengthy speech antagonized the bill. He declared it was a vicious measure. Its sole object, he said, was to aid private corporations by taxing the people. Without finishing this address the bill went over and the senate adjourned. The house today further considered the bill to classify rural free delivery. Without disposing of the bill the house adjourned, on announcement of the death of Representative Polk.

New Appalachian Park Bill.

Washington, March 5.—Congressman Moody today introduced in Congress the following bill, entitled, "A bill for the purchase of a national forest reserve in the southern Appalachian mountains, to be known as the McKinley Appalachian National Forest Reserve."

"Be it enacted, etc.
"Section 1. That the secretary of agriculture is hereby empowered and directed to purchase lands suited to the purpose of a national park and forest reserve in the Appalachian mountains within the states of Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Tennessee, in total extent not to exceed two million acres, and to care for, protect, use and make accessible the said reserve or any part of it when so purchased for a national park.

"Section 2. That the secretary of agriculture is hereby empowered and directed to make such rules and regulations and establish such service as he may deem necessary for the care, protection and use of such forest reserve, and to sell such wood and timber as may be removed without injury to the forest: Provided, That no wood or timber shall be sold otherwise than by public auction except to actual settlers and in no case at less than the appraised value thereof. And provided further, that the proceeds of such sale shall be covered into the treasury of the United States after defraying all expenses for the care, maintenance and improvement of the same.

"Section 3. That the sum of $5,000,000, or as much thereof as may be required, is hereby appropriated for the purchase of lands for a national park and forest reserve as hereinbefore specified, said reserve to be known as the "McKinley Appalachian National Park and Forest," and said $5,000,000 shall be available until the expiration of the fiscal year 1910 and 1911, unless sooner expended."

The above despatch was shown to Senator Pritchard last evening, at his room at the Battery Park hotel.

After reading it he said: "I am not advised as to the purpose of Major Moody in making the changes from the original plan which are apparent in this bill, nor as to whether these changes will meet with the approval of the friends of the project in North Carolina."

"But I hold myself in readiness to agree to any changes or provisions that may be necessary to secure the ultimate success of the measure.

EFFORT TO AGREE ON CUBAN TARIFF BILL

Washington, March 5.—The president devoted a large part of today to conferences with the leading republicans of the house with a view of getting together on the subject of Cuban tariff legislation. The situation is becoming intolerable to the party in congress and the president. Although there have been several caucuses of the house republicans they appear to be as far apart as ever on the subject. It is reported that President Roosevelt will send a message to congress earnestly urging Cuban legislation in accordance with his well known views, if the bill should not be promptly reported as a result of tomorrow night's house caucus.

BRYAN ROASTS HILL IN HIS COMMONER

REGARDS NEW YORKER'S LATEST SPEECH AS ANNOUNCEMENT OF HIS CANDIDACY.

Lincoln, March 5.—Bryan in an editorial in this week's Commoner on D. B. Hill's candidacy takes Hill's speech at the recent Manhattan club banquet as a formal announcement of his candidacy. He says Hill is the favorite son of the reorganized element in the democratic party and declares that the money plank of Hill's platform is most unique and alluring to an artful dodger. He says: "A man could stand on that platform and advocate gold, silver, nickel or copper and after the election declare that hard money simply meant money that was hard to get."

Bryan adds that Hill's complete subservience to the financiers stamps his pretended interest in bimetalism as hypocritical. He would make the democratic platform so like the republican platform that democratic victory, if one was possible, would mean nothing.

WORK ON EXTENSION BEGINS ON THE LINE FROM TALLULAH FALLS TO FRANKLIN, N. C.

Demorest, Ga., March 5.—Work on the extension of the Tallulah Falls railway from Tallulah Falls to Franklin, N. C., will begin this week, the contract for the first 5 1/2 miles having been let.

The entire extension of over 40 miles will be, it is expected, completed within the year.

Work on the new depot at this place will also be commenced in a few weeks. The proposed removal of the depot from its present site on Georgia street to the new site on Main street gives almost universal satisfaction and will be of great advantage to local manufacturers. A new side track will be put in and the new depot will be modern in style and a credit to the road.
