TWO MARRIAGES IN MARION YESTERDAY

A Lady Falls, Breaking Her President's Threat of This Caus-Arm.

The Truth About the McCall- Present Session May Run Well Brown "Feud."

Marion Infested with Worthless 6,000 Copies of Senator Pritch-Dogs.

Special to the Gazette.

Marion, May 8 .- Yesterday was matrimonial day in Marion. Early in the and Miss Mary Turner of Monbo were married at the residence of J. A. Eolick, by Rev. T. E. Wagg. Late in the day C. E. Troutman, bookkeeper at the Rectifying house of Cooper & Co., was married to Miss Freda Hyams at the residence of her mother, by P.ev. Mr. Wilson, pastor of the Presbyterian church. These happy young married people left for an extended northern trip. Miss Hyams is a niece of the genial W. S. Hyams clerk of the District court at Asheville. Night before last Mrs. L. C. Neal imagined some one was in her house, and about 2 o'clock got up to make an examination, and in some way made a mistake and fell from the second to fall she broke her right arm and collar bone, and is said to be in a critical condition.

A mad dog was killed near Marion yesterday. Why men keep a pack of worthless dogs is a mystery to me. Marion is cursed with them.

Yesterday evening we had a heavy rain storm, accompanied by wind and vice. some hail. The old Flemming hotel is now in process of repair. A. P. Whitner returned to Marion yesterday, after an extended trip in the west and southwest. He attended the Confederate reunion at Dallas, after which he visited many places of interest in Texas and Mexico. In the City of Mexico he met and conversed with President Diaz. He says he found him to be a very courteous gentleman, and made many inquiries about the people and mountains of Western North Caro-

I cannot find out how many voters in McDowell failed to pay their poll tax. A leading democrat has told me there are about 350 delinquents.

R. S. McCall of your town was in Marion last night arranging the papers in the action of the State against Alex. and Sam McCall, prosecuted by R. W. Brown, about which the newspapers have had much to say under a mistaken knowledge of facts, claiming there was a feud of long standing between the parties. There is not and never has been any feud among them. They have married and intermarried with each other. R. W. Brown and Alex. McCall are first cousins, and Sam McCall's mother was a Brown. The Browns are democrats and the McCalls are republicans, and this is about the only cause of any bitterness among them. They are all Methodist in their church relations.

Special to the Gazette.

Washington, May 7.—President Roosevelt's threat of an extra session day Raymond Clement of Mocksvills of congress in September in case the senate fails to pass the Cuban reciprocity measure is causing wide comment among those members of the mational legislature who have recently called at the White House. To many of them the president has expressed the determination to force the Cuban reciprocity issue to a finish. He has declared that he will make the question a campaign issue and that his friends will lay their campaign speeches along the lime of redemption of the administration's pledges to assist industrial Cuba.

The president has several measures which he desires forced through at once and to this end has had numerous conferences with leaders of both house and senate and it now seems as if the the first floor of the dwelling. These two classes are the largest in the seminary, and, meeting as frequently as they do, they require work equivalent to a three years' course in a class meeting three hours a week. One-fifth of the total of the lecture periods is given to the English Bible alone. When we include also the work in Biblical introduction and in the other schools where the English Bible is the basis of instruction, it appears that about onehalf of the work of the seminary is di-
