SERIOUS RACE RIOT IN ATLANTA SUBURB

Seven Men Killed—Negro-Indian Bandit, After Killing Four Officers, Burned to Death in House Where He had Taken Refuge—A Block of Negro Cabins Destroyed.

Atlanta, Ga., May 17.—Four white men and three negroes are dead, and five white men wounded, and an entire block of buildings burned, as the result of a conflict here this morning between the police and blacks.

Will Richardson, who is believed to have been half Indian and half negro the owner of a store on McDaniel street, in the suburb of Pittsburg, brought on the trouble by resisting arrest and defying the officers of Fulton county and Atlanta.

The dead are:
Ed. Battle, a bailiff of Fulton county.
H. S. Ozburn, a policeman of Fulton county.

Thomas Grant, a policeman of Fulton county.

Edward Crabtree, a city policeman.
Will Richardson, the negro desperado, who killed these men, and who afterwards met death.

Milton Risby, a negro who attempted to escape from a sewer.
Unknown negro killed in a nearby yard.

The fight between the officers and the negroes occurred in Pittsburg, a negro settlement directly south of the city limits, on McDaniel street. It is thickly settled with small negro houses. There are outbuildings and barns and shrubbery over the entire neighborhood, which provided such shelter that it was possible to escape from house to house and dodge between fences without being detected.

The case bears a remarkable similarity to the New Orleans affray of several months ago, Richardson being a dead shot. Three of the officers who were killed were brought down by three successive shots fired by the negro.

Yesterday afternoon, while returning to his home on the McPherson road, former Police S. A. Kerlin was waylaid by five negroes. A sergeant stationed at Fort McPherson who heard his cries for help, ran to the place and found Kerlin unconscious.

At midnight County Policeman Golden heard that Kerlin's five assailants were located in a house on McDonald street, and hastened to the city and secured a warrant for their arrest from Justice Orr.

Policeman Golden was joined by Officers Dunbar and Cheshire and accompanied by a number of Kerlin's neighbors, including Owen Heard, the party started for the hiding place of the five negroes.

The house was dark and showed no signs of life, but as the officers approached the inmates opened fire and Owen Heard fell to the ground. He was borne out of range by his companions. This was at 1:30 this morning.

The house was at once surrounded by the posse and daylight was awaited before making another advance. Richardson, who is believed to have been half Indian, owned the store adjoining the house. In his store he kept ammunition and guns and was therefore well prepared for a fight.

At 6 o'clock this morning the little group of officers, who had been watching the house all night, approached the house and called upon those within to surrender. To their consternation they were replied to with a volley of shots one of which killed Officer Battle. The attacking party backed off some distance and from behind the trees and trolley poles commenced firing into the store. In a few minutes Will King, a negro, ran out and gave himself up to the officers. Inside the house, Richardson had an unobstructed view in three directions. One block away Policeman Tom Grant, of the Atlanta force, who was among those summoned to the scene, stepped from his shelter to fire into the house. A shot rang out from the besieged house and Grant fell dead.

The attacking posse hastily sent

Washington, May 17.—Through the publication just made in the Congressional Record of Senator Pritchard's Speech on the Philippine question, in which the colloquy with the junior senator from North Carolina occurred, your correspondent is able to send you the full report of Senator Pritchard's remarks on that occasion. His speech was recognized in the senate as one of the ablest delivered during the great discussion on the Philippine government bill, and the senator was warmly congratulated by a number of the most distinguished of the republican senators. Senator Pritchard spoke as follows:

The senate having under consideration the bill (S. 2295) temporarily to provide for the administration of the affairs of civil government in the Philippine Islands, and for other purposes—

Mr. Pritchard said:
Mr. President: I had not intended to discuss the pending measure until after I read the speech of my colleague (Mr. Simmons), which was delivered in the senate a few days ago, and it is not my purpose at this time to discuss it at any great length.

As I understand the matter, there is but one issue raised by the measure which is now pending before this body. The bill now pending is entitled "A bill temporarily to provide for the administration of the affairs of civil government in the Philippines, and for other purposes." The only question presented to us in the consideration of this matter is the question of administration. The question as to whether we own the Philippine Islands and as to whether we are to retain them has already been settled, and we are now called upon to decide as to whether we shall adopt the bill brought in by a majority of the committee or the proposition submitted by the minority.

Mr. President, I am satisfied that a majority of the people whom I have the honor in part to represent are here-

COAL FAMINE IN THE NORTH

STRIKE WILL SOON CAUSE SERI-OUS TROUBLE FOR MILLS AND RAILROADS.

Anthracite Mine Operators Preparing for a Long Shut Down.

NEW YORK CITY MAY BE FORCED TO SOFT COAL

Scranton, Pa., May 17.—The operators today endeavored to swear in as special policemen their engineers, firemen and pumpmen. The union objected and the men refused. They were threatened with discharge, but the threat was not carried out. Mules are being hoisted from the mines and preparations made for a long shut down.
There is practically a coal famine at the mouth of the mines as the mills are almost without a supply. The silk mills, employing 400, will shut down soon on account of lack of fuel.

New York, May 17.—Retail dealers say that if the strike is not settled soon the city will be using soft coal in two weeks.

President Baer says 25,000 railroad men will soon be laid off on eastern roads on account of the strike.

THE ARMY OF LOCUSTS' VANGUARD APPEARS

Washington, May 17.—The van guard of the army of seventeen year locusts has already appeared here and in Baltimore. In the Smithsonian grounds two large trees are covered with the insects. The ravages of the pests are expected to be in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, North and South Carolina and other eastern states according to agricultural scientists.

A FATAL SHOOTING

A report reached here last night that young Mr. Ebbs, son of Lawyer Ebbs, had shot and killed a negro at Hot Springs yesterday afternoon as the result of an altercation.

MOUNT PELEE AGAIN IN VIOLENT ERUPTION

Ashes Raining Down on Fort de France and the People Greatly Terrified—Looters of the Dead at St. Pierre Ruins Shot Down by the Soldiers.

Fort De France, May 17.—The steamer Madiana, whose cargo was purchased by the New York chamber of commerce for the sufferers at St. Pierre, arrived here today. A delay of four hours occurred, owing to red tape, before the authorities would receive the cargo.
Mount Pelee is very active. Dust is falling in Fort De France and the people are greatly terrified. Many are

DISTURBANCES ATTEND ALPHONSO'S CORONATION

FOUR MEN CARRYING DYNAMITE
BOMBES ARRESTED—MAGNIF-ICENT CORONATION.

Madrid, May 17.—Just at the moment the young king left the palace today for cortes to take the oath that makes him king of Spain a man of about 28, dressed like a workman advanced from the crowd and calmly opened a door of the royal carriage which was badly guarded. He threw a big paper packet at the feet of the king, who promptly kicked it out of the carriage and remained seated without attacking the man, who received three sacking cuts on the head. Halberdors at the same time stunned him with more blows.

Meantime a paroxysm of rage got hold of the crowd who endeavored to lynch the man but were restrained by the guard.

The man's name is Grues. It is believed he is crazy. The paper which he threw at the feet of the king contained a request for the hand in marriage of the Infanta Maria Teresa.

Later on four men were arrested.
Each was armed with dynamite cartridges. Eleven cartridges were found upon the quartet.

The procession which emerged from the court yard of the palace amid the booming of cannon, proceeded, at a walking pace, through the streets; gay with flags and bunting and beneath festoons of evergreens, which, at some parts of the route, formed veritable valleys of foliage and flowers to the chamber of deputies, before the steps of which had been erected a purple canopy.

The procession was a spectacle of medieval magnificence.

MACKLAY'S BOOK BARRED FROM NAVAL ACADEMY

BY A HOUSE AMENDMENT OF-FERED BY MUDD OF MARYLAND.

Washington, May 17.—In the house today Macklay was again the object of attack. Mudd (Md.) offered an amendment to prevent Macklay's history being used as a text book at the naval academy. Pearre (Mo.) supported the amendment, extolling the courage and patriotism of Schley. Foss objected to dragging Macklay out of oblivion. He sneeringly referred to Schley's loop, and read Roosevelt's comment upon it.
Foss paid a high tribute to Sampson.
Williams (Miss.) sarcastically referred to the "muse" of history, and apologized for having mispronounced the proper name of an improper person, saying he understood that since Crowninshield had been sent to the coronation, he had Anglicized his name and preferred to be called "Crunshid" (Great applause and laughter). The amendment was adopted without a dissenting vote.
